

The order dated 27th February, 1866, is revoked in so far as inconsistent with this order, but otherwise is declared to remain in full force and effect.

Persons infringing any of the orders incur a penalty of £20 for each offence; and in the case of more than four animals, of £5 for each animal.

By order,

Chas. G. Shaw, Clerk to the Board.

County Buildings, Ayr,
5th April, 1866.

From and after Monday, 9th instant, forms of certificates and applications for licence for bringing sheep into the county, may be obtained from the police.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Oswestry, 9th April, 1866.

In pursuance of the Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and of the Statutes in that case made and provided, the Town Council of the borough of Oswestry, with a view to prevent the spreading of the disease designated as the "Cattle Plague," do hereby make the following order, namely:—

1. That the orders and notices heretofore made for this borough on the subject of the cattle plague, except with reference to the appointment of Inspectors, are hereby respectively revoked.
2. That in construction of this order, the word "cattle" shall mean and include any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf.
3. That no cattle, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said borough of Oswestry, except as allowed by the provisions of this order.
4. That any cattle may be brought into the borough of Oswestry with a certificate, signed by a Justice of the Peace of the district out of which such cattle are brought, stating that such cattle are brought from premises where there shall not have been on such premises, or within two miles thereof, any case of cattle plague during thirty days immediately preceding, and that such cattle have been in the possession of the person removing the same for thirty days, and also provided that such cattle shall not be brought through any infected district.
5. That any sheep, lamb, goat, or swine may be brought into the said borough of Oswestry, with a certificate signed by a Justice as aforesaid, stating that such sheep, lamb, goat, or swine are or is brought from premises where there shall not have been on such premises, or within two miles thereof, any case of cattle plague or sheep pox during thirty days immediately preceding; and that such sheep, lamb, goat, or swine have or has been in the possession of the person removing the same for thirty days, and also provided that they shall not be brought through any infected district.
6. That any cattle, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine within the borough of Oswestry may be removed within the said borough at any time except within the hours of seven p.m. and six a.m.
7. That no dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter shall be brought from any place into the said borough without a certificate from a Justice as aforesaid, stating that the same is brought from premises where there shall not have been any case of cattle plague.

8. That no raw or untanned hides shall be brought into the said borough without a certificate from a Justice as aforesaid, that such hides are the hides of healthy animals, and from premises where there has been no case of cattle plague.

Any person guilty of any offence against any of the foregoing regulations will be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.

By order,

Henry Davies, Town Clerk.

Town Clerk's Office, Oswestry.—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Warwick. Easter Sessions, 1866.

The Local Authority orders and declares,

1. That the several orders heretofore made, and now in force within the jurisdiction of the Local Authority, shall continue in full force and effect until the 16th day of April instant.
2. That Order No. 3, of the Orders of 17th March be amended by the insertion of the words "for a month last past" after the words "there has been no Cattle Plague in or within two miles of the place from whence they are to be removed."
3. That the Orders in Council, recently issued, of the date of 24th March, 1866, together with the Circular Letter from the Home Office, be forthwith printed for the use of the Justices, and that a copy be sent to each Acting Justice.
4. That, whereas Nos. 26 and 27 of the said Orders in Council, relating to districts infected with cattle plague are required to be put in force without delay, it is ordered, that it be delegated to the respective Local Committees of the Petty Sessional Divisions, and they are hereby authorised, to carry out and put in force to the fullest extent the powers given by the said 26th and 27th Orders, for defining the limit of, and declaring any district in which the cattle plague shall break out within their respective Divisions, to be an "infected place."
5. That the Clerk of the Peace shall ascertain through the several Local Committees the number and situation of any places in which cattle plague exists within their jurisdiction, and the steps proposed to be taken in order to declare them "infected places," and report thereupon to the Privy Council, on or before 9th April instant, by letter addressed to Colonel Harness, R.E., Council Office, Whitehall.
6. That Mr. Edward Stanley, of Stephenson-place, Birmingham, be appointed Inspector for that part of the Henley Division which lies on the west side of the Stratford and Birmingham Turnpike Road, and for the parishes of Tanworth, Packwood, and Lapworth, in the same Division.
7. That the half of the penalty awarded under 11 and 12 Vict., c. 107, to the informer, shall in all cases in which a Police Constable is the informer, be divided into two equal portions, the one portion thereof to be paid over by the Constable to the Police Superannuation Fund, and the other portion to be retained by the Constable for his own use.
8. That these Sessions on the rising of the Court at Coventry, be adjourned to Saturday, 14th of April, at half-past twelve o'clock, at Warwick.

By order of the Court,

W. O. Hunt, Clerk of the Peace.

April 3rd, 1866.
