

said borough, and further, that no market shall be held for the sale of sheep, lambs, goats, or swine, within the said limits, except for the purpose of slaughter, and all sheep, lambs, goats, or swine, brought into any market within such limits for sale, shall be slaughtered within such limits within four days after their exposure in the market:

And whereas it is expedient that certain other regulations should be made in this behalf:

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby order, that notwithstanding such provisions in the said licence, and all similar provisions in the said Order, cattle sold in the said market until the thirty-first day of July next, if the said licence shall so long continue in force, may be moved to any slaughter-house within twenty miles of the said market in the boroughs of Doncaster and Dewsbury, in the parishes of Batley, Bingley, Otley, Penistone, and Selby, in the township of Bramley, and in the chapelry of Holmfirth, all in the West Riding aforesaid, to be there slaughtered under such regulations as the Local Authority for the West Riding of the county of York shall, from time to time, make and issue in regard to the movement, as well as the places, times, and manner of slaughtering of such cattle:

Every such regulation shall be published by the Local Authority making it in some newspaper circulating in the borough of Wakefield, and by a notice affixed in some conspicuous place in the said market.

Provided, that if any cattle shall be moved for a distance exceeding five miles in a direct line from such market, the cattle shall be moved by railway only from the market to their ultimate destination, or to within one mile thereof; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall allow the cattle to be kept alive for more than six days after exposure in the said market, nor to be moved for a distance exceeding twenty miles from the said market.

This Order shall be construed in like manner as the said Order of the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and every person who shall contravene it, or any regulation of the Local Authority made under it, shall be guilty of an offence, and be subject to the like penalty as in the case of a contravention of any regulation in the said mentioned Order:

And the Lords of the said Council hereby further direct that the Local Authority of the borough of Wakefield, shall cause this Order to be published in some newspaper circulating in the said borough.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 13th day of June, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord Robert Montagu.
Mr. Adderley.

WHEREAS by an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, reciting certain provisions of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, which has been continued by divers Acts, and lastly by an Act of the last session of Parliament until the first day of August next, and the end of the then next session of Parliament, and the appearance and prevalence of a contagious or infectious disorder generally designated the "Cattle Plague" amongst cattle in England and Wales, and sundry other matters, the said Lords did in exercise of the powers given by the said Act so continued as aforesaid make divers rules and regulations to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, which disorder still continues to prevail in certain parts of England:

And whereas provisions are contained in the said Order of the Privy Council to regulate the movement of cattle on any highway, and such movement without a licence as therein described is prohibited, except for a distance not exceeding five hundred yards, from one part of the same farm to the other:

And whereas the holding of markets for the sale of cattle is prohibited by the said Order until the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, except in the case of a market held with the licence of the Privy Council for the sale of cattle intended for immediate slaughter, which term hath, by an Order of the said Council, been extended from the said first day of June until the said Lords of the Council shall otherwise direct:

And whereas there is a market held in the town of Rotherham, in the West Riding of the county of York, for the sale of cattle, and the holding thereof has been licensed by the Lords of the said Council, by instrument bearing date the thirty-first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, for the sale of cattle intended for immediate slaughter, so long as the said above-mentioned Orders shall remain in force, or until the revocation of the said licence, as therein provided, subject to all the conditions, provisions, and regulations in the said first-mentioned Order contained applicable to such market:

And whereas it is provided by the said Order of the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, that in the case of cattle brought to any market other than the Metropolitan Cattle Market, they shall in no case be taken beyond such limits as may be described in the licence of the Privy Council allowing such market, and under such conditions with respect to their movement within such limits as may be imposed by such licence:

And whereas in the said licence for the holding of the above-mentioned market, it is provided that no cattle brought into the said market shall be taken alive beyond the limits of the said town as therein described, and further, that no market shall be held for the sale of sheep, lambs, goats, or swine, within the said town, except for the purpose of slaughter, and all sheep, lambs, goats, or swine, brought into any market within the limits of the town aforesaid for sale, shall be slaughtered within the limits therein referred to, within four days after exposure in the market:

And whereas it is expedient that certain other regulations should be made in this behalf:

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby order, that notwithstanding such provisions in the said licence, and all similar provisions in the said Order, cattle sold in the said market until the thirty-first day of July next, if the said
