

Act; I do hereby approve of such adoption, within those portions of the said district of New Malden comprised within the boundaries herein-after described, and shown upon the map accompanying Mr. Morgan's report to me, such boundaries commencing at A, on Combe-bridge over the Beverley stream, the boundary between the parishes of Kingston-upon-Thames and Wimbledon; thence, in a southerly and westerly direction, along the north side of the stream, to B, at Trap's-lane; thence crossing the said lane, and along the north and west sides of the field numbered 91 (as shown on the plan accompanying the said report); thence along the south side of fields numbered 92, 93, 94, 95, 99, and 98; thence along the west side of field numbered 98, to the south-east corner of field numbered 73; thence along the south side of fields numbered 73, 567, and 424, to C; on the boundary of the borough of Kingston-upon-Thames; thence, in a south-westerly direction, along the said boundary, to D, where it joins the boundary of the Surbiton Improvement Commissioners; thence, along the said boundary of the said Commissioners, to E, where the Hog's Mill River crosses under the railway; thence, along the west side of the said river, and including the same, to F, on the boundary line between the parishes of Kingston-upon-Thames and Malden; thence, in a north-easterly direction, along the said boundary, to G, at the point where the parishes of Malden and Merton meet, thence along the boundary line between the parishes of Kingston-upon-Thames and Merton, and along the boundary line between the parishes of Kingston-upon-Thames and Wimbledon, to the starting-point at A; so completing the boundary of the district.

And I do further order that, in accordance with the provisions thereof, the said Act shall, from and after the 10th day of December, 1866, have the force of law within such district, as hereinbefore described.

Given under my hand this 3rd day of December, 1866.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY LYNTON, IN THE COUNTY OF DEVON.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted, on the 15th day of October, 1866, by the parish of Lynton, in the county of Devon; and notice of such adoption has been duly given, in writing, to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act; and whereas it has now been also certified to me that a copy of such notice has been duly advertised, and that copies have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such parish to which notices are usually affixed, and the period fixed by the said Act for appeal has now expired, and no such appeal has been made:

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby give notice that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been adopted within the said parish of Lynton; and that, although it is a place with a population of less than 3,000 by the last census, it has appeared to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as aforesaid, that, by reason of special circumstances, it is expedient that the said parish shall be allowed to adopt the said Act, I do hereby approve of such adoption by the parish aforesaid; and I do hereby further order that the Local Government Act, 1858, do come into force within such parish from and after the 15th day of December, 1866.

Given under my hand this 5th day of December, 1866.
