FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1867.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 18, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 25th of May next.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, April 5, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 1st of May next, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at a Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Saint Peter, Laneham, in the county of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln, one capital sum of one thousand and four hundred pounds sterling, such capital sum to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, either by discharge of the sum or sums of money which may be or become payable under any mortgage of the said benefice effected with our consent, or in such other manner as we may deem fit, such capital sum of one thousand and four hundred pounds, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Peter, Laneham.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Peter, Laneham, in the county of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and five pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the fourth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund, to the perpetual curacy of Medomsley, in the county and diocese of Durham, one capital sum of five hundred pounds sterling, such capital sum to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a new parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, either by discharge of the sum or sums of money which may be or become payable under any mortgage of the said benefice, effected with our consent or in such other manner as we may deem fit, such capital sum of five hundred pounds, or the balance thereof, unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent, for the time being, of the said benefice, in substitution for, and satisfaction of, an equivalent amount of the annual allowance of thirty-five pounds, which, under the authority of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, was made payable by us, during a limited period, to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Medomsley.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Saint John the Evangelist, Tatworth, sometime part of the parish of Chard, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred and ninety pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the 10th day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the said sum or stipend of two hundred and ninety pounds shall be held to include, and be in lieu of and full substitution for, the grant of thirty pounds per annum, which, under the provisions of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, was made payable by us to the Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Chard, with an especial view to providing for the services of the chapel at Tatworth aforesaid, and provided also that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of two hundred and ninety pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

Cockermouth, Keswick, and Penrith Railway Company.

Certificate of the Board of Trade for raising Additional Capital.

WHEREAS the Cockermouth, Keswick, and Penrith Railway Company have complied with the requirements of "The Railway Companies' Powers Act, 1864."

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade do, by this their Certificate, in pursuance of the said Act, and by virtue and in exercise of the powers thereby in them vested, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, certify as follows:

Company authorised to raise Additional Capital.

1. The Cockermouth, Keswick, and Penrith Railway Company (hereinafter called "The Company") may from time to time raise, for the purposes of their undertaking, in addition to the capital which they are already authorised to raise, any further sums not exceeding in the whole twenty-five thousand pounds, by the creation of new ordinary or new preference shares or stock; or (at the option of the Company) by both of those modes.

Preference Shareholders not entitled to Vote except with consent of Company.

2. No person shall be entitled to vote in respect of any share created under this Certificate, to which a preferential dividend shall be assigned, unless the Company shall, at the time of the creation and issue of such preference shares, have determined otherwise.

Privileges, &c., of the holders of New Capital.

3. Save as herein, or in the Acts incorporated herewith, otherwise provided, the holders of shares or stock in the additional capital hereby authorised to be raised shall be entitled to the like rights and privileges and be subject to the like liabilities as the holders of shares or stock in the existing ordinary capital of the Company.

Power to Borrow.

4. The Company may from time to time borrow on mortgage for the purposes of their undertaking, beyond the sum now authorised to be borrowed by them, any additional sum not exceeding in the whole eight thousand pounds.

Arrears may be enforced by the appointment of a Receiver.

5. The mortgagees under this Certificate may enforce payment of arrears of principal and interest due on their mortgages by the appointment of a receiver; and in order to authorise the appointment of a receiver, in the event of the principal money or interest due on such mortgages not being duly paid, the amount owing to the mortgagees, by whom the application for a receiver shall be made, shall be not less than one thousand pounds in the whole.

Existing Mortgages to have priority.

6. All mortgages granted by the Company in pursuance of the powers of any Act of Parliament, or of any Certificate granted by the Board of Trade in pursuance of the "Railway Companies Powers Act, 1864," and which shall be subsisting when this Certificate comes into operation, shall, during the continuance of such mortgages, have priority over any mortgages to be created by virtue of this Certificate.

Short Title.

7. This Certificate may be cited as "The Cockermouth, Keswick, and Penrith Railway (Additional Capital) Certificate, 1867."

Dated this 15th day of April, 1867.

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade do, by this their Certificate, in pursuance of the said Act, and by virtue and in exercise of the powers thereby in them vested, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, certify as follows:—

Company authorised to raise Additional Capital.

1. The Saffron Walden Railway Company, hereinafter called "the Company," may from time to time raise, for the purposes of their undertaking, in addition to the capital which they are already authorised to raise, any further sums, not exceeding in the whole twenty-five thousand pounds, by the creation of new ordinary or new preference shares or stock, or (at the option of the Company) by both of those modes.

Privileges, &c., of the holders of New Capital.

2. Save as herein, or in the Acts incorporated herewith, otherwise provided, the holders of shares or stock in the additional capital hereby authorised to be raised, shall be entitled to the like rights and privileges, and be subject to the like liabilities, as the holders of shares or stock in the existing ordinary capital of the Company.

Power to Borrow.

3. The Company may from time to time borrow on mortgage, for the purposes of their undertaking, beyond the sums now authorised to be borrowed by them, any additional sum of money, not exceeding in the whole eight thousand pounds.

Arrears may be enforced by appointment of a Receiver.

4. The mortgagees under this Certificate may enforce payment of arrears of principal and interest due on their mortgages by the appointment of a receiver; and in order to authorise the appointment of a receiver, in the event of the principal money or interest due on such mortgages not being duly paid, the amount owing to the mortgagees, by whom the application for a receiver shall be made, shall be not less than one thousand pounds in the whole.

Existing mortgages to have priority.

5. All mortgages granted by the Company in pursuance of the powers of any Act of Parliament, and which shall be subsisting when this Certificate comes into operation, shall, during the continuance of such mortgages, have priority over any mortgages to be created by virtue of this Certificate.

Salisbury and Dorset Junction Railway Company.

Certificate of the Board of Trade for raising Additional Capital.

WHEREAS the Salisbury and Dorset Junction Railway Company have complied with the requirements of "The Railway Companies' Powers Act, 1864:"

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade do, by this their Certificate, in pursuance of the said Act, and by virtue and in exercise of the powers thereby in them vested, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, certify as follows:—

Power to raise Additional Capital.

1. The Salisbury and Dorset Junction Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company") are authorised to raise, for the purposes of their undertaking, in addition to the capital already authorised to be raised by them, any further sums, not exceeding in the whole fifteen thousand pounds, by the issue of new shares or new stock, either ordinary or preference, or partly ordinary and partly preference, at the option of the Company.

Privileges, &c., of the Holders of New Capital.

2. Save as herein, or in or under the authority of the Acts incorporated herewith, otherwise provided, the holders of shares or stock in the additional capital hereby authorised to be raised shall be entitled to the like rights and privileges, and be subject to the like liabilities, as the holders of shares or stock in the existing ordinary capital of the Company.

Power to Borrow.

3. The Company may raise, by borrowing on mortgage, for the purposes of their undertaking, any sums, in addition to the money they are already authorised to borrow, not exceeding in the whole five thousand pounds.

Arrears may be enforced by appointment of a Receiver.

4. The mortgagees under this Certificate may enforce payment of arrears of principal and interest due on their mortgages by the appointment of a receiver; and in order to authorise the appointment of a receiver, in the event of the principal money or interest due on such mortgages not being duly paid, the amount owing to the mortgagees, by whom the application for a receiver shall be made, shall be not less than one thousand pounds in the whole.

Priority of existing Mortgages.

5. Every mortgage granted by the Company, in pursuance of the powers of any Act of Parliament, and which shall be in force when this Certificate comes into operation, shall have priority over all mortgages granted under this Certificate.

Power to issue Debenture Stock.

6. In respect of any part of the money hereby authorised to be raised by mortgage, the Company may create and issue debenture stock.

Short Title.

7. This Certificate may be cited as "The Salisbury and Dorset Junction Railway (Additional Capital) Certificate, 1867."

as shall from time to time be ordered, under a contract for twelve months certain, and further, until the expiration of three months' warning.

The average annual consumption for the last three years may be ascertained, and a sample of the fearnought, and a form of the tender and conditions of contract may be seen in the Lobby of the Storekeeper-General's Department, Admiralty, Somerset House.

No. 23243.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an Agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Fearnought," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Storekeeper-General, Admiralty, Somerset House, accompanied by a letter signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £400 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR SUGAR, TEA, SPLIT PEAS, WHEAT, AND TOBACCO.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, April 17,
1867.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 2nd May next, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz. :—

Split Peas, 5,000 imperial bushels (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 gallons); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Wheat, 15,000 imperial bushels (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Sugar, 500,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tobacco, 100,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tea, 100,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per lb.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Separate tenders are to be made for each article.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

The sugar, tobacco, and tea to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples of the split peas and wheat (not less than 2 quarts of each), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for sugar must specify the Mark and Landing Number of each cask or package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than 2 lbs. for each Import Mark) must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different Marks or several Imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same Mark or average quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number, or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

Each tender for tea must specify the import mark and number of each parcel, the ship in which imported, the dock or warehouse where lying, and must be accompanied by an average sample (not less than two pounds) of each parcel. Tenders failing in any of these conditions will not be entertained.

No wheat tendered is to be of less weight than 60 lbs. per bushel.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tenders will be received unless made in accordance with the above denomination of quantities and rates, and contractors in claiming payment for articles supplied are to make out their invoices in accordance therewith, both as to quantities and rates, excepting those for wheat and peas, as the invoices for the wheat are to be in pounds at per 100 lbs., and for the peas in gallons, at per 100 gallons.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

CONTRACT-FOR WINE.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, April 17,
1867.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Friday, the 3rd May next, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:—

three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.
Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the wine.

Separate tenders are to be made for each description of wine.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

The wine to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the wine (in pints) from each cask, must be produced by the parties tendering, and not samples only for each import mark.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tenders will be received unless made in accordance with the above denomination of quantities and rates; and contractors in claiming payment are to make out their invoices in accordance therewith, both as to quantities and rates.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Pursuant to the Act of the Legislature of the Colony of Newfoundland, 17th Victoria, chapter 2, the subjoined Notice is hereby given.

EDMUND HARRIS, Rugby, Solicitor for the said Executors.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act of Parliament made in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intitled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of such of the Estates subject to the Will and Codicil of Thomas Jennings, Esq., deceased, as are situate in or near Gracechurch-street, in the parish of Saint Benedict, in the city of London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition in the above-mentioned matters was, on the 16th day of April, 1867, presented to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain by Samuel Day, of Saint Neot's, in the county of Hunts, Gentleman, Charles Robert Wade-Gery, of the same place, Gentleman, Edward Billett Jennings, of Burton-on-Trent, in the county of Stafford, Gentleman, Edward Alvey Jennings, Francis James Jennings, and Arthur Gee Jennings, respectively sons of the said Edward Billett Jennings, and infants under the age of twenty-one years, by the said Samuel Day, their duly-constituted guardian and next friend, Henrietta Eleanor Day, the Wife of the said Samuel Day, by the said Edward Billett Jennings, her brother and next friend, and Frances Sarah Ann Evans, of Willow Bank, Paignton, in the county of Devon, Widow, praying that the conditional contract set forth in the said Petition might be confirmed, and that the above-mentioned hereditaments devised by the said codicil to the will of the said Thomas Jennings (the same being—a freehold messuage or tenement on the east side of, and numbered 54, in Gracechurch-street, in the parish of Saint Benedict, in the city of London, and a freehold messuage or tenement known as the White Lion Tavern, Talbot-court, Gracechurch-street aforesaid) might be sold, in accordance with such contract, and that the said Samuel Day and Charles Robert Wade-Gery might be directed to carry out the said contract, and on payment of the purchase-money (in such contract mentioned) to convey the said hereditaments in the manner in the same contract provided; or that the said hereditaments might be sold under the direction of the Court of Chancery, and that the said Samuel Day and Charles Robert Wade-Gery might be directed to convey the same to the purchaser or purchasers thereof; and that the costs, charges, and expenses of the petitioners and of all other necessary parties of and incident to that application, and of the Order to be made thereon, might be taxed and paid, as therein mentioned, out of the moneys to be received for the sale of the said hereditaments, whether under the said conditional contract or under any other contract to be made by the direction of the said Court; and that the residue of the same moneys might be invested by the said Samuel Day and Charles Robert Wade-Gery, and applied in the manner directed by the above-mentioned Act of Parliament, without any further application to the Court. And notice is hereby also given, that the petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or notice relating to the subject of the said Petition, at the office of their Solicitors, Messrs. Bartholomew and Bigg, situate No. 3, Gray's-inn-place, Gray's-inn, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 18th day of April, 1867.
