ERRATUM.—In Gazette of 6th February, 1866, page 671, line 16 (in the First Schedule of the Scheme of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts), for "Helperthorpe, V., with Suttons Ambo, C.," read "Helperthorpe, V., with Luttons Ambo, C."

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 16th day of February, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications; viz.:

GLoucestershire.—Forthwith in the burial-grounds of the Redfield and of the Zion Chapels, in the parish of St. George, Gloucestershire; and of the Wesleyan Chapel, partly in the parish of St. George and partly in that of Bitton, Gloucestershire, except in vaults and walled graves, which are free from water, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal and separately entombed, that is, enclosed by stone-work or brick-work, properly cemented; and except in earthen graves not less than five feet deep which are free from water, and no coffins to be exposed, or bones disturbed.

WITTON-CUM-SWANBROOKS.—In the parish of Budworth, and part of the town of Northwich, forthwith wholly beneath the church of Witton-cum-Swanbrooks, and within three yards of the church or school-house, also in the old part of the churchyard, except for the burial of widows, widowers, parents and children of those already buried therein, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately entombed; and except also in such earthen graves as can be opened not less than five feet deep, without exposure of coffins or disturbance of entire bones; and interment to be discontinued (with the like exceptions) in the whole of the churchyard after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

St. Luke's, BRISTOL.—Forthwith under the church and in the churchyard.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the third day of April next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said third day of April:

Arthur Helps.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 19th day of February, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Sir George Grey, Bart.
Mr. Milner Gibson.
Mr. Bruce.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prevent until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among Sheep, Cattle, and other Animals" (which Act has since been extended and continued in force until the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament), after reciting that "a contagious or infectious disorder known or described as the Sheep Pox or Variola Ovina, now prevails among the sheep in some parts of the United Kingdom, and it is necessary to take measures to prevent such disorder from spreading," it was and is enacted (amongst other things) as follows, namely:—"In case any Sheep or Lambs infected with or labouring under the
