PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Henry James Baillie was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 9th day of August, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament, holden in the 6th and 7th years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it is and shall be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty now hath, or may at any time hereafter have, within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory:

And whereas Her Majesty hath power and jurisdiction in the dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Zanzibar and its dependencies:

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the due and effectual exercise of such power and jurisdiction:

I. Now, therefore, in pursuance and by virtue of the said recited Act of Parliament, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that Her Majesty's Consuls appointed to reside in the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar shall have full power and authority to carry into effect; and to enforce by the means and in the manner hereinafter mentioned and provided, the observance of the stipulations of any Treaty or Convention, or of any regulations appended to any Treaty or Convention, now existing, or which may hereafter be made between Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, and the Sultan of Zanzibar, his heirs and successors; and to make and to enforce, by fine or imprisonment, or both, Rules and Regulations for the observance of the stipulations of any such Treaty or Convention, and for the peace, order, and good government of Her Majesty's subjects being within the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar, his heirs and successors.

II. And it is further ordered, that a copy of all such Rules and Regulations made by the said Consul shall forthwith be affixed, and kept affixed and exhibited in some conspicuous place in the public office of the said Consul, and that printed copies of the said Rules and Regulations shall, as soon as possible, be provided by the said Consul, and sold at a price not exceeding one dollar for each copy; and for the purpose of convicting any person offending against the said Rules and Regulations, and for all other purposes of law whatsoever, a printed copy of the said Rules and Regulations certified under the hand of the said Consul to be a true copy thereof, shall be taken as conclusive evidence of such Rules and Regulations and all things therein respectively contained, and no penalty shall be incurred or shall be enforced for the breach of any such Rules and Regulations to be hereafter made, until the same shall have been so affixed and exhibited for one calendar month in the public office of the Consul: Provided always, that any such Rule or Regulation made by Her Majesty's Consul, and to be enforced by a penalty, shall, before the first day on which the same shall be so affixed or exhibited, be transmitted to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for allowance or disallowance; and if any such Rule or Regulation shall be disallowed by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the same shall cease to have effect from the receipt by the Consul of such disallowance; nevertheless, the Consul shall not be liable to be proceeded against in any of Her Majesty's Courts in regard to any act done by him under such Rule or Regulation previously to the receipt of its disallowance by such Consul.

III. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul as aforesaid, upon information or upon the complaint of any person that a British subject has violated any of the stipulations of any Treaty or Convention, or of any regulations appended to any Treaty or Convention, between Her Majesty and the Sultan of Zanzibar, or has disregarded or infringed any of the Rules or Regulations for the observance of the stipulations of any such Treaty or Convention, affixed and exhibited according to the provisions of the next preceding Article of this Order, to summon before him the accused person and to receive evidence and to examine witnesses on oath, as to the guilt or innocence of such person in regard to the offence laid to his charge, and to award such penalty of fine or imprisonment against any person convicted of an offence against any such Treaty or Convention or appended Regulations, or against the said Rules and Regulations, as may be specified therein respectively; and any charge against a British subject for a breach of any such Treaty or Convention, or appended Regulations, or for a breach of such Rules and Regulations for the observance of any such Treaty, shall be heard and determined by the Consul without assessors: Provided always, that in no case shall the penalty to be incurred by a breach of such Rules and Regulations exceed five hundred dollars, or three calendar months' imprisonment.

IV. And it is further ordered, that any charge against a British subject for a breach of Rules and Regulations other than those relating to the observance of Treaties shall, in like manner, be heard and determined by Her Majesty's Consul; and in all cases in which the penalty shall not exceed two hundred dollars, or one calendar month's imprisonment, the Consul shall hear and determine the charge summarily without the aid of Assessors; but where a penalty attached to a breach of the Rules and Regulations other than those relating to the observance of Treaties shall amount to more than two hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for more than one calendar month, the Consul, before he shall proceed to hear the charge, shall summon two disinterested British subjects of good repute to sit with him as Assessors, which Assessors, however, shall have no authority to decide on the innocence or guilt of the person charged, or on the amount of fine or imprisonment to be awarded to him on conviction, but it shall rest with the Consul to decide on the guilt or innocence of the person charged, and on the amount of fine or imprisonment to be awarded to him: Provided always, that in no case shall the penalty be attached to a breach of Rules and Regulations other than those for the observance of Treaties exceed five hundred dollars, or three calendar months' imprisonment; and provided further, that in the event of the said Assessors, or either of them, dissenting from the conviction of the party charged, or from the penalty of fine or imprisonment awarded to him by the Consul, the Consul shall take a note of such dissent, with the grounds thereof, and shall require good and sufficient security for the appearance of the person convicted at a future time, in order to undergo his sentence or receive his discharge; and in default of such security being given, it shall be lawful for the Consul to cause the person to be detained in custody until such security is given.

V. And it is further ordered, that if any person who shall have committed or been charged with any breach of or offence against any such Treaty or Convention, or any such Rules and Regulations as aforesaid, shall escape or remove from the Consular District within which the fact was committed, and shall be found within another Consular District, it shall be lawful for the Consul within which district such person shall be so found, to proceed against him in the same manner as if the fact had been committed within such district.

VI. And it is further ordered, that all suits, disputes, differences, and causes of litigation of a civil nature arising between British subjects within the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar, shall be heard and determined by Her Majesty's Consul, who shall be the sole judge and arbiter thereof respectively; subject nevertheless to an appeal against the decision of the Consul therein to the High Court of Bombay, in cases where the sum or matter at issue, is of the amount or value of two hundred dollars or upwards: provided always, that the party intending so to appeal against the decision of the said Consul shall, within fifteen days after the determination of the case by the Consul, by himself or his agent, give to the Consul notice in writing of his appeal to the said High Court of Bombay; whereupon the Consul shall, as speedily as possible, transmit to the said High Court all the documents which were produced before him in the case, and none other, together with a statement of the evidence taken before him in the case, and of the grounds on which his decision was formed, and shall forthwith notify to the several parties the transmission of the said proceedings to the said High Court; provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Consul to require from any person so appearing to the said High Court reasonable security, to consist in part of one or two sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Consul, that such person so applying will duly prosecute his appeal, and will abide by the decision to be given therein by the said High Court, and that in case such appeal shall fail, he will answer and satisfy all costs, loss, and damages sustained by the other party by reason of such appeal.

VII. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to summon not less than two, and not more than four, disinterested British subjects of good repute to sit with him as assessors at the hearing of any suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation whatever, of a civil nature brought before him for decision, and in case the sum sought to be recovered shall exceed five hundred dollars such suit shall not be heard by the Consul without Assessors, if within a reasonable time such Assessors can be procured; but the Assessors aforesaid shall have no authority to decide on the merits of such suit, but in the event of such Assessors, or any of them, dissenting from the decision of the Consul, the Consul shall enter the fact of such dissent and the grounds thereof in the minutes of the proceedings, and in case of appeal shall transmit the same to the High Court of Bombay together with the documents relating to the suit.

VIII. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to enforce his decision in favour of or against a British subject in a civil suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation, by distress and sale, or imprisonment, in like manner as a decision of the High Court of Bombay in a civil suit is enforced within the same.

IX. And it is further ordered, that in case of an appeal to the High Court of Bombay from the decision of Her Majesty's Consul, it shall be lawful for the said High Court, upon such terms as to costs and otherwise as it shall think proper, to admit any further legal evidence besides that adduced before the Consul, on its being established to the satisfaction of the said High Court, by oath or affidavit, that the party desiring to produce such further evidence was ignorant of the existence of such evidence, or was taken by surprise at the hearing before the Consul, or was unable to produce it before the Consul after due and reasonable diligence and exertion on his part, or where, under the circumstances of the case, it shall appear to the said High Court that further evidence ought to be received.

X. And it is further ordered, that Her Majesty's Consul shall have power in any civil suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation, to examine on oath, or in such form and with such ceremonies as the witness may declare to be binding on his conscience, any witness who may appear before him, and shall have power, on the application of any party in such suit, to issue a compulsory order for the attendance of any person being a British subject who may be competent to give evidence in such suit; and any British subject who shall have been duly served with any such compulsory order, and with a reasonable notice of the day of hearing of such suit, and upon his expenses of appearing as a witness having been paid or tendered to him by the party at whose application he shall have been ordered to attend, shall, on his wilful default to appear as a witness at the hearing of such suit, be punished with a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or with imprisonment for a period not exceeding thirty days, at the discretion of the said Consul.

XI. Every witness, being a British subject, so examined on oath, whether before the Consul or before a Kadi or other officer of the Zanzibar Government, duly authorized to act judicially, who shall in any such examination give wilfully false testimony, may be convicted of and punished for the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

XII. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to promote the settlement of any civil suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation, by amicable agreement between the parties; and with the consent of the several parties, to refer the decision of a suit or contention to one or more Arbitrators, and to take security from the parties that they will be bound by the result of such arbitration; and the award of such Arbitrator or Arbitrators shall be, to all intents and purposes, deemed and taken to be a judgment or sentence of Her Majesty's Consul in such civil suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation, and shall be entered and recorded as such, and shall have the like effect and operation, and shall be enforced accordingly, and shall be final and conclusive to all intents and purposes, and shall not be open to appeal, unless the same shall, within a reasonable time, have been ordered by the Consul to be set aside, on the ground that it is not final, or is defective, or that the Arbitrator or Arbitrators have exceeded their authority, or have been guilty of misconduct in the matter.

XIII. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to cause to be apprehended and brought before him, any British subject who may be charged with having committed any crime or offence within the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar; and such Consul shall thereupon proceed with all convenient speed to inquire of the same, and for such purpose shall have power to examine on oath, or in such form and with such ceremony, as the witness shall declare to be binding on his conscience, any witness who may appear before him to prove the charge; and also shall have power to compel any person, being a British subject, who may be competent to give evidence as to the guilt or innocence of the party so charged, to appear and give evidence, and to punish the wilful default of any such person to appear and give evidence, after reasonable notice of the day of the hearing of such charge, by fine or imprisonment, in like manner as is provided in Article X of this Order, and shall examine every such witness in the presence and hearing of the party accused, and shall afford the party accused all reasonable facility for cross-examining such witness, and shall cause the deposition of every such witness to be reduced to writing, and the same to be read over and, if necessary, explained to the party accused, together with any other evidence that may have been urged against him during the course of the inquiry, and shall require such accused party to defend himself against the charge brought against him, and, if necessary, advise him of the legal effect of any voluntary confession, and shall take the evidence of any witness whom the accused party may tender to be examined in his defence; and every witness being a British subject so examined as aforesaid, who shall upon any such occasion give wilfully false testimony, may be convicted of and punished for the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury; and when the case has been fully inquired into, and the innocence or guilt of the person accused has been established to the satisfaction of the Consul, the Consul, as the case may be, shall either discharge the party accused from custody, if satisfied of his innocence, or proceed to pass sentence on him if satisfied of his guilt; and it shall be lawful for the Consul, having inquired of, tried, and determined in the manner aforesaid, any charge which may be brought before him, to award to the party convicted any amount of punishment not exceeding imprisonment for one calendar month, or a fine of 200 dollars.

XIV. And it is further ordered; that if the crime or offence whereof any person being a British subject may be accused before Her Majesty's Consul as aforesaid, shall appear to such Consul to be of such a nature as, if proved, would not be adequately punished by the infliction of such punishment as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Consul to summon not less than two, or not more than four, disinterested British subjects of good repute to sit with him as Assessors for inquiring of, trying, and determining the charges against such person; and the Consul, when he shall try any such charge with the assistance of Assessors as aforesaid shall, if he is himself convinced of the guilt of the party accused, have power to award any amount of punishment not exceeding imprisonment for twelve calendar months, or a fine of one thousand dollars; and the Assessors aforesaid shall have no authority to decide on the innocence or guilt of the party accused, or on the amount of punishment to be awarded to him on conviction, but in the event of the said Assessors, or any of them, dissenting from the conviction of or from the amount of punishment awarded to the accused party, the Assessors or Assessor so dissenting shall be authorized to record in the minutes of the proceedings the grounds on which they or he may so dissent, and the Consul shall forthwith report to the High Court at Bombay the fact of such dissent, and of its having been so recorded in the minutes of the proceedings, and shall, as soon as possible, lay before the said Court copies of the whole of the depositions and proceedings, with the dissent of the Assessor or Assessors recorded therein, and it shall be lawful thereupon for the Court, by warrant under seal addressed to the Consul, to confirm, or vary, or remit altogether, as to the Court may seem fit, the sentence and punishment awarded to the party accused, and such Consul shall give immediate effect to the injunction of any such warrant: Provided always, that in any case in which the Assessor or Assessors shall dissent from the conviction of or from the amount of punishment awarded to the accused party, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to take good and sufficient bail from the accused party to appear and undergo the punishment awarded to him, provided the same or any portion thereof be confirmed by the Court, which punishment so confirmed shall commence and take effect from the day on which the decision of the Court shall be notified to the party accused.

XV. And in order more effectually to repress crimes and offences on the part of British subjects within the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar, it is further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to cause any British subject who shall have been twice convicted before him of any crime or offence, and punished for the same, and who, after execution of the sentence of the Consul, on any second conviction, shall not be able to find good and sufficient security to the satisfaction of the Consul for his future good behaviour, or who, having been deported under any sentence, shall during such sentence return, to be sent out of the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar; and to this end the Consul shall have power and authority, as soon as may be practicable after execution of the sentence on such second conviction, to send any such twice-convicted party, or any person so returning as aforesaid, to Bombay, and in the meantime to detain such party in custody until a suitable opportunity for sending him out of the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar shall present itself; and any persons so to be sent out of the said dominions as aforesaid shall be embarked in custody on board of one of Her Majesty's vessels-of-war, or, if there shall be no such vessel available for such purpose, then on board any British vessel bound to Bombay; and it shall be lawful for the Commander of any of Her Majesty's ships of war, or of any British vessel bound to Bombay, to receive any such person as aforesaid under a warrant from the Consul to him addressed, and thereupon to convey such person in custody to Bombay as aforesaid, in the same manner as if he were a distressed British subject, unless he shall be willing and able himself to defray the expenses of his passage.

XVI. And it is further ordered, that in any case in which any British subject shall be accused before Her Majesty's Consul of the crime of arson, or housebreaking, or cutting and maiming, or stabbing or wounding, or of any assault endangering life, or of wilfully causing any bodily injury dangerous to life, or of wilful or corrupt perjury, or of engaging in or being accessory to the purchase or sale of slaves, or of having slaves illegally in his possession, the proceedings before the Consuls shall be carried on with the aid of Assessors convened in the manner aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the Consul, if to him it shall seem fit, to cause any person convicted before him of any of the crimes aforesaid, over and above any fine or imprisonment which may be awarded to such person, to be sent out of the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar for such time as to him shall seem meet, in the manner pointed out in the next preceding Article of this Order, notwithstanding the crime laid to the charge of such person may be the first of which he has been convicted before the Consul.

XVII. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consuls within the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar, upon information laid before him by one or more credible witnesses, that there is reasonable ground to apprehend that any British subject is about to commit a breach of the public peace, to cause such British subject to be brought before him, and to require such British subject to give sufficient security to keep the peace; and in the event of any British subject being convicted of and punished for a breach of the peace, to cause such British subject, after he shall have undergone the punishment which may have been awarded to him by the Consul, to find security for his good behaviour; and in the event of any British subject who may be required as aforesaid to give sufficient security to keep the peace, or to find security for his good behaviour, being unable or wilfully omitting to do so, then and in any such case it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to send such British subject out of the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar, in the manner pointed out in Article XV of this Order.

XVIII. And it is further ordered, that in all cases in which a British subject shall have been sent out of the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar, as provided in the three next preceding Articles of this Order, the Consul sending him out shall forthwith report such act of deportation, with the grounds of his decision thereon, to the High Court at Bombay.

XIX. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to cause to be apprehended and brought before him any British subject who may be charged with smuggling or importing into the dominions of the said Sultan any goods whereon any duty shall be charged or payable to the said Sultan, with intent to evade the payment of such duty, or any goods the importation whereof shall be prohibited; and such Consul shall thereupon proceed with all convenient speed to inquire into the same on oath or solemn affirmation, and to hear the witnesses on both sides, with like powers and in like manner in all respects as is provided by Article X of this Order. And it shall be lawful for the Consul, having inquired into and heard the said charge, to determine the same, and if he shall find the party guilty, if the charge against him shall be of importing into the said dominions prohibited goods, then to award him to pay a fine not exceeding treble the value of the said goods at the current price of the day; and if the charge shall be of smuggling or importing goods with intent to evade the payment of duty as aforesaid, then to award him to pay a fine not exceeding treble the amount of the duties leviable thereon, and in case of non-payment of any such fine or fines to award him to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding three months, or it shall be lawful for such Consul, without awarding the payment of any fine, to award that such party shall be imprisoned for a period not exceeding six months in such place as he shall appoint: Provided always, that no British subject charged only with importing prohibited goods shall be apprehended, unless and until he shall have had one week's notice to appear and answer the charge, and shall have refused, failed, or omitted so to appear.

XX. And it is further ordered, that in cases of common assault, it shall be lawful for the Consul before whom the complaint is made, to promote reconciliation between the parties, and to suffer compensation and amends to be made, and the proceedings thereby to be finally stayed.

XXI. And it is further ordered, that a minute of the proceedings in every case heard and determined before the Consul, in pursuance of this Order, shall be carefully drawn up, and be signed by the Consul, and shall, in cases where the Assessors are present, be open for the inspection of such Assessors and for their signature if they therein shall concur; and every such minute, together with the depositions of the witnesses, shall be preserved in the public office of the said Consul.

XXII. And it is further ordered, that save and except as regards offences committed by British subjects against the stipulations of any Treaty between Her Majesty and the Sultan of Zanzibar, or against any Rules and Regulations for the observance of the stipulations of any such Treaty or Convention, duly affixed and exhibited according to the provisions of Article II of this Order, or against any Rules and Regulations for the peace, order, and good government of Her Majesty's subjects being within the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar, no act done by a British subject within the dominions of the said Sultan shall by Her Majesty's Consul be deemed and taken to be a crime or misdemeanour, or offence rendering the person committing it amenable to punishment, which, if done within any part of Her Majesty's dominions, would not by a Court of Justice having criminal jurisdiction in Her Majesty's dominions, have been deemed and taken to be a crime or misdemeanour or offence rendering the person committing it amenable to punishment; and Her Majesty is pleased to appoint, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, Her Majesty's territory of Bombay as the place where crimes and offences committed by British subjects within the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar, which it may be expedient shall be inquired of, tried, determined, and punished within Her Majesty's dominions, shall be so inquired of, tried, determined, and punished; and Her Majesty's Consul resident in Zanzibar shall have authority to cause any British subject charged with the commission of any crime or offence, the cognizance whereof may at any time appertain to him, to be sent for trial at Her Majesty's said territory of Bombay.

XXIII. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to cause any British subject, charged with the commission of any crime or offence, the cognizance whereof may at any time appertain to him, to be sent, in any of Her Majesty's ships of war, or in any British vessel, to Her Majesty's territory of Bombay, for trial before the High Court of the said territory; and it shall be lawful for the Commander of any of Her Majesty's ships of war, or of any British vessel, to receive any such person on board, with a warrant from the said Consul addressed to the Chief Magistrate of Police of the said territory; and thereupon to keep and detain in lawful custody, and to convey him in custody to Bombay, and on his arrival there to deliver him, with the said warrant, into the custody of the said Chief Magistrate of Police, or other officer within the said territory lawfully acting as such, who, on receipt of the said warrant, and of the party therein named, shall be authorized to commit, and shall commit, such party so sent for trial to the common gaol of the said territory; and it shall be lawful for the keeper of the said common gaol to cause such party to be detained in safe and proper custody, and to be produced upon the order of the said High Court; and the High Court at the Sessions to be holden next after such committal shall proceed to hear and determine the charge against such party, and to punish him for the same, if found guilty, in the same manner as if the crime with which he may be charged had been committed within Her Majesty's said territory of Bombay.

XXIV. And it is further ordered, that Her Majesty's Consul, on any occasion of sending a prisoner to Bombay for trial, shall observe the provisions made with regard to prisoners sent for trial to a British Colony in an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of Power and Jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers Countries and Places out of Her Majesty's Dominions, and to render the same more effectual."

XXV. And it is further ordered, that the High Court of Bombay shall have and may exercise, concurrently with Her Majesty's Consul, authority and jurisdiction in regard to all suits of a civil nature between British subjects arising within any part of the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar: Provided always, that the said High Court shall not be bound, unless in a fit case it shall deem it right so to do, by writ of certiorari or otherwise, to debar or prohibit the Consul from hearing and determining, pursuant to the provisions of the several Articles of this Order, any suit of a civil nature between British subjects, or to stay the proceedings of the Consul in any such matter.

XXVI. And it is further ordered, that all fines and penalties imposed under this Order may be levied by distress and seizure, and sale of ships, and of goods and chattels; and no bill of sale, mortgage, or transfer of property made by a party accused after his apprehension, or with a view to securing such party against any crime or offence committed or to be committed by him, or against the consequences thereof, shall avail to defeat any of the provisions of this Order.

XXVII. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul, from time to time, to establish rules of practice to be observed in proceedings before him, and to make regulations for defraying the expenses of witnesses in such proceedings, and the cost of criminal prosecutions, and also to establish rates and scales of fees to be taken in regard to civil suits heard and determined before the said Consul; and it shall be lawful for the said Consul to enforce by seizure and sale of goods, or, if there be no sufficient goods, by imprisonment, the payment of such established fees, and of such costs or expenses as may be adjudged against the parties, or any of them: Provided always, that a table specifying the rates of fees to be so taken shall be affixed and kept exhibited in the public office of the said Consul.

XXVIII. And it is further ordered, that all fees, penalties, fines, and forfeitures levied under this Order, save and except such penalties as may by Treaty be payable to the Sultan of Zanzibar, shall be paid to the public account, and shall be applied in diminution of the public expenditure on account of Her Majesty's Consulate in Zanzibar: Provided always, that in the event of any of the Zanzibar authorities declining to receive fines payable to the Government of Zanzibar as aforesaid, the same shall also be paid to the public account, and applied in the manner last mentioned.

XXIX. And it is further ordered, that Her Majesty's Consul within the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar shall, for and within the said dominions, and for vessels and persons coming within those dominions, and in regard to vessels captured on suspicion of being engaged in the Slave Trade within those dominions, have all such jurisdiction as for the time being ordinarily belongs to Courts of Vice-Admiralty in Her Majesty's possessions abroad. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to grant probate of will or letters of administration to the intestate estate of any British subject, or any native of a State or place under British protection, who shall die and leave property within the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar; and if such probate or letters of administration shall not be applied for within thirty days after the death of the deceased person, it shall be lawful for the Consul to administer to the estate of such person, and for so doing to reserve to himself out of the proceeds of such estate a commission not exceeding two and a-half per cent. on the account thereof.

XXX. And it is further ordered, that a register shall be kept by Her Majesty's Consul of all British subjects, and of all natives of British protected States in India who may claim British protection, residing within the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar; and that every British subject now residing within such dominions who shall not have been already enrolled in such Consular register, shall, within a reasonable time after the promulgation of this Order, such time to be specified in a note affixed and publicly exhibited in the Consular Office, apply to the Consul to be enrolled in such register; and every British subject who may arrive within the said dominions (except British subjects borne on the muster-roll of any British ship arriving in any port of Zanzibar), shall, within a reasonable time after his arrival, such time to be specified as aforesaid, also apply to the Consul to be enrolled in such register; and any British subject who shall refuse or neglect to comply to be so enrolled as hereinbefore mentioned, and who shall not excuse such refusal or neglect to the satisfaction of the Consul, shall not be entitled to be recognized or protected as a British subject in respect to any suit, dispute, or difficulty in which he may have been, or may be, engaged or involved within the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar, at any time when he shall not have been or shall not be so enrolled.

XXXI. And it is further ordered, that Her Majesty's Consul shall and may exercise all or any of the powers which, by any Act or Acts of the Imperial Parliament for the regulation of merchant seamen, or for the regulation of the mercantile marine, may now at any time hereafter be exercised by any Justice or Justices of the Peace within Her Majesty's dominions.

XXXII. And it is further ordered, that nothing in this Order contained shall be deemed or construed to prevent Her Majesty's Consul within the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar from doing or performing any act whatsoever which British Consuls within any other State in amity with Her Majesty are by law, usage, or sufferance entitled or enabled to do or perform.

XXXIII. And it is further ordered, that every action or suit brought against Her Majesty's Consul by reason of anything done under the authority of this Order, shall be commenced within six calendar months next after the doing thereof, and not otherwise; and the defendant in every such action or suit shall be entitled to the benefit of the provisions made with respect to defendants in actions or suits in the said hereinbefore recited Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign.

XXXIV. And it is further ordered, that the word "Consul" in this Order shall include every person duly authorized to act in the aforesaid capacity, within the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar; and that, in the construction of this Order, words importing the singular number shall, if necessary, be understood to include several persons, matters, or things; and words importing the masculine gender only shall, if necessary, be understood to import the feminine gender, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

XXXV. And it is further ordered, that the provisions of this Order, relating to British subjects, shall extend and apply to all subjects of Her Majesty, whether by birth or by naturalisation, and also to all persons enjoying Her Majesty's protection in the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar. And it is further ordered, that this Order shall take effect on and after the first day of September next.

XXXVI. And the Right Honourable Viscount Cranborne and the Right Honourable Lord Stanley, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lord Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting the office of County Coroner," it was enacted; that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration a petition presented to her, as directed by the said Act, by the Justices of any county in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, praying the division of such county into two or more districts, for the purposes of the said Act, to order that such county shall be divided into such and so many districts, for the purposes of the said Act, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place within each district the Court for the election of Coroner for such district shall be holden, as in the said Act is provided :

And whereas Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the county of Brecknock, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held at Brecon, in and for the said county, on the third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, have presented a Petition to Her Majesty in Council, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act (duly certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two of the said Justices present when such Petition was agreed to), setting forth that great inconvenience had been experienced for want of a proper division of the county into districts for holding Coroner's Inquests, and that there were then two Coroners acting for the county (independently of the Coroner appointed for the liberties of Crickhowell and Tretower), but no district had been assigned within which each was to exercise his office.

That the petitioners deeming it expedient that districts should be assigned to each of the two County Coroners, pursuant to the provisions of the above recited Act, did, at the last General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the said county, resolve that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division be made, and the further consideration of the petition was adjourned to the then present sessions, that notice thereof might be given to each of the said two Coroners; and that, in pursuance of such resolution, notice had been given to each of the said two Coroners of the said county of their intention to present to Her Majesty such petition, and of the time at which the same would be taken into consideration by the Justices of the Peace assembled at the said last-named sessions; and

That the said two County Coroners had accordingly attended the sessions and conferred with the memorialists, and had approved of a division of the county into two districts, to be called "The Southern and Northern Districts"; and

That the petitioners having taken into consideration the population of the county, as taken at the last census, the number of inquests held during the last five years, and other circumstances appearing to the Justices fit to be considered for carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act, had resolved that it would be expedient to form the several parishes and places within the hundred of Devynnock, including those within the Petty Sessional Districts of Ystradgunlais and Penderin, and also the several parishes and places situate within the hundred of Penkelly, together with the parish of Saint David's, in the borough of Brecon, into a district, to be called "The Southern District," and a Court for the election of a Coroner should be held in the said town of Brecon; and

That the several parishes and places of Saint John the Evangelist and Saint Mary's, situate within the borough of Brecon, as well as those within the hundreds of Builth, Merthyr, and Talgarth, including those within the petty sessional division of Hay, should form a district, to be called "The Northern District," and the Court for the election of a Coroner for such district should be holden at the said town of Brecon, and therefore praying that Her Majesty will be pleased to take the matter into Her Majesty's Royal consideration, and that Her Majesty will be pleased to make an Order for dividing the said county of Brecknock (excepting the portion thereof comprised within the liberties of Crickhowell and Tretower) into the said two districts to be called "The Southern and Northern Districts," and also to determine that the Court for the election of a Coroner for each of the said districts shall be holden in the said town of Brecon.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said Petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the publication of this Order in the London Gazette the said county of Brecknock (except and exclusive of the liberties of Crickhowell and Tretower), shall be divided into two Coroners districts, to be called "The Southern and Northern Districts"; and that the parishes and places within the hundred of Devynnock, including those within the petty sessional district of Ystradgunlais and Penderin, and also the several parishes and places situate within the hundred of Penkelly, together with the parish of Saint David's, in the borough of Brecon, shall form and be called "The Southern District"; and that the Court for the election of a Coroner for such district shall be held in the town of Brecon.

And that the several parishes and places of Saint John the Evangelist and Saint Mary's, situate within the borough of Brecon, as well as those within the hundreds of Builth, Merthyr, and Talgarth, including those within the petty sessional division of Hay, shall form and be called "The Northern District," and that the Court for the election of a Coroner for such district shall be holden at the same town of Brecon.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Passengers' Act, 1855, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order in Council, to prescribe such rules and regulations as to Her Majesty may seem fit, for certain purposes in the said Act specified, and, amongst others, for requiring duly qualified medical practitioners to be carried in passenger ships, in cases where they would not be required to be carried under the provisions of the said Act. And such Order in Council from time to time, in like manner, to alter, amend, and revoke as occasion may require:

And whereas from the prevalence of choleraic disease in certain parts of the United Kingdom, it has become expedient that Her Majesty should exercise the discretion and authority so vested in Her as aforesaid:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the authority vested in Her by the said Passengers' Act, 1855, doth hereby order as follows; that is to say:

From and after the 26th instant, and so long as this Order shall continue in force, every passenger ship, carrying more than 50 passengers on any voyage to which the said Act extends, shall, whatever be the duration of the voyage, and subject to the provisions of the 42nd section of the said Act, carry a duly qualified medical practitioner, who shall be rated on the ship's articles.

To prevent all doubts in the construction of this Order in Council, it is hereby further ordered, that the terms "passenger," and "passenger ship," shall have the same significations as are assigned to them respectively in the said Passengers' Act, 1855, and unless inconsistent with the context words of one number shall import both numbers.

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Carnarvon, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

situate at Peckham aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Peckham,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to, and be exercised by, the incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the particular district of Camden aforesaid.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that portion of the particular district of Camden (sometime part of the parish of Saint Giles, Camberwell), in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said particular district from the district parish of Saint George, Camberwell, in the same county and diocese, at the junction of the Grand Surrey Canal with the Peckham branch of such canal; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the said branch canal, as far as a point under the Globe Bridge which carries the Commercial-road over the said branch canal; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the Commercial-road aforesaid, for a distance of forty-two yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of New-road; and extending thence, southward, to and along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the road leading from Sunderland-wharf to the High-street, Peckham; and continuing thence, still southward, along the middle of the last-described road to the boundary in the middle of High-street, Peckham aforesaid, which divides the said particular district of Camden from the district parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Peckham, in the county and diocese aforesaid. And also all that portion of the particular district of Christ Church, Camberwell (also sometime part of the parish of Saint Giles, Camberwell aforesaid) which consists for the most part of the territory occupied by the two blocks of houses known respectively as 'Hackett's-terrace' and 'Hanover-terrace,' and which is situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said particular district from the particular district of Camden aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the Lower Park-road; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the said road (crossing the Commercial-road before mentioned) as far as the point where the said Lower Park-road is intersected by the Bird-in-Bush-road; and returning thence, westward, along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary which divides the said particular district of Christ Church, Camberwell, from the particular district of Camden as aforesaid."

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honorable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Wilton-place, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Barnabas, situate at Pimlico aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Barnabas, Pimlico.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Thomas Fuller, the present Incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the district parish of Saint Peter, Pimlico, in the county and diocese aforesaid, shall continue to be such Incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of the performance of marriages in the church of Saint Barnabas, situate at Pimlico aforesaid, shall be paid by the minister of such church to the Incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of Saint Paul, Wilton-place.

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the parish of Saint James, Duke's-place, within Aldgate, in the city of London, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas the mayor and commonalty and citizens of the city of London are patrons of the advowson (which is a donative) of the rectory of the said parish of Saint James, Duke's-place, and are also patrons of the advowson of the rectory of the parish of Saint Peter-upon-Cornhill, in the same city and diocese.

"And whereas the incumbency of the said last-named rectory is now vacant.

"And whereas the permanent annual income of the said last-named rectory is derived partly from tithe rent charge and partly from the rents of certain messuages, tenements, and hereditaments within the said last-named parish, and it is estimated that such income will, from this time until the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, amount to eight hundred and fifty pounds per annum, or thereabouts, and will afterwards be largely increased.

"And whereas the permanent annual income of the said rectory of Saint James, Duke's-place, is at present forty shillings per annum only.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us by the mayor and commonalty and citizens of the city of London aforesaid, and it appears to us to be expedient that the income of the said rectory of Saint Peter-upon-Cornhill should be apportioned in manner hereinafter-mentioned between such rectory and the said rectory of Saint James, Duke's-place, within Aldgate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the mayor and commonalty and citizens of the city of London aforesaid (testified by their having affixed their common or corporate seal to this scheme), and with the consent of the Right Honorable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the diocese of London (testified by his having set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal to this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by the now next succeeding rector of the said rectory of Saint Peter-upon-Cornhill, and his successors, out of the revenues of the same rectory to the rector, for the time being, of the said rectory of Saint James, Duke's-place, within Aldgate, and his successors, the annual sum of three hundred pounds, clear of all deductions, except property or income tax (if any), and that such sum shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments, in each and every year, and that the first of such half-yearly payments shall become due upon the expiration of twelve calendar months from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme.

"And, with the same consents so testified as aforesaid, we further recommend and propose that the said annual sum of three hundred pounds, and every instalment of such sum shall be and be deemed to be hereby charged and chargeable upon all the messuages or tenements, lands, tithes, and hereditaments whatsoever and wheresoever, to the said rectory of Saint Peter-upon-Cornhill, now belonging, or at any time hereafter to belong, and that the rector for the time being of the said rectory of Saint James, Duke's-place, who shall be entitled to such annual sum, shall have all legal remedies for recovering and enforcing payment of the same annual sum, and of every instalment thereof, which shall remain unpaid by the space of twenty-one days or upwards from the day when the same shall have become due, as hereinbefore mentioned.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of August, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as an endowment for the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Canterbury.

"Whereas, under the provisions of the above mentioned Act, and of an Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and of an Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six; and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the authority of such provisions, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and duly published in the London Gazette on the eighth day of the same month and year, in consideration of an annual money payment of five thousand and seven hundred pounds, and of the appropriation by us of a sum of twenty thousand pounds to the purpose of effecting certain repairs and improvements of and in connection with the said cathedral church, and in consideration also of the conveyance to the said dean and chapter of all our estate and interest in certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly set forth in the schedule marked A, referred to in the same Order, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements and hereditaments theretofore belonging either in possession or reversion to the said dean and chapter (except certain portions thereof in the above mentioned Order particularly excepted), and all the estate and interest therein of the said dean and chapter became vested in us.

"And whereas it was by the above-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council, provided that none of the monies or estates to be received or acquired under the provisions thereof (excepting only the Manors of Walworth and Fauxhall, in the county of Surrey, and such of the same lands, tenements, and hereditaments, as are situate or arise within the several parishes of Saint Mary Newington, Saint Mary Lambeth, and Streatham, in the said county of Surrey or elsewhere, within either of the said manors), should be applicable to the purposes of our common fund, except only so far as it might be necessary to reimburse such fund any advances made thereout under the provisions of such Order until or unless by and under the like authority the said dean and chapter should have been put into possession in fee simple of real estates sufficient to secure to them a clear annual income (after deducting rates, taxes, and other outgoings, including cost of management), of five thousand and seven hundred pounds.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter have signified to us their willingness to accept as their permanent endowment the lands, rent charges, tenements, and hereditaments, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, the whole of which are now vested in us, and the same are, in our opinion, convenient to be held as the permanent endowment of the said dean and chapter, and are calculated to produce, as nearly as may be, the above-mentioned net annual income of five thousand and seven hundred pounds.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church at Canterbury, testified by their having hereunto affixed their corporate seal, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands, rent charges, tenements, and hereditaments, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all our right, title, estate, and interest therein, and in the benefit of the perpetual land tax, if any, charged upon the same premises which has been redeemed shall be assigned as the endowment of the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury; and shall, subject always and nevertheless to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands, rent charges, tenements, and hereditaments, are now specifically liable, become and be absolutely vested in the said dean and chapter in as full and ample a manner as if the same had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said dean and chapter.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the annual money payment of five thousand and seven hundred pounds heretofore payable by us under the provisions of the hereinbefore-recited Order of your Majesty in Council of the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, shall, as from the first day of April now last past, cease and determine, and that the said dean and chapter shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments hereby proposed to be assigned to them as from the same date.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of August, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

“We humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices described in the first schedule hereunto annexed the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, and that the said several payments so recommended to be made by us shall commence and be calculated as from the dates which are set opposite to the names of such benefices respectively in the fourth column of the same schedule: Provided always that the grants so recommended to be made by us to the several benefices of Saint Cuthbert Gateshead, Saint Matthew, City-road, London, Owston, Weeford-with-Hints, and Wilsford and Woodford-cum-Lake, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or before the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, of certificates under the hands of the bishops of the respective dioceses that an assistant curate, duly licensed by such bishop, has in each instance been employed within the parish or district during the preceding half-year, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum; and provided also that the grant which is hereinbefore recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Saint John, Chatham, shall cease and determine upon and from the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight; and provided also that the grant which is hereinbefore recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Walton-le-Dale shall be reduced to an annual sum or stipend of one hundred and six pounds upon and from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three; and provided also that, in consideration of the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Saint Paul, Tupsley, sometime part of the parish of Hampton Bishop, in the county and diocese of Hereford, the annual sums or stipends, together amounting to one hundred and twenty pounds, which, under the provisions of certain Orders of your Majesty in Council, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, were made payable by us to the rectory of the said parish of Hampton Bishop, subject to the employment of a duly licensed curate at Tupsley, shall, with the consent of the Reverend Henry Huntingford, Clerk, the present rector or incumbent of the said rectory of Hampton Bishop, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, absolutely cease and determine, as from the thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six; and provided lastly that the grants payment whereof is so herein recommended to be made by us conditionally, upon the employment of assistant curates shall continue in force so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the respective cures in favor of which the same conditional grants are so recommended and proposed.

“And we further recommend and propose that the lands and premises, tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes and other hereditaments particularly described in the second and five following schedules hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—that the lands and hereditaments, described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Aycliffe, in the county and diocese of Durham, formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Durham, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Aycliffe; that the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Knockholt, in the county of Kent, and diocese of Canterbury, formerly belonging to the sinecure rectory of Orpington, and now vested in us, subject to a subsisting lease to the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Knockholt, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Knockholt; that the lands and hereditaments, described in the fourth schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Osmotherley, in the county and diocese of York, now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Osmotherley, and that the same vicar or incumbent shall be entitled to receive the rents and profits of the lands and hereditaments to be so annexed by us, as last-mentioned, as from the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five; that the lands and hereditaments, described in the fifth schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Little Tew, in the county and diocese of Oxford, which were conveyed to us by a deed, bearing date the twenty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and made between the Reverend John Prideaux Lightfoot, Doctor in Divinity, Rector of Exeter College, in the University of Oxford, and the scholars of the same college, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the said diocese of Oxford, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Little Tew aforesaid; and that the same perpetual curate or incumbent shall be entitled to receive the rents and profits of the lands and hereditaments to be so annexed by us as last-mentioned as from the said twenty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, that the lands and hereditaments described in the sixth schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Whitchurch, in the county of Glamorgan and diocese of Llandaff, formerly belonging to the prebend of Llangwm, in the cathedral church of Llandaff, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Whitchurch; that the lands and hereditaments described in the seventh schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Yetminster, in the county of Dorset and diocese of Salisbury, formerly belonging to the prebend of Yetminster Secunda, in the cathedral church of Salisbury, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent, for the time being, of the vicarage of the said parish of Yetminster.

"And we further recommend and propose, that we may be authorised and empowered to appropriate, as from the twenty-third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, out of the common fund aforesaid, to the vicarage of the parish of Marton with the vicarage of the parish of Grafton annexed, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon, a capital sum of one thousand pounds towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage house for the said vicarage of Marton with Grafton.

"And we further recommend and propose, that we may be authorised and empowered to pay out of the common fund aforesaid on behalf of the benefices specified in the eighth schedule hereunto annexed such annual sums as may be necessary for discharging the yearly instalments which, in respect of interest and principal monies, may from and after the dates set opposite to the names of the said benefices respectively in the fourth column of the same schedule become, from time to time, due and owing on account of certain mortgages of the said several benefices which, by certain deeds bearing the respective dates set forth in the fifth column of the same schedule have been effected under the provisions of the Acts known as 'Gilbert's Acts,' enabling the governors of the bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy, to lend money for the purpose of providing residences for the clergy.

"And we further recommend and propose, that if at any time it shall appear desirable to us that any lands, tithe, or other hereditaments should be substituted for the annual sums hereinbefore mentioned, or any of them, or any part thereof, nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such substitution, or any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 9th day of August, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect with certain modifications the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;" and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the laws relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence;" duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect with certain modifications the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth year of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to alter and amend the law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence;' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the substitution of certain money payments for certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, now belonging to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Rochester.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Acts enacted and declared, that by the authority of a scheme prepared by us and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the said first-recited Act, any sum of money which should have been invested in the public funds, or in any other security or securities in trust for any Ecclesiastical Body Corporate, aggregate or sole, might upon application in writing to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England under the hand and seal of such body corporate; and in the case of any chapter with the consent of the visitor thereof, be directed to be sold and the same should be sold accordingly, and that the produce of such sale should be applied to such purpose and in such manner as should appear most conducive to the permanent benefit of such body corporate, and also that for any like purpose any arrangement might be made with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any chapter, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such chapter, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, and that the aforesaid provisions relating to the sale and application of any sum of money invested in trust for any Ecclesiastical Body Corporate, did and should include and apply to all monies and securities for money, and to all stock in the Government funds or elsewhere, standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, or in the name or names of any other public officer, or of any individual or individuals, for or to the credit of or in trust for any bishop, dean and chapter, dean or canon, whether for the purpose of being laid out in land or otherwise.

"And whereas the said chapter now consists of a dean and four canons, two canonries in the said cathedral having been suspended under the provisions of the said first recited Act.

"And whereas the dean and chapter are seized in fee of certain manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, the greater part of which have been and now are demised or granted on leases or grants for years or lives at small annual reserved rents and upon payment of fines, and they are also beneficially interested or otherwise entitled to certain sums of stock invested or held in trust as aforesaid, and particularly specified and set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked A.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and the said dean and chapter have proposed to us, with the consent of their visitor, that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments (except as hereinafter excepted), so belonging to them as aforesaid, should be dealt with in manner hereinafter mentioned, and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce as well to the improvement of the said fund as to the permanent benefit of the said dean and chapter that the same should be dealt with accordingly.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Rochester, and of the Right Reverend Joseph Cotton, Bishop of Rochester, as visitor of the said dean and chapter, testified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals, we humbly recommend and propose that all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments which now belong either in possession or reversion to the said dean and chapter (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage, the said cathedral church, and the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked B), together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax charged thereupon, which has been redeemed, subject, nevertheless, to the liabilities and claims upon or in respect of the same manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments of or to which the said dean and chapter are now liable, and all the estate and interest therein of the said dean and chapter shall upon and from the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than any such duly published Order become and be transferred to and vested in us and our successors, and that we and they shall thereupon become absolutely seized of the same in fee and shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof, as from the twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, we shall surrender all right and be excluded from all participation in respect of the said suspended canonries to and in the estates and property to be retained by the said dean and chapter, or to be hereafter transferred to them as their permanent endowment, and in the rents and profits thereof, and in the money payments hereinafter mentioned; and that there shall be paid by us on the twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year to the said dean and chapter, until they shall have been put into possession of real estates as hereinafter mentioned in respect of the half year then last past, the sum of four thousand nine hundred and thirty pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose that until such re-endowment as aforesaid there shall also be paid by us to the said dean and chapter on the said twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year a sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, in order to enable them to remunerate their chapter clerk for the time being, and that the first of each such half yearly payments shall be made immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme in respect of the half year now last past, together with a further sum of one thousand pounds in consideration of the said dean and chapter having abstained and abstaining from renewing certain leases of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments hereby proposed to be transferred to us, which became renewable prior to the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and that the receipts of the receiver for the time being of the said dean and chapter shall be a good and valid discharge to us for all or any and every such sum or sums of money as shall therein be expressed to have been paid to him by us under the authority of this scheme when ratified as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that no augmentation or endowment of any benefice by means of the appropriation or annexation of any part of the estates to be acquired by us under the provisions of this scheme, or by means of any payment granted out or in respect of the rents and profits thereof shall be made by us until or unless by and under the like authority the said dean and chapter shall have been put into possession in fee simple of real estates sufficient to secure to the said dean and chapter a clear annual income therefrom (after deducting rates, taxes, and other outgoings) of nine thousand eight hundred and sixty pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose with the like consent of the said dean and chapter and of their visitor, that the said sums of stock described in the said schedule marked A, shall be, as soon as conveniently may be, sold out or transferred, and the same or the proceeds thereof paid or carried to our account at the Bank of England to be applied towards the objects of this scheme, and particularly to investment in the purchase of any interest in the estates herein proposed to be transferred to us, or any or either of them, or of any other real estates.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the said Acts, or either of them, or with any other Act of Parliament.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the district parish of Saint Peter, Walworth (some time part of the parish of Saint Mary, Newington), in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of London, and in the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Southwark, also some time part of the said parish of Saint Mary, Newington.

"Whereas the Bishop of London for the time being is patron in right of his see of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary, Newington.

"And whereas the Reverend Arthur Cyril Onslow, Clerk, the present rector of the said rectory of Saint Mary, Newington, is the patron (during and in right of his incumbency of the same rectory) of the said district parishes of Saint Peter, Walworth, and of the Holy Trinity, Southwark.

"And whereas a desire has been expressed to us by the Right Honorable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and it appears to us to be expedient that the patronage of the said two district parishes of Saint Peter, Walworth, and of the Holy Trinity, Southwark, should from and after the next avoidance of the said rectory of the parish of Saint Mary, Newington, be permanently vested (if the same be not already by law prospectively so vested) in the Bishop of London for the time then being and his successors.

"And whereas a desire has also been expressed to us by the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and it appears to us to be expedient that arrangements should be made for apportioning the endowments of the said rectory of Saint Mary, Newington, between the rector thereof, and the incumbents of the said district parishes of Saint Peter, Walworth, and of the Holy Trinity, Southwark, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and of the said Arthur Cyril Onslow, as such rector as aforesaid of the said rectory of the parish of Saint Mary, Newington (testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the next avoidance of the said rectory of Saint Mary, Newington, the whole right of patronage of the said two district parishes of Saint Peter, Walworth, and of the Holy Trinity, Southwark, and of each of them, now as aforesaid vested in the said Arthur Cyril Onslow, as such rector as aforesaid, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and be absolutely and for ever vested in the Bishop of London for the time then being, and his successors (if such prospective right of patronage will not by operation of law become absolutely vested in the Bishop of London and his successors in the same see), upon and after the next avoidance of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary, Newington.

"And, with the consent of the Right Honorable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London (testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we also humbly recommend and propose, that upon the next avoidance of the said rectory of the parish of Saint Mary, Newington, and subject to the ratification of this scheme by an Order of your Majesty in Council, and to the due publication of such Order in the London Gazette, all those the messuages and hereditaments which are specified in the first schedule hereunder written, and which now form part of the endowment of the said rectory of Saint Mary, Newington, with their appurtenances, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than as aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the incumbent of the said district parish of Saint Peter, Walworth, and his successors incumbents of the same benefice; subject, nevertheless, to any legally subsisting lease or leases upon which the same may then be held, and that all those the messuages and hereditaments which are specified in the second schedule hereunder written, and which also now form part of the endowment of the said rectory of Saint Mary, Newington, with their appurtenances, shall in like manner be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the incumbent of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Southwark, and his successors incumbents of the said benefice; subject, nevertheless, to any legally subsisting lease or leases upon which the same may then be held.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

Light Vessel on Plateau de Roche-bonne.

THE Minister of Public Works in France has given notice, that on and after the 15th day of September, 1866, the light vessel, which has been moored east of the Plateau de Roche-bonne—off the west coast of France, will exhibit two fixed white lights, the one being 46, and the other 33 feet above the level of the sea; in clear weather they should be seen from a distance of 10 miles.

The vessel is painted red, with two masts surmounted by skeleton balls; she is moored in 26 fathoms, in about lat. $46^{\circ} 12' N.$, long. $2^{\circ} 20' 51''$ West of Greenwich.

During foggy weather, a bell will be sounded quickly for the space of a minute, with an interval of three minutes; but in the event of a vessel passing near the floating light, the ringing will be continued without interruption. It is contemplated to substitute for this bell, a trumpet to be sounded by compressed air, which would be heard at a much greater distance.

Note.—From experience obtained during the past winter, it is probable the light vessel will be able to keep at her present moorings during all weathers, notwithstanding the violence of the sea in this locality; but mariners are warned against placing too much dependence on the vessel retaining her position.
