Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 28, 1866.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 25th day of August, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Mr. Secretary Walpole.
Mr. Corry.

WHEREAS by an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 14th day of July, 1866, after reciting section five of "The Diseases Prevention Act, 1855," and referring to the Act of the session of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty's reign (chapter seventy-seven), and reciting that it was deemed expedient to put in force the provisions of the said Acts within the whole of England, the Lords of the Council did, in exercise of the powers given by the said Acts, order and direct that the provisions contained in the said Acts for the prevention of diseases should, from and after the date of the Order now in recital, be put in force within the whole and every part of England :

And whereas by the first-mentioned Act (section eleven) it is enacted that Orders in Council issued in pursuance of that Act for putting in force the provisions for the prevention of disease in the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Acts contained, in Great Britain, might extend to parts and arms of the sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty :

And whereas it appears to the Lords of the Council expedient to enlarge the application of the said Order, so that the same shall extend to parts and arms of the sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty :

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the said Acts or otherwise in them vested, do hereby order that the said Order of the 14th day of July, 1866, do extend, and the same is hereby extended, to all parts and arms of the sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty within three miles of the coasts of England.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 25th day of August, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Mr. Secretary Walpole.
Mr. Corry.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth (chapter seventy-eight), "to repeal the several laws relating to the performance of quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," section six, the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, are empowered, in case of any infectious disease or distemper appearing or breaking out in the United Kingdom, to make such Orders and give such direction in order to cut off all communication between any persons infected with any such disease or distemper and the rest of Her Majesty's subjects as shall appear to the said Lords or others, or any two or more of them, to be necessary and expedient for that purpose ; and it is by the same section provided that all such Orders so made by the Lords or others of the Privy Council, or any two or more of them, as aforesaid, shall be as good, valid, and effectual to all intents and purposes, as well with respect to the Commander, Master, or other person having the charge of any vessel, and all other persons on board the same, as with respect to any other persons having any intercourse or communication with them, and to the penalties, forfeitures, and punishments to which they may respectively become liable, as any Order or Orders made by Her Majesty, Her heirs or successors, by and with the advice of Her or their Privy Council, concerning quarantine, notified by Proclamation or published in the London Gazette :

And whereas by "The Diseases Prevention Act, 1855," it is (among other things), enacted (sections five, six, and eleven), as follows :—

V. "Whenever any part of England appears to be threatened with, or is affected by, any formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council, or one

“ of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State “ being one), may, by Order or Orders to be by “ them from time to time made, direct that the “ provisions herein contained for the prevention “ of diseases be put in force in England, or in such “ parts thereof as in such Order or Orders respec“ tively may be expressed, and may from time to “ time, as to all or any of the parts to which any “ such Order or Orders extend, and in like “ manner revoke or renew any such Order ; and “ subject to revocation and renewal as aforesaid, “ every such Order shall be in force for six “ calendar months, or for such shorter period as “ in such Order shall be expressed ; and every “ such Order of Her Majesty’s Privy Council, or “ of any Members thereof as aforesaid, shall be “ certified under the hand of Clerk in Ordinary of “ Her Majesty’s Privy Council, and shall be pub“ lished in the London Gazette ; and such publica“ tion shall be conclusive evidence of such Order,
 “ to all intents and purposes :”

VI. “ From time to time after the issuing of “ of any such Order as aforesaid, and whilst the “ same continue in force, the General Board of “ Health may issue directions and regulations, as “ the said Board may think fit—

“ For the speedy interment of the dead :

“ For house to house visitation :

“ For the dispensing of medicines, guarding “ against the spread of disease, and affording “ to persons afflicted by or threatened with “ such epidemic, endemic, or contagious “ diseases such medical aid and such accom“ modation as may be required :

“ And from time to time, in like manner, may “ revoke, renew, and alter any such directions
 “ and regulations as to the said Board appears “ expedient, to extend to all parts in which the “ the provisions of this Act for the prevention of “ disease shall for the time being be put in force “ under such Orders aforesaid, unless such direc“ tions and regulations be expressly confined to “ some of such parts, and then to such parts as “ therein are specified ; and (subject to the power “ of revocation and alteration herein contained) “ such directions and regulations shall continue “ in force so long as the said provisions of this “ Act shall, under such Order, be applicable to “ the same parts.”

XI. “ Orders in Council issued in pursuance “ of this Act for putting in force the provisions “ for the prevention of disease in the said Nui“ sances Removal and Diseases Prevention Acts “ contained, in Great Britain, may extend to “ parts and arms of the sea lying within the “ jurisdiction of the Admiralty ; and the Board “ of Health for England may issue under this “ Act directions and regulations for cleansing, “ purifying, ventilating, and disinfecting, and “ providing medical aid and accommodation, and “ preventing disease in ships and vessels, as well “ upon arms and parts of the sea aforesaid as “ upon inland waters.”

And whereas, by “ The Public Health Act, 1858” (subsequently made perpetual), it is (among other things) enacted (sections one and seven) as follows :—

I. “ In addition to the powers vested in “ Her Majesty’s most Honourable Privy Coun“ cil for the protection of the public health,
 “ all powers now vested in the General Board
 “ of Health under ‘The Diseases Prevention “ Act, 1855,’ shall, upon the discontinuance
 “ of the said Board, be vested in the said “ Privy Council, and the provisions of the said

“ Act having reference to the General Board of “ Health and the regulations and directions issued “ by them, except section thirteen, shall be con“ strued as referring to such Privy Council, and “ the regulations and directions issued by them :

VII. “ All powers vested in the Privy Council
 “ by this Act may be exercised by any three or “ more of the Lords and others of the Privy Coun“ cil, the Vice-President of the Committee of the “ said Privy Council on Education being one of “ them, and all Orders, Regulations, Directions,
 “ and Acts of the Privy Council under this Act “ shall be sufficiently made and signified by a “ written or printed document, signed by one of the “ Clerks of the Privy Council, or such Officer as “ may be appointed by the Privy Council in this “ behalf ; and all Orders, Regulations, Directions, “ and Acts made or signified by any written or “ printed document purporting to be so signed shall “ be deemed to have been duly made, issued [and “ done by the Privy Council, and every such “ document shall be received in evidence in all “ Courts, and before all Justices and others “ without proof of the authority or signature of “ such Clerk or other Officer, or other proof “ whatsoever, until it be shown that such docu“ ment was not duly signed by the authority of “ the Privy Council :”

And whereas by “ The Sanitary Act, 1866,” it is (among other things) enacted (section fifty-two) as follows :—

LII. “ Every vessel having on board any “ person affected with a dangerous or infectious “ disorder shall be deemed to be within the pro“ visions of the Act of the sixth year of King “ George the Fourth, chapter seventy-eight, “ although such vessel has not commenced her “ voyage, or has come from or is bound for some “ place in the United Kingdom ; and the Lords
 “ and others of Her Majesty’s Most Honourable “ Privy Council, or any three or more of them
 “ (the Lord President of the Council or one of “ Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State being “ one), may by Order or Orders to be by them
 “ from time to time made, make such rules, orders, “ and regulations as to them shall seem fit, and “ every such Order shall be certified under the “ hand of the Clerk in Ordinary of Her Majesty’s “ Privy Council, and shall be published in the “ London Gazette, and such publication shall be “ conclusive evidence of such Order to all intents
 “ and purposes ; and such Orders shall be binding
 “ and be carried into effect as soon as the same “ shall have been so published, or at such other “ time as shall be fixed by such Orders, with a “ view to the treatment of persons affected with “ cholera and epidemic, endemic and contagious “ disease, and preventing the spread of cholera
 “ and such other diseases, as well on the seas, “ rivers, and waters of the United Kingdom, and “ on the high seas within three miles of the coasts “ thereof, as on land ; and to declare and deter“ mine by what Nuisance Authority or Authorities “ such Orders, Rules, and Regulations shall be “ enforced and executed ; and any expenses in“ curred by such Nuisance Authority or Autho“ rities shall be deemed to be expenses incurred
 “ by it or them in carrying into effect the Nui“ sances Removal Acts.”

And whereas, by an Order dated the 14th day of July, 1866, the Lords of the Council ordered that the provisions contained in the Acts for the Prevention of Diseases (therein described), should, from and after the date of that Order, be put in force within the whole and every part of England :

And whereas, by an Order dated this 25th day of August, 1866, the Lords of the Council ordered that the said Order of the 14th day of July, 1866, should extend, and the same was thereby extended, to all parts and arms of the sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty, within three miles of the coasts of England :

And whereas, cholera having broken out in England, it seems to the Lords of the Council expedient to make provision in pursuance of the recited enactments :

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the recited enactments or otherwise in them vested, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

1. In this Order—

The term "ship" includes vessel or boat :

The term "master" includes the officer or person for the time being in charge or command of a ship.

The term "cholera" includes choleraic diarrhoea :

3. If at any time a Nuisance Authority is informed that cholera exists, or within three days previously has existed, in a ship within its district, such authority shall cause the ship to be forthwith visited, inspected, and otherwise dealt with (according to the circumstances of the case), in like manner as nearly as may be as if the ship were a house within the district of such authority, and shall give all such medical and other directions with reference to the persons therein, as seem to such authority requisite or proper for preventing the spread of the disease therefrom, and for disinfection or disposal of any thing infected, or that has been exposed to infection therein or therefrom.

4. The Order of Council of the 7th day of May, 1866, and articles nineteen and twenty of the Order of Council of the 20th day of July, 1866, and article eighteen of the Order of Council of the 21st day of July, 1866, are hereby repealed as from the date of this Order.
