

Greenwich Hospital; we beg leave to recommend that your Majesty will be pleased by your Order in Council to sanction the establishment of the following regulations. The admission of inmates into Greenwich Hospital to be confined to the undermentioned persons:

"1. All petty officers and seamen of your Majesty's Navy, and all non-commissioned officers and privates of your Majesty's Corps of Royal Marines, who have been granted pensions either for long service, or for injuries received or disease contracted in your Majesty's Service, and who may be infirm or helpless.

"2. All petty officers and seamen of your Majesty's Navy, and all non-commissioned officers and privates of your Majesty's Corps of Royal Marines, who have served, with good characters, for ten years continuously, or with short intervals, and who may be infirm or helpless.

"3. All petty officers and seamen of your Majesty's Navy, and all non-commissioned officers and privates of your Majesty's Corps of Royal Marines, whose claims may be special and exceptional, not coming within the above mentioned classes.

"All or any of such inmates to be discharged at the discretion of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Arthur Helps.

THE following Notices have been received by the Clerk of the Council from the Local Authorities appointed under the Orders of the Lords of the Council relating to the "Cattle Plague," and are published in the London Gazette in conformity with the requirements of their Lordships' Orders:—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Carnarvon.

By virtue and in pursuance of certain Orders by the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, the 16th day of December, 1865, the 20th day of January and the 23rd day of February, 1866, made in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned. We, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, for the county of Carnarvon, assembled in Quarter Sessions, held at Carnarvon, in and for the said county, on Saturday, the 3rd day of March, 1866, being the local authority constituted under and for the purposes of the Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866, do now by this notice, order and declare that until further notice no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, goat, or swine, or any raw or untanned hides, skins, horns, or hoofs of any such animals, or the offal of any such animals, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, shall be removed or taken from any part or parts of the county of Carnarvon, lying to the east of the River Conway, into any other part or parts of the same county, for any purpose or under any conditions whatever, except as hereinafter provided.

And that until such further notice, no such animals as aforesaid, or any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, shall be removed or taken to any market or fair within any part of the said county, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

And that no such animals, or any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, shall be brought into the said county, or any part thereof, from any place or places whatsoever (except that cattle, sheep, and pigs for immediate slaughter, or hay, straw, and fodder may be brought by road only into the said county from any part of the county of Anglesey, except the parish of Holyhead).

Provided always that (with the exception of cattle as defined by Section 3 of the said Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866), it shall not be unlawful for any person to send or carry sheep, goats, or swine, or any hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, by railway through the said county.

Provided also that it shall not be unlawful for any person to remove or take hay, straw, and fodder, by road only, and for the purpose of feeding only, but not for sale, from any part or parts of the county of Carnarvon lying to the east of the River Conway, into any other part or parts of the same county, with a licence signed by two Justices of the same county, during a time to be specified in such licence.

Provided also that it shall not be unlawful for any person to bring or carry into the said county of Carnarvon any hay or straw from the county of Merioneth, if the person or persons so bringing the same shall have the licence in writing thereunto of two Magistrates of the said county of Carnarvon.

Provided also that it shall not be unlawful for any person to bring or send (with a license signed by two Justices of the same county), any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, from any land or premises in his own occupation, beyond the jurisdiction of the said county, which shall be free from the cattle disease, to any other land or premises in his own occupation, within the jurisdiction of the said county, during a time to be specified in such licence.

Every person offending against the above Order is liable to a penalty of not exceeding £20.

By the Court,

Poole, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

THE Magistrates and Town Council of Arbroath as the Local Authority under the Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866, do hereby, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by Orders of the Privy Council and of the said Act, declare that it is expedient that the following animals, videlicet:— every cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox and calf shall be excluded from the weekly cattle markets within the said burgh and also all other places within the jurisdiction of the said Magistrates and Town Council for the purpose of exhibition and sale until the 1st day of April next, unless this Order be previously recalled with this qualification, that animals to be removed from the said market direct to the public shambles of the said burgh and there slaughtered under the directions of the Inspector, shall not be so excluded; and that it will not be lawful for any person after the publication of this notice to bring or send any animal of the said
