AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 16th day of February, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty, King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your

No. 23073.

B

Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Wilfrid, situate at Hayward's Heath, in the parish of Cuckfield, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Wilfrid, situate at Hayward's Heath aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Cuckfield which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint Wilfrid, situate at Hayward's Heath aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Wilfrid, Cuckfield.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Wilfrid, Cuckfield, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Cuckfield, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such parish from the parish of Lindfield, in the same county and diocese, at a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'C. S. W. D. C., 1866, No. 1,' and placed on the western side of the Board Hill-road, opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 641 upon the title commutation map of the said parish of Cuckfield, and upon the map hereunto annexed from the close numbered 640 upon the same maps, such point being distant about thirty-eight chains and a half to the north-west of the bridge by which the line of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway crosses the said road; and extending south-westward to such boundary stone, and continuing in the same direction to and along the middle of the said fence, and along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 636, 630, 629, 625, 624, and 655 upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 640, as aforesaid, 621, 623, 597, and 590 upon the same maps, to the junction of the fence dividing the close numbered 655 from the close
