

praying:—1. That an agreement therein mentioned (and bearing date the 12th of February, 1866), for the sale of the above-mentioned hereditaments and premises to William Crawshay, of Caversham Park, in the county of Oxford, Esquire, for the sum of £2000, and on the other terms in the same agreements contained, may be sanctioned and approved by the Court, either without modification, or with such modifications as to the Court shall seem fit, and may be ordered to be carried into effect; and that for that purpose the said Little Stodham Estate, including the said allotments, may be sold, by and under the direction of the Court, to the said William Crawshay accordingly, and Samuel Seward and John Small (the trustees of the said will, in the Petition named) may be directed to convey, surrender, and assure the same hereditaments to the said William Crawshay, his heirs or assigns, or as he or they shall direct. 2. That the said purchase-money, or sum of £2000, may be ordered to be paid by the said William Crawshay to the said Samuel Seward and John Small, or other the trustees or trustee for the time being of the said will, or otherwise, into the Bank of England, as directed by the said Settled Estates Act, by a day to be fixed by the Court for that purpose. 3. That if the said sum of £2000 shall be ordered to be paid to such trustees or trustee, they or he may be authorised to apply the same (without any further application to the Court) to some one or more of the purposes authorised by the same Act; but if to be paid into the Bank, then that it may be ordered to be invested in manner directed by the same Act, and the interest and annual dividends of the funds or securities whereon the same shall be invested may be ordered to be paid from time to time, as they shall accrue, to the petitioner Hannah Butterfield, or her assigns, during her life, or until further order, for her separate use, and upon her separate receipt or order. 4. That the said William Crawshay may be ordered to pay to the petitioners, and all other proper parties, their costs, charges, and expenses of and incident to that application, and the Order to be made thereon (the same to be taxed in case the parties differ). 5. That for the purposes aforesaid, all proper directions may be given; as also for endorsing on the probate of the said will, or otherwise as the Court shall direct, the notice required by the 22nd section of the said Settled Estates Act, and for settling the conveyance to the purchaser. And also notice is hereby given, that the petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or of the Judge in chambers, or any notice relating to the subject of the Petition, at the office of their Solicitors, Messrs. Maynard, Son, and Co., No. 57, Coleman-street, in the city of London.—Dated this 1st day of May, 1866.
