

thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, which time has since been postponed by various Orders in Council :

And whereas it seems fit that the said Orders be varied :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that interments be discontinued in Petersham churchyard after the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, except in now existing vaults and walled graves in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal and separately enclosed in stone or brickwork properly cemented.

And whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, burials were, with certain exceptions, directed to be discontinued on and after the time specified in such Order in the churchyard of St. John, Dukinfield, which time has been postponed by various Orders in Council :

And whereas it seems fit that the said Orders be varied :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that burials be forthwith discontinued in the said churchyard of St. John, Dukinfield, except to bury members of the families of their owners in now existing vaults and completely walled graves, the coffins buried in which have been enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of February, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications ; viz.:

COYTY, GLAMORGANSHIRE.—Forthwith wholly in the Noltz Episcopalian Chapel, in the parish of Coyty ; and that interments be discontinued in the burial-ground of that chapel after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, except in vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in earthen graves which can be opened to the depth of five feet without the exposure of coffins or disturbance of remains.

And that interments be discontinued forthwith wholly in the Independent Chapel in the parish of Coyty, and forthwith in the chapel-yard, except for the burial of the members of the families of those already buried therein.

NEWCASTLE, GLAMORGANSHIRE.—Forthwith wholly in the church ; and that interment be discontinued in the churchyard after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, except in vaults and walled graves existing on the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in earthen graves which can be opened to the depth of five feet without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of remains.

And that interments be discontinued forthwith wholly in the Baptist and Unitarian Chapels in the parish of Newcastle, Glamorganshire ; and forthwith in the burial-grounds of the said chapels, except for the burial of the members of the families of those already buried therein.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the nineteenth day of March next :

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette ; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said nineteenth day of March.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 1st day of February, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Sir Stafford Northcote, Bart.
Mr. Corry.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled "An Act to repeal the several Laws relating to the performance of Quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," it is, amongst other things, enacted as follows :

Section 2. That from and after the 1st day of June, 1825, all vessels coming from or having touched at any place from whence His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council, should have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague, or other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, might be brought, should be and be considered to be liable to quarantine, within the meaning of the said Act and of any Order or Orders which should be made by His Majesty, His heirs and successors,
