

Ripon, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said parish from the parish of Spofforth, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the centre of Grimbald Bridge, which carries the Kirk Deighton branch of the Wetherby and Knaresborough trust road over the River Nidd; and extending thence in a direction mainly south-westward along the said boundary as far as the point where it crosses the Spofforth branch of the Wetherby and Knaresborough trust road, at or near to the northern end of Brick Kiln Plantation; and extending thence northward, along the middle of the last-described road, for the distance of one mile or thereabouts to a point near White Way Head, opposite to a boundary-stone inscribed 'K. H. T. D. C.' and placed on the western side of the said road at or near to a certain trough, or watering place, situate on the western side of the said road at a distance of one hundred and eighty yards or thereabouts to the south of Low Bridge; and extending thence north-westward and in a direct line for a distance of three hundred and forty-five yards or thereabouts, passing to the west of the Mother Shipton Inn to a point in the middle of the River Nidd aforesaid, opposite to the Dropping Well; and extending thence northward along the middle of the said River Nidd as far as its intersection by the Castle Mill Dam; and extending thence south-eastward along the said dam, and to and along the western and southern sides of the Castle Mill, to a point in the middle of Castle Ings-road, opposite to the middle of the western end of Castle Mill-lane; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with Brewerton-street; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with the street called Cheapside; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Gracechurch-street; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with High-street; and continuing thence still north-eastward across the last-named street to and along the middle of Park-row as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of a certain footpath leading past Ivy Cottage to Stockwell-lane; and continuing thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the said footpath to its junction with Stockwell-lane; and continuing thence still in the same direction along the middle of the said lane to its junction with Chain-lane; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with the Kirk Deighton branch of the Wetherby and Knaresborough trust road aforesaid; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the road last referred to as far as the point in the centre of Grimbald Bridge, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of June, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the ninth day of May last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order,