

considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, late one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, did make a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the second day of February last, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the nineteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered, that burials in the undermentioned parishes shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz:

COYTY, GLAMORGANSHIRE.—Forthwith wholly in the Noltly Episcopalian Chapel, in the parish of Coyty; and that interments be discontinued in the burial-ground of that chapel after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, except in vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in earthen graves which can be opened to the depth of five feet without the exposure of coffins or disturbance of remains.

And that interments be discontinued forthwith wholly in the Independent Chapel in the parish of Coyty, and forthwith in the chapel-yard, except for the burial of the members of the families of those already buried therein.

NEWCASTLE, GLAMORGANSHIRE.—Forthwith wholly in the church; and that interment be discontinued in the churchyard after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, except in vaults and walled graves existing on the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in earthen graves which can be opened to the depth of five feet without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of remains.

And that interments be discontinued forthwith wholly in the Baptist and Unitarian Chapels in the parish of Newcastle, Glamorganshire; and forthwith in the burial-grounds of the said chapels, except for the burial of the members of the families of those already buried therein.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows; viz:

In the churchyard of Tunstall, Wolstanton, in the county of Stafford, to the thirtieth of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, on condition that, except in vaults and walled graves, as excepted in the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the eighteenth of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, no coffin be buried in any grave less than four feet deep, and that no coffin be exposed or remains disturbed.

In the churchyard of Holy Trinity, Springfield, Essex, to the eighteenth of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to order such acts to be done by or under the directions of the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other
