TREATY of Peace, Friendship, and Commerce, between Her Majesty and the Queen of Madagascar.

Signed, in the English and Malagasy Languages, at Antananarivo, June 27, 1865.

[Ratifications exchanged at Antananarivo, July 5, 1866.]

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and Her Majesty Rasoherina Manjaka, Queen of Madagascar, being desirous of concluding a Treaty of Peace and Friendship, and to regulate thereby the commercial intercourse between their respective subjects and dominions, the following Articles have for that purpose been mutually agreed upon and signed between Thomas Conolly Pakenham, Esquire, Her Britannic Majesty's Consul in Madagascar, duly authorized to that effect on the part of Her Britannic Majesty, and by his Excellency Rainimaharavo, Sixteenth Honor, Chief Secretary of State; Andriantsitohaina, Sixteenth Honor; Ravahatra, Chief Judge; and Rafaralabimalo, Head of the Civilians, duly authorized to that effect on the part of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar:—

ARTICLE I.

Peace, friendship, and good understanding shall from henceforward and for ever subsist between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar, and between their respective heirs, successors, and subjects.

ARTICLE II.

The subjects of Her Britannic Majesty shall have full liberty to enter into, rent or lease houses or lands in, trade with, and pass with their merchandize through, all parts of the dominions of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar which are under the control of a Governor duly appointed by the Malagasy authorities, except Ambohimga, Ambohimanambola, and Amparafavato; and they shall enjoy therein all the privileges and advantages with regard to commerce, or with regard to any other matter whatsoever, which are now or may hereafter be granted to or allowed to be enjoyed by the subjects or citizens of the most favoured nation; and the subjects of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar shall, in like manner, be at liberty to enter into, rent or lease houses or land in, trade with, and pass with their merchandize through all parts of Her Britannic Majesty's dominions, as freely as the subjects of the most favoured nation, and they shall enjoy, in those dominions, all the privileges and advantages with regard to commerce, or with regard to any other matter whatever, which are now or may hereafter be granted to or allowed to be enjoyed by the subjects or citizens of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE III.

British subjects in the dominions of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar shall be allowed freely to exercise and teach the Christian religion, and to erect and maintain suitable places of worship. Such places of worship, with their lands and appurtenances, shall, however, be recognized as the property of the Queen of Madagascar, who shall permit them to be applied for ever to the special purposes for which they shall have been built. They shall, in the profession, exercise, and teaching of their religion, receive the protection of the Queen and her officers, and shall not be persecuted or interfered with.

Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar, from her friendship for Her Britannic Majesty, promises to grant full religious liberty to all her subjects, and not to persecute or molest any subjects or natives of Madagascar on account of their embracing or exercising the Christian religion. But should any of her subjects professing Christianity be found guilty of any criminal offence, the action of the law of the land shall not be interfered with.

ARTICLE IV.

The Queen of Madagascar engages to receive a British Agent at her capital; and Her Britannic Majesty, in like manner, engages to receive at the Mauritius, or at London, an Agent of the Queen of Madagascar.

Each Contracting Party may appoint Consuls for the protection of trade to reside in the dominions of the other.

Such Agents and Consuls shall enjoy, in the respective dominions, the same rights and privileges which are or may be there granted to Agents of the same rank of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE V.

British subjects shall be permitted, as fully as the subjects or citizens of the most favoured nation, in any lawful manner to purchase, rent, or lease land, houses, warehouses, and all other kinds of property within all parts of the dominions of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar which are under the control of a Governor duly appointed by the Malagasy authorities. They shall be at liberty to build on land purchased, rented, or leased by them, houses of any material they please, except of stone or clay at the capital of Madagascar, and other towns where such buildings are forbidden by the laws of the country; and Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar engages that British subjects shall, as far as lies in her power, equally with her own subjects, enjoy within her dominions, full and complete protection and security for themselves and for any property which they may so acquire in future, or which they may have acquired already before the date of the present Treaty.

British subjects may freely engage in their service, in any capacity whatever, any native of Madagascar, not a slave or a soldier, who may be free from any previous engagement. Leases, contracts of sale or purchase of houses or lands in Madagascar, and engagements of labourers, may be executed by deeds signed before the British Consul and the local authorities. All such engagements, however, are liable to be determined by mutual consent, should the services of persons so engaged be required by the Queen, or on their own application, after due notice.

No domiciliary visits shall be made to the establishments, houses, or properties possessed or occupied by British subjects, unless by the consent of the occupants, or in concert with the British Consul.

In the absence, however, of any Consular officer, the local authorities may enter, after giving due notice to the occupants, whenever it is certainly known that stolen property or persons escaping from justice are concealed on the premises.

No British subjects residing in Madagascar shall have the right of entering the house of any subject of the Queen of Madagascar against the will of the occupant.

ARTICLE VI.

Munitions of war shall be imported by the Queen of Madagascar alone into her dominions; but save the said munitions of war, no article whatever shall be prohibited from being imported into the territories of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar; nor shall any article whatever be prohibited from being exported therefrom, except munitions of war, and the following articles which are forbidden by the law of Madagascar to be exported, namely, timber and cows.

The trade between the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty and the dominions of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar shall be perfectly free, subject to a duty not exceeding ten per cent.

A Tariff of such duties shall be drawn up by the British Consul and by a person or persons commissioned by Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar, and shall be submitted for the approval of Her Britannic Majesty.

Such Tariff shall be drawn up and published within one year after the exchange of the ratifications of the present Treaty.

In case any article of produce or merchandize should be inadvertently omitted from such Tariff, the duty levied on such article shall be calculated at the market value of the merchandize at the period at which the Tariff was framed.

No prohibition shall apply to any article imported or exported by British subjects or vessels, unless the prohibition apply equally to the subjects and vessels of every other foreign nation.

ARTICLE VII.

Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar agrees that no duty exceeding ten per cent. shall be levied on the exportation from Her Majesty's dominions of any article, the growth, produce, or manufacture of those dominions.

ARTICLE VIII.

No duties of tonnage, harbour, pilotage, lighthouse, quarantine, or other local dues, shall be imposed in the ports of the dominions of either country upon the vessels of the other country, from whatever place arriving, or whatever may be their place of destination, which shall not equally be imposed in the like cases on national vessels or on vessels of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE IX.

Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar engages to permit the ships of war of Her Britannic Majesty freely to enter into the military ports, rivers, and creeks situated within her dominions, and to allow such ships to provide themselves, at a fair and moderate price, with such supplies, stores, and provisions as they may from time to time stand in need of.

No subject of the Queen of Madagascar shall be permitted to embark on board any British ship, except such as shall have received a passport from the Malagash authorities.

The rights of Sovereignty shall in all cases be respected in the dominions of the one Sovereign by the subjects of the other.

ARTICLE X.

If any vessels under the British flag should be wrecked on the coast of the dominions of the Queen of Madagascar, which are under the control of a Governor duly appointed by the Malagasy authorities, Her Majesty engages to give them all the assistance in her power, and to secure them from plunder, as well as to recover for and to deliver over to the owners thereof all the property which can be saved from such vessels. Her Majesty further engages to do all in her power to extend to the officers and crew, and to all other persons on board such wrecked vessels, full protection both as to their persons and as to their property.

ARTICLE XI.

Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar agrees that in all cases where a British subject shall be accused of any crime committed in any part of her dominions, the person so accused shall be exclusively tried and adjudged by the British Consul or other officer duly appointed for that purpose by Her Britannic Majesty. But any British subject whom the British Consul or other officer shall find to have been guilty of having openly offended against the laws of Madagascar shall be liable to be banished from the country.

In all cases where disputes or differences shall arise within the dominions of the Queen of Madagascar between British subjects and the subjects of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar, Her Britannic Majesty's Consul or other duly appointed officer, aided by an officer duly authorised by Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar, shall have power to hear and decide the same.

The Malagasy authorities shall not interfere in differences or disputes between British subjects, or between British subjects and the subjects or citizens of any third Power.

The British authorities shall not interfere in differences or disputes between Malagasy subjects and the subjects or citizens of any third Power in Madagascar.

ARTICLE XII.

If a subject of the Queen of Madagascar should refuse or evade the payment of a debt due to a British subject, the local authorities shall afford every assistance and facility to the creditor for recovering the debt; and, in like manner, the British Consul shall afford every assistance to subjects of the Queen of Madagascar to recover debts due to them by British subjects.

ARTICLE XIII.

The local authorities of Madagascar shall have no right to interfere with British vessels of commerce, which are subject only to the British authority and to their Captains; but no British vessel shall communicate with the shore before receiving pratique from the local authorities. In the absence, however, of a British ship of war, the Malagasy authorities, if requested by the British Consul or Consular Agent, shall afford assistance in order to cause his authority to be respected by his own countrymen, and to re-establish and maintain discipline among the crews of British merchant-vessels.

If any British seamen should desert from their ships, the local authorities shall use every effort to apprehend them, and shall deliver them up to the British Consul or to the Captain of their ship.

ARTICLE XIV.

The Malagasy authorities shall do all in their power to deliver up property of a British subject who may die in Madagascar to his heirs or representatives, or, in their absence, to the British Consul.

The property of a subject of the Queen of Madagascar who may die in the British dominions shall be treated in the same manner as the property of a British subject.

ARTICLE XV.

If any British merchant vessel should be attacked or plundered in the waters of Madagascar, adjacent to any military station whatever, the local authorities, as soon as informed of the fact, shall institute active pursuit after the offenders, and shall omit no effort to discover and punish them.

The goods which may have been carried off, wherever and in whatever state they may be found, shall be delivered to the owner, or to the Consul, who will undertake to restore them.

The same course shall be followed in the case of plunder or robbery committed on the property of British subjects residing in the neighbourhood of any military station, whether on the shores or in the interior of Madagascar.

The local authorities, on proving that they have used every effort to apprehend the offenders and to recover the goods stolen, shall not be pecuniarily responsible for the loss.

The same protection shall be granted in favour of the property of subjects of the Queen of Madagascar plundered or robbed on the coasts or in the interior of the British dominions.

ARTICLE XVI.

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar hereby engage to use every means in their power for the suppression of piracy within the seas, straits, and rivers subject to their respective control or influence; and Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar engages not to grant either asylum or protection to any persons or vessels engaged in piratical pursuits; and in no case will she permit ships, slaves, or merchandize captured by pirates to be introduced into her dominions, or to be exposed therein for sale. And Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar concedes to Her Britannic Majesty the right of investing her officers and other duly constituted authorities with the power of entering at all times, with her vessels of war, or other vessels duly empowered, the ports, rivers, and creeks within the dominions of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar, in order to capture all vessels engaged in piracy, and to seize and to reserve for the judgment of the proper authorities all persons offending against the two Contracting Powers in this respect.

ARTICLE XVII.

Her Britannic Majesty and Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar being greatly desirous of effecting the total abolition of the Trade in Slaves, Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar engages to do all in her power to prevent all such traffic on the part of her subjects, and to prohibit all persons residing within her dominions, or subject to her, from countenancing or taking any share in such trade. No persons from beyond sea shall be landed, purchased, or sold as slaves in any part of Madagascar. And Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar consents that British cruisers shall have the right of searching any Malagash or Arab vessels suspected of being engaged in the Slave Trade, whether under sail or at anchor in the waters of Madagascar. Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar further consents that if any such vessels shall prove to be engaged in the Slave Trade, such vessels and their crews shall be dealt with by the cruisers of Her Britannic Majesty as if such persons and their vessels had been engaged in a piratical undertaking.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar engages to abolish trial by the ordeal of poison.

If there should be war between Great Britain and Madagascar (which God forbid), any prisoners who may be taken by either party shall be kindly treated, and shall be set free, either by exchange during the war, or without exchange when peace is made; and such prisoners shall not on any account be made slaves or put to death.

ARTICLE XIX.

The present Treaty shall be ratified by Her Britannic Majesty and by Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London or Antananarivo, within the space of six months from this date.

But if, at any future time, it shall seem desirable in the interests of the subjects of either of the two Contracting Parties; to alter or to add to the present Treaty, such alterations or additions shall be effected with the consent of both parties.

Signed and sealed in duplicate originals, with a Malagasy translation to each, at Antananarivo, this twenty-seventh day of June, in the year 1865.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 10th day of September, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord Stanley.
Mr. Corry.
Mr. Waddington.

WHEREAS by an Order, bearing date the 31st day of August last, reciting certain provisions of the Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, and that the same had been amended and explained by a subsequent Act of Her Majesty's reign, and the prevalence of the Cattle Plague among cattle in England and Wales, and that it was expedient to prohibit the introduction of cattle and other animals from England and Wales into Scotland:

The Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council did, among other things, order that from and after the 3rd day of September, 1866, it should not be lawful for any person to remove cattle or other animals from any port or place in England and Wales to any port or place in Scotland:

And whereas it is expedient to make certain provisions in respect of the movement of rams from the county of Northumberland into Scotland:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, acting under the authority of the said Act, do hereby order that, notwithstanding anything in the said Order provided, it shall be lawful for any person to move rams from the county of Northumberland into Scotland, provided that a licence for moving such rams be obtained in the form and otherwise in accordance with the provisions contained in the Order made by the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, bearing date the 8th day of August, which apply to the store stock licence; and provided also that the Local Authority of the county in Scotland into which such rams are proposed to be moved shall give authority or issue any regulation for the movement of rams from the county of Northumberland into it:

And the said Lords do further order, that every such regulation so to be made by the said Local Authority shall be published in the same manner as other regulations of the said Local Authority have been hitherto published under the directions of the Lords of the Council.

Lastly, the said Lords do in all other respects confirm the said Order of the 31st day of August last.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, September 11, 1866.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Washington, enclosing the following copy of an amendatory Tariff Bill passed during the last session of the United States Congress:—

An Act to protect the Revenue, and for other purposes.

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that from and after the tenth day of August, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, in lieu of the duties now imposed by law on the articles mentioned and embraced in this section, there shall be levied, collected and paid, on all goods, wares, and merchandise imported from foreign countries, the duties heretofore [hereinafter] provided, viz.:—

On cigars, cigarettes, and cheroots of all kinds three dollars per pound, and, in addition thereto, fifty per centum ad valorem: provided, that paper cigars and cigarettes, including wrappers, shall be subject to the same duties as are herein imposed upon cigars: and provided further, that on and after the first day of August, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, no cigars shall be imported unless the same are packed in boxes of not more than five hundred cigars in each box; and no entry of any imported cigars shall be allowed of less quantity than three thousand in a single package; and all cigars, on importation, shall be placed in public store or bonded warehouse, and shall not be removed therefrom until the same shall have been inspected and a stamp affixed to each box indicating such inspection, with the date thereof. And the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to provide the requisite stamps, and to make all necessary regulations for carrying the above provisions of law into effect;

On cotton three cents per pound;

On all compounds or preparations of which distilled spirits is a component part of chief value, there shall be levied a duty not less than that imposed upon distilled spirits: provided, that brandy and other spirituous liquors may be imported in casks or other packages of any capacity, not less than thirty gallons; and that wine in bottles may be imported in boxes containing not less than one dozen bottles of not more than one quart each; and wine, brandy, or other spirituous liquor imported into the United States, and shipped after the first day of October, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, in any less quantity than herein provided for, shall be forfeited to the United States.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, that, the second proviso in section four of an Act entitled "An Act amendatory of certain Acts imposing duties upon foreign importations," approved March three, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, shall be construed to include any ship, vessel, or steamer to or from any port in the Sandwich Islands or Society Islands.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, that so much of an Act entitled "An Act to authorize protection to be given to citizens of the United States who may discover deposits of guano," approved August-eighteen, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, as prohibits the export thereof, is hereby suspended in relation to all persons who have complied with the provisions of section second of said Act, for five years from and after the fourteenth day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, that all laws and parts of laws allowing fishing bounties to vessels hereafter licensed to engage in the fisheries be, and the same are hereby repealed: provided, that from and after the date of the passage of his [this] Act, vessels licensed to engage in the fisheries may take on board imported salt in bond to be used in curing fish, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, and upon proof that said salt has been used in curing fish, the duties on the same shall be remitted.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, that from and after the passage of this Act, all goods, wares, or merchandize arriving at the ports of New York, Boston, and Portland, or any other port of the United States which may be specially designated by the Secretary of the Treasury, and destined for places in the adjacent British provinces, or arriving at the port of Point Isabel, Texas, or any other port of the United States which may be specially designated by the Secretary of the Treasury, and destined for places in the Republic of Mexico, may be entered at the Custom-house, and conveyed, in transit, through the territory of the United States, without the payment of duties, under such rules, regulations, and conditions for the protection of the revenue, as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, that imported goods, wares, or merchandize in bond, or duty-paid, and products or manufactures of the United States, may, with the consent of the proper authorities of the provinces or republic aforesaid, be transported from one port or place in the United States to another port or place therein, over the territory of said provinces or republic, by such routes, and under such rules, regulations and conditions, as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe; and the goods, wares, and merchandise, so transported, shall, upon arrival in the United States from the provinces, or republic aforesaid, be treated in regard to the liability to, or exemption from, duty or tax, as if the transportation had taken place entirely within the limits of the United States.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, that whenever it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury that more moneys have been paid to the collector of customs, or others acting as such, than the law requires, and the parties have failed to comply with the requirements of the fourteenth and fifteenth sections of the Act entitled "An Act to increase the duties on imports; and for other purposes," approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall be satisfied that said non-compliance with the requirements as above stated was owing to circumstances beyond the control of the importer, consignee, or agent making such payments, he may draw his warrant upon the Treasurer in favour of the person or persons entitled to the over-payment, directing the said Treasurer to refund the same out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, that the provisions of the second, third, and fourth sections of the Act approved March second, eighteen hundred and thirty-three, entitled "An Act further to provide for the collection of duties on imports," and of the twelfth section of the Act approved March third, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, entitled "An Act to prevent and punish frauds upon the revenue, to provide for the more certain and speedy collection of claims in favour of the United States, and for other purposes," shall be taken and deemed as extending to and embracing all cases arising or which may have heretofore arisen, and all suits and prosecutions heretofore brought and now pending, or which may hereafter be brought against any officer of the United States or other person by reason of any acts done or proceedings had by such officer or other person, under authority or color of the Act approved March twelve, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, entitled "An Act to provide for the collection of abandoned property, and for the prevention of frauds in insurrectionary districts within the United States," or the Act approved July two, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, entitled "An Act in addition to the several Acts concerning commercial intercourse between loyal and insurrectionary States, and to provide for the collection of captured and abandoned property, and the prevention of frauds in States declared in insurrection:" provided, that such acts done or proceedings had under the two Acts last aforesaid, or under color thereof, shall have been done and had under the authority or by the direction of the executive government of the United States: and provided further, that when a recovery shall have been, or shall hereafter be, had in any such suit or prosecution brought, or which may hereafter be brought, as aforesaid, the payment of the amount recovered, as provided for in the said twelfth section of the Act approved March third, eighteen hundred and sixty-three aforesaid, shall be made out of the moneys arising and obtained from the proceeds of sales and leases and fees collected and paid over to the Government under the two Acts approved March twelve, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, and July second, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, aforesaid, in relation to captured and abandoned property.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, that in determining the dutiable value of merchandise hereinafter imported, there shall be added to the cost, or to the actual wholesale price or general market value at the time of exportation in the principal markets of the country from whence the same shall have been imported into the United States, the cost of transportation, shipment, and transshipment, with all the expenses included from the place of growth, production, or manufacture, whether by land or water, to the vessel in which shipment is made to the United States; the value of the sack, box, or covering of any kind in which such goods are contained; commission at the usual rates, but in no case less than two and a half per centum; brokerage, export duty, and all other actual or usual charges for putting up, preparing, and packing for transportation or shipment. And all charges of a general character incurred in the purchase of a general invoice shall be distributed pro rata among all parts of such invoice; and every part thereof charged with duties based on value shall be advanced according to its proportion, and all wines or other articles paying specific duty by grades shall be graded and pay duty according to the actual value so determined: provided, that all additions made to the entered value of merchandise for charges shall be regarded as part of the actual value of such merchandise, and if such addition shall exceed by ten per centum the value so declared in the entry, in addition to the duties imposed by law, there shall be levied, collected, and paid a duty of twenty per centum on such value: provided, that the duty shall in no case be assessed upon an amount less than the invoice or entered value: provided further, that nothing herein contained shall apply to long-combing or carpet wools costing twelve cents or less per pound, unless the charges so added shall carry the cost above twelve cents per pound, in which case one cent per pound duty shall be added.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, that the second proviso in section twenty-one of an Act entitled "An Act increasing temporarily the duties on imports, and for other purposes," approved July fourteen, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, which provides that any goods remaining in public store or bonded warehouse beyond three years shall be regarded as abandoned to the Government, and sold under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, and the proceeds paid into the treasury, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury, in case of any sale under the said provision, to pay to the owner, consignee, or agent of such goods, the proceeds thereof, after deducting duties, charges, and expenses, in conformity with the provision of the first section of the Warehouse Act of August six, eighteen hundred and forty-six.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, that during [the] period of one year from the passage of this Act, there may be imported into the United States, free of duty, any machinery designed solely for, and adapted to, the manufacture of sugar from beets, including all the preliminary processes requisite therefor, but not including any machinery which may be used for any other manufactures.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, that upon the re-importation of articles once exported of the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States, upon which no internal tax has been assessed or paid, or upon which such tax has been paid or refunded by allowance or drawback, there shall be levied, collected, and paid a duty equal to the tax imposed by the internal revenue laws upon such articles.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, that there shall be established in and attached to the Department of the Treasury a bureau to be styled "The Bureau of Statistics," and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to appoint a director to superintend and control the business of said bureau, who shall be paid an annual salary of thirty-five hundred dollars. And it shall be the duty of the director of the Bureau of Statistics to prepare the report on the statistics of commerce and navigation, exports and imports, now required by law to be submitted annually to Congress by the Secretary of the Treasury; and said report, embracing the returns of the commerce and navigation, the exports and imports of the United States to the close of the fiscal year, shall be submitted to Congress in a printed form on or before the first day of December next succeeding; and the said director, as soon as practicable after the organization of this office shall, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, prepare and publish monthly reports of the exports and imports of the United States, including the quantities and values of goods warehoused or withdrawn from warehouse, and such other statistics relative to the trade and industry of the country as the Secretary of the Treasury may consider expedient. And the director of the Bureau of Statistics shall also prepare an annual statement of vessels registered, enrolled, and licensed under the laws of the United States, together with the class, name, tonnage, and place of registry of each vessel, and such other information as the Secretary of the Treasury may deem proper to embody therein; and to enable the said director to furnish the information required, the Secretary of the Treasury shall have power, under such regulations as he shall prescribe, to establish and provide a system of numbering vessels so registered, enrolled, and licensed; and each vessel so numbered shall have her number deeply carved or otherwise permanently marked on her main beam; and if at any time she shall cease to be so marked, such vessel shall be no longer recognized as a vessel of the United States. The said director shall also prepare an annual statement of all merchandise passing in transit through the United States to foreign countries, each description of merchandise, so far as practicable, warehoused, withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, for exportation, for transportation to other districts, and remaining in the warehouse at the end of each fiscal year. It shall be the further duty of the said director to collect, digest, and arrange, for the use of Congress, the statistics of the manufactures of the United States, their localities, sources of raw material, markets, exchanges with the producing regions of the country, transportation of products, wages, and such other conditions as are found to affect their prosperity; and to aid him in the discharge of these duties, the several clerks now employed in preparation of statistics in the Treasury Department, or any bureau thereof, may be placed under his supervision and direction; and, in addition, the Secretary of the Treasury shall detail such other clerks as may be necessary to fully carry out the provisions of this Act. And the expenses of the Bureau of Statistics for clerical service, publication of reports, stationery, books, and statistical periodicals and papers required by the bureau, shall be defrayed on the order and approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated. And all letters and documents to and from the director of the Bureau of Statistics, relating to the duties and business of his office, shall be transmitted by mail free of postage.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, that the Secretary of the Treasury be authorized to suspend the collection, in any of the States heretofore declared in insurrection, of the direct tax imposed by an Act of Congress, passed August fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, entitled "An Act to provide increased revenue from imports, to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes," until January first, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight.

Approved, July 28, 1866.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 48.)—NEWFOUNDLAND—HEART'S CONTENT HARBOUR—TRINITY BAY.

Caution to avoid Anchoring near Atlantic Telegraph Cable.

THE shore end of the Atlantic Telegraph Cable passes 150 yards west of Norther Point, on the east side of the entrance to Heart's Content Harbour, Trinity Bay; and from this spot, two beacons—situated over the southern cove of the harbour—will be seen in line S. by W.; these beacons mark the direction of the cable's first course into the harbour.

When the white beacon on the eastern shore is in line with the School House, the cable commences to curve to the eastward, and continues to do so until the Church Tower is in line with the northern pier, on the shore under the Church: on this line the Atlantic Cable approaches the shore within a cable's length, and thence to the land under the Telegraph Office.

Vessels intending to anchor should carefully avoid the line indicated above, by anchoring either east of the line of the Southern Beacons, and north of the line where the East Beacon (appearing midway between the School House and the house next south of it) bears S.E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E.; or by anchoring South of the line where the Telegraph Station Flag (on with a whitewashed stone on the shore) bears S.E. by E., as on this latter line it is intended to place a second Telegraph Cable.

[All bearings are Magnetic. Variation at Heart's Content, Newfoundland, 32° 10' West in 1866.]

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Heart's Content Harbour, No. 619.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 49.)—NORWAY—NORTH COAST.

Light on Fruholm.

THE Norwegian Royal Marine Department at Christiania has given notice, that on the 25th day of August, a light was established on Fruholm, a small islet off the north coast of Norway, and that it will continue to be exhibited between the above date, and the 31st day of December each year, both days inclusive.

The light is a fixed white light, at an elevation of 148 feet above the mean level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of twenty miles.

The illuminating apparatus is of the first order.

The tower is circular, and painted red with a white belt; its position is given in lat. 71° 5' 45" N., long., 23° 59' 25" East of Greenwich.

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 50.)—SOUTH AUSTRALIA—SPENCER'S GULF.

Buoy off Cape Elizabeth.

THE Marine Board of Port Adelaide, South Australia, has given notice, that a red pyramidal-shaped buoy has been placed in 5½ fathoms at low water, off the outer end of the reef which extends nearly a mile, in a N.E. by E. direction from Cape Elizabeth, Spencer's Gulf. The buoy is moored 4 cables length to the westward of the shoalest part of the reef, and in clear weather, from an elevation of 10 feet above the sea level, should be seen from a distance of 4 miles.

The bearings from the buoy are given as follows, viz.:—Cape Elizabeth E.N.E., and Tipara light-vessel N.N.W. ¼ W.

GULF OF ST. VINCENT.

Buoys at Port Wakefield.

Also, that a large red pyramidal-shaped buoy, surmounted by a ball, has been placed on the south-west extremity of the Long Spit, which extends for about 20 miles in a north-westerly direction from Port Gawlers flats, north of the channel, into Port Adelaide.

The buoy is moored in 19 feet at low water spring tides, with the summit of the Hummock range of hills at the head of the Gulf N. by W., and Mount Lofty E. 38° S.

Also, that a large red pyramidal-shaped buoy, with a triangular head, has been moored in 17 feet at low water, on the outer extremity of Bald Hill Spit, which extends in a westerly direction from Sandy Point, at the entrance of Port Wakefield. No bearings for this buoy are given.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation 5° East in 1866.]

CONTRACT FOR TRAIN OR PILCHARD OIL AND PALE SEAL OIL.

Contract Department, Admiralty, Somerset House, September 5, 1866.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 25th instant, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards with TRAIN OR PILCHARD OIL AND PALE SEAL OIL.

A distribution of the oils and a form of the tender and conditions of contract may be seen in the Lobby of the Storekeeper-General's Department, Admiralty, Somerset House.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Storekeeper-General, Admiralty, Somerset House, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR QUEBEC PIPE STAVES.

Contract Department, Admiralty, Somerset House, September 6, 1866.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 20th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, 50,000 QUEBEC PIPE STAVES (New fresh).

The whole to be delivered by 31st December, 1866, and to be tendered for at a rate per 100 number.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the staves, and samples may be seen at the Victualling Yards at Deptford, Gosport, and Plymouth.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, where the conditions of the contract may be seen.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Quebec Pipe Staves," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.
