The London Gazette

Of TUESDAY, the 6th of NOVEMBER.

Published by Authority.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1866.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 6th day of November, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Mr. Corry.
Sir Stafford Northcote, Bart.
Mr. Cave.

WHEREAS by an Order, bearing date the 8th day of August, 1866, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council did, amongst other things, make certain provisions applicable only to the counties enumerated in a schedule thereunto annexed, and to the counties of cities or towns, cities, and boroughs therein contained; and by an Order dated the 31st day of August, 1866, the county of Oxford, which had not been included in the said schedule, was made subject to the said provisions:

And whereas by a further Order, bearing date the 18th day of September, 1866, the said Lords did make certain other provisions applicable only to the counties enumerated in the above-mentioned schedule, and to the county of Oxford:

And whereas the counties of Buckingham, Cambridge, Suffolk, and Lincoln were included in the said schedule, and it is expedient that the said provisions of the above-mentioned Orders of the 8th day of August and the 18th day of September, 1866, should no longer apply to the said counties, or to the county of Oxford:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Council do hereby order that from and after the sixth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the counties of Buckingham, Cambridge, Suffolk, and Oxford, and the Parts of Lindsey and the Parts of Holland, in the county of Lincoln, and the counties of cities or towns, cities, and boroughs therein contained, shall no longer be subject to such provisions of the Orders of the 8th day of August and the 18th day of September, 1866, as are applicable only to the counties enumerated in the above-mentioned schedule, and to the county of Oxford.

The Order of the 31st day of August, 1866, above-mentioned, is hereby revoked.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 7th day of November, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Lord Naas.
Mr. Cave.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent "until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the "end of the then session of Parliament, the "spreading of contagious or infectious disorders "among sheep, cattle, and other animals," and from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act passed in the session of the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and nineteen, it is (amongst other things) enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time, to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they might designate in such Order or Orders, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, or other articles likely to propagate infection, and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid in any such Order or Orders contained shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said Act:

And whereas the said Act has been amended and explained by an Act passed in the twentieth year of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, to prevent the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals:"

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," has lately appeared, and now prevails, amongst cattle in England, and has also prevailed among sheep in many parts of England:

And whereas divers Orders have been made by the Lords of the said Council in relation to the cattle plague, which were consolidated and amended by an Order bearing date the twenty-fourth day of March last, which Order has been altered and extended by subsequent Orders:

And whereas by the said Order of the Privy Council, it is ordered that no market for cattle shall be held in England and Wales, except with the licence of the Privy Council, for the sale of cattle intended for immediate slaughter; and it is further ordered that no sheep, lambs, goats, or swine shall be brought into or exposed for sale in any market licensed for the sale of cattle except for the purpose of immediate slaughter:

And whereas by another Order, bearing date the eighth day of August last, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council did prescribe certain forms of licence to be used for the removal of various animals; and it is expedient that provisions should be made for the sale of animals in certain markets not intended for immediate slaughter.

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council do hereby order as follows:—

1. From and after the eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, markets may be held, with the licence of the Lords of the said Council, for the sale of animals, whether intended for immediate slaughter or otherwise, in any county in England and Wales, provided that no such licence shall be granted unless their Lordships shall be satisfied that no case of cattle plague has occurred in the county where such market is to be held within one calendar month prior to the date of such licence, nor unless the market is situated at a distance exceeding ten miles from any place declared to be infected according to the provisions of the said Order of the twenty-fourth day of March last.

2. No licence shall be granted under this Order permitting any market to be held in any port or other place into which animals are imported from any country not part of the United Kingdom.

3. When the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council shall license any market for the sale of any animals, such animals may be moved to such market from any place, whether in or out of the county in which the market is to be held, with a licence in the form called a Store Stock Licence in the above-mentioned Order of the eighth day of August last, but not without it; and the person bringing such animals shall deliver the said licence to an officer of the said market, or to some other person appointed by the persons authorized to hold the market for the purpose of receiving the same, and the said licence shall be numbered and carefully retained and preserved by him.

4. No animal exposed to sale or sold in such market shall be moved therefrom to any place, either in the same or a different county, except with a pass or licence to be given by the person who shall have received the Store Stock Licence, as aforesaid, to the owner or purchaser desirous of moving the same, in the following form:—

NOTE.—Any person who forges or alters any licence, or offers or utters the same knowing it to be forged or altered, will be liable to a penalty of £20, or to be imprisoned, with hard labour, for the term of three months. See 29 and 30 Victoria, cap. 110, sec. 10.

5. Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect any licence already granted by the Privy Council for any market for the sale of animals for immediate slaughter, or for any market for the sale of sheep or lambs, nor affect the provisions of any Order of the Privy Council under which the Local Authority of any county is empowered to license the holding of fairs, or to make regulations as to the admission of animals into such county.

6. The words herein contained shall be construed as in the said Order of the twenty-fourth day of March last, and all the provisions therein contained relative to the offences for the contravention thereof, and the penalty for the same, and otherwise, now in force, and the provisions of the said Order in regard to the powers of officers employed under that Order, shall apply to the regulations contained in this Order, and the enforcing of the same, and to the officers employed under it.
