

licence shall so long continue in force, may be moved to any slaughter-house in the borough of Doncaster, in the parishes of Mexbrough, Penistone, Rawmarsh, and Wath-upon-Dearne, and in the townships of Barnsley and Greasborough, all in the West Riding aforesaid, to be there slaughtered under such regulations as the Local Authority for the West Riding of the county of York shall, from time to time, make and issue in regard to the movement, as well as the places, times, and manner of slaughtering of such cattle.

Every such regulation shall be published by the Local Authority making it in some newspaper circulating in the said Riding, and by a notice affixed in some conspicuous place in the said market.

Provided, that if any cattle shall be moved for a distance exceeding five miles in a direct line from such market, the cattle shall be moved by railway only from the market to their ultimate destination, or to within one mile thereof; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall allow the cattle to be kept alive for more than six days after exposure in the said market.

This Order shall be construed in like manner as the said Order of the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and every person who shall contravene it, or any regulation of the Local Authority made under it, shall be guilty of an offence, and be subject to the like penalty as in the case of a contravention of any regulation in the said mentioned Order:

And the Lords of the said Council hereby further direct that the Local Authority of the said Riding shall cause this Order to be published in some newspaper circulating in the said Riding.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 17th day of June, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Lord Robert Montagu.
Mr. Cave.

WHEREAS an Order was passed by the Lords of the Council on the twenty-seventh day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, containing regulations with respect to the removal of cattle brought by sea from any place out of the United Kingdom, except the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man, from the landing-place where such cattle have been landed, and containing other regulations with respect to cattle brought to the Metropolis:

And whereas it was provided in the said Order that the said regulations should come into operation from and after the eighteenth day of June instant:

And whereas it is expedient that the date at which the provisions of such Order were to come into operation should be postponed until the twenty-fifth day of June instant:

Now, therefore, the Lords of the said Council do order, and it is hereby ordered, that the provisions of the aforesaid Order of the twenty-seventh day of May, shall come into operation and be in force from and after the twenty-fifth day of June instant.

Arthur Helps.
