Mr. Corry.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," and from time to time continued until the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and the end of the then next session of Parliament, by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act passed in the last session, it is (amongst other things) enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time, to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, or other

And whereas the said Act has been amended and explained by an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, to prevent the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals:"

And whereas divers Orders have been made by the Lords of the said Council from time to time in relation to the Variola Ovina, or Sheep Pox, and it is desirable that certain other regulations should be made in relation to sheep imported into Great Britain from Belgium:

Now, therefore, the Lords of the said Council do hereby order as follows:—

1. All sheep brought to Great Britain from Antwerp, or any other port in Belgium, and landed in any town or place in Great Britain, shall, within four days after the landing thereof, exclusive of the day of landing, be taken to some market held with the licence of the Privy Council for the sale of animals intended for immediate slaughter, if there is any such market within such town or place, and if a market is held there, within the said period of four days; but if there is no such market within such town or place, or if no market is held there within the said period of four days, then all such sheep shall be slaughtered in such town or place within the said period of four days.
