

Sessions, held at Carnarvon, in and for the said county, on Saturday, the 10th day of February, 1866, do now by this notice order and declare, that until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, goat, or swine, or any raw or untanned hides, skins, horns, or hoofs of any such animals, or the offal of any such animals, or any dung, lay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, shall be removed or taken from any part or parts of the county of Carnarvon, lying to the east of the River Conway, into any other part or parts of the same county, for any purpose or under any conditions whatever, except as hereinafter provided.

And further, that until such 1st day of March next, no such animals as aforesaid, or any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid shall be removed or taken to any market or fair, within any part of the said county, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

And that no such animals, or any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, shall be brought into the said county, or any part thereof, from any place or places whatsoever (except that cattle, sheep, and pigs for immediate slaughter, or hay, straw, and fodder may be brought by road only into the said county from any part of the county of Anglesey, except the parish of Holyhead).

Provided always that it shall not be unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals, or any hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, by railway through the said county.

Provided also that it shall not be unlawful for any person to remove or take hay, straw, and fodder, by road only, and for the purpose of feeding cattle only, but not for sale, from any part or parts of the county of Carnarvon, lying to the east of the river Conway, into any other part or parts of the same county, with a license signed by two Justices of the same county, during a time to be specified in such license.

Provided also that it shall not be unlawful for any person to bring or send (with a license signed by two Justices of the same county), any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, from any land or premises in his own occupation, beyond the jurisdiction of the said county, which shall be free from the cattle disease, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within the jurisdiction of the said county, during a time to be specified in such license.

Every person offending against the above Order is liable to a penalty of not exceeding £20.

By the Court,

Poole, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Great Torrington.

By virtue of the Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, the 16th day of December, and the 20th day of January last, I hereby order and declare as follows:—

That it is expedient to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or goat to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the borough of Great Torrington, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, until the 1st day of March next.

That it is expedient that, until the said 1st day of March, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or goat be brought from any other part of Great Britain into this borough, or be removed from any place within this borough to any other place therein, unless the owner shall have previously applied to the borough police and obtained a Justices' license for such removal.

Provided that it shall be lawful for any person, without such license, to remove his own cattle from land or premises in his own occupation, either within or beyond the said borough, to any other such land or premises within the said borough, unless such cattle shall in the course of removal be driven or carried over more than two miles of any turnpike-road, highway, public road, or sides thereof, or any unenclosed land.

That it is expedient that, until the said 1st day of March, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or goat be removed over or along any turnpike-road, highway, public road, or sides thereof, or any unenclosed land, within the said borough, between the hours of six in the evening and six in the morning.

And I hereby give notice, that all persons offending against this order will be liable to a penalty of £20 for every such offence.

Given under my hand this 12th day of February, 1866.

John Stoley, Mayor.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Shropshire Sessions, 10th February, 1866.

ORDER AS TO HIDES, &c.

In pursuance of the Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 20th January, 1866, the Justices of the Peace assembled at this Court of Quarter Sessions with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder designated as the Cattle Plague, do, in addition to their order of the 6th of January last, prohibiting the removal of cattle in the said county, except to lands adjoining, and in the same occupation, by this notice declare, that it is expedient, that upon and after this 10th day of February instant, and until the 1st day of March next, no raw or untanned hides, skins, horns, or hoofs of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf (except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs, as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America), or the offal of any such animals; and also that no dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter likely to propagate infection, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain, into any place within the said county of Salop, or removed from any place whatever within the said county of Salop, to any other place within such jurisdiction, provided always that nothing contained in this Order shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send with the licence of any two Justices acting for the said county, any such hides, skins, horns, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, from any lands and premises in his own occupation, and beyond the jurisdiction aforesaid, to any other lands or premises in his own occupation, within the said jurisdiction, during the term hereinbefore mentioned.

By the Court,

Loxdale,

Clerk of the Peace for the county of Salop.

Note.—By the Order of Council of 20th January, 1866, the power of sending cattle or hides, &c, out of the county by railway is repealed.
