

with respect to their movement within such limits as may be imposed by such licence :

And whereas in the said licence for the holding of the above-mentioned market, it is provided that no cattle brought into the said market shall be taken alive beyond the limits of the municipal boundaries of the said borough, and further, that no market shall be held for the sale of sheep, lambs, goats, or swine, within the said borough, except for the purpose of slaughter, and all sheep, lambs, goats, or swine, brought into any market within the borough for sale, shall be slaughtered within the municipal boundaries of the said borough within four days after their exposure in the market :

And whereas it is expedient that certain other regulations should be made in this behalf :

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby order, that notwithstanding such provisions in the said licence, and all similar provisions in the said Order, cattle sold in the said market until the thirty-first day of July next, if the said licence shall so long continue in force, may be moved to any slaughter-house in the towns or places of Wolverhampton, Walsall, Handsworth, Smethwick, Willenhall, Darlaston, Wednesbury, West Bromwich, Tipton, Rowley Regis, Great Bridge, Bilston, and Harborne, in the county of Stafford, and to the towns and places of Aston, Warwick, Coventry, and Saltley, all in the county of Warwick, and at all intermediate places in the respective counties of Stafford and Warwick, between any such town or place and the said borough of Birmingham, to be there slaughtered under such regulations as the Local Authorities for the counties of Stafford and Warwick respectively shall from time to time make and issue in regard to the movement as well as the places, times, and manner of slaughtering of such cattle :

Provided that nothing herein contained shall allow the cattle to be kept alive for more than four days after exposure in the said market.

Every such regulation shall be published by the Local Authority making it in some newspaper circulating in the borough of Birmingham, and by a notice affixed in some conspicuous place in the said market.

Notwithstanding the provision in the said licence above recited, and the similar provision in the said Order, swine may be sold at any market or other place within the said borough, whether for immediate slaughter or otherwise, and need not be slaughtered within the municipal boundaries of the said borough within four days after their exposure for sale.

This Order shall be construed in like manner as the said Order, and every person who shall contravene this Order, or any regulation of the Local Authorities made under it, shall be guilty of an offence, and be subject to the like penalty as in the case of a contravention of any regulation in such Order.

And the Lords of the said Council hereby further direct that the Local Authority of the borough of Birmingham shall cause this Order to be published in some newspaper circulating in the said borough.
