AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, did make representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of December last, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the thirteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered, that burials in the undermentioned parishes shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz:

GELLYGARE, CARDIFF. — Forthwith in the burial-ground of Zoar and Bethlehem Chapels, Pontlottyn, except in walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately entombed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and in earthen graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without exposure of coffins or the disturbance of bones, and also that the surface be covered with fresh mould, on which a living vegetation shall be maintained.

BARNET, HERTS. — Forthwith in the Church and in Wood-street Chapel; and from the thirty-first of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the Churchyard and Wood-street Chapel-yard, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal and separately enclosed by brickwork or stonework properly cemented.

LLANBADARNVAWR. — Forthwith wholly in Aberystwith Church; and in the Churchyard and in the Baptist Burial-ground of Aberystwith, except in vaults and graves completely walled existing on the first of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six; and that every coffin buried therein be embedded in charcoal and separately entombed in an air-tight manner, that is, enclosed by brickwork or stonework properly cemented.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 1st day of March, 1867.

HER Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Charles, Lord Southampton, to be Her Majesty's Lieutenant of the county of Northampton, his Lordship this day took and subscribed the oath appointed to be taken thereupon instead of the oaths of allegiance, supremacy, and abjuration.
