

six, in the words and figure following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and out of the new parish of Saint Philip, Bethnal-green, in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, and of the said new parish of Saint Philip, Bethnal-green, hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, have become vested in us under the provisions of, and for the purposes of, the herein-mentioned Acts.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honorable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all those several portions of the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, and of the said new parish of Saint Philip, Bethnal-green, which are respectively mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of The Holy Trinity, Shoreditch.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the sum of two hundred pounds, and that, so soon as a church shall have been erected within such district, and shall have been approved by us and consecrated as the church of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the further sum of one hundred pounds, making in the whole the sum of three hundred pounds; and that the said sums of two hundred pounds or three hundred pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of the consecration of such church as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May, or the first day of November, the amount then next, thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish; provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of the Holy Trinity, Shoreditch, being:—

"All those portions of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and of the new parish of Saint Philip, Bethnal-green, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, from the new parish of Saint Stephen, Spitalfields, in the said county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the High-street, Shoreditch, opposite to the middle of the western end of Swan-yard; and extending thence in a direction generally northward along the middle of the said High-street for a distance of two hundred and eighty yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the court called Jane Shore's-court; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of such court to its eastern extremity; and continuing thence in the same direction along the southern boundary walls of the house situate in Boundary-street, and numbered 6, and similarly numbered on the map hereunto annexed, to a point on the boundary in the middle of the last-named street which divides the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, from the new parish of Saint Philip, Bethnal-green aforesaid; and extending thence southward along the last-described boundary, following thereby the middle of Boundary-street aforesaid, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the western end of Half Nichols-street; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the last-named street to its intersection by Nichols-row; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named row to its junction with Church-street; and continuing thence still southward across the last-named street, and to and along the middle of Club-row to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Philip, Bethnal-green, from the new parish of Saint Stephen, Spitalfields aforesaid; and extending thence westward along the last-described boundary, following thereby the
