

And on every such letter, if exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage;

And for every additional half of an ounce in weight of any such letter above the weight of two ounces, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage; and every fractional part of such additional half of an ounce in weight shall be charged as an additional half of an ounce in weight; and each progressive and additional rate, chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight.

3. Nothing herein contained shall be construed in anywise to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by or under the said hereinbefore-recited Acts, or either of them, or by or under any other Acts of Parliament relating to the Post Office.

4. On every packet consisting of a printed newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in Brazil, Buenos Ayres, or Monte Video, addressed to any place in Portugal, and transmitted by British packet boat from Brazil, Buenos Ayres, or Monte Video, to any port in Portugal, without passing through the United Kingdom, there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable thereon, a rate of British postage of one penny, and on every such packet exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken a rate of British postage of two pence.

5. For the purposes of this Warrant, every printed newspaper transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be deemed and considered a packet, and shall be charged and chargeable with a rate or rates of postage according to the weight thereof, as hereinbefore mentioned, notwithstanding two or more newspapers shall be inclosed and transmitted in one and the same cover, wrapper, envelope, or bundle, and form only one parcel or bundle of newspapers; and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

6. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post under the 4th clause of this Warrant shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter contained; that is to say:—

Every such packet shall be sent without a cover, or in a cover open at the ends or sides;

No such packet shall contain any written letter, or any communication in the nature of a letter, closed or open, nor any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any communication of the nature of a letter written in or upon any such packet or the cover thereof;

No such packet which in length shall exceed two feet (British), or in breadth or depth one foot (British), shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, unless under the special authority of the Postmaster-General;

There shall be no word or communication printed on any newspaper after the publication thereof, or upon any cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon any such newspaper, or upon any cover thereof, other than and except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent; but the name or title of such newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, news-vendor, or agent by whom the same is sent, may be printed on the cover thereof;

There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any newspaper.

7. If any packet be posted or be transmitted by the post under this Warrant, which shall be otherwise than in conformity with the conditions and regulations hereinbefore established in relation thereto, the same shall and may be detained and opened, and shall be returned or given up to the sender thereof.

8. The term "weight," used in this Warrant, shall mean British weight; and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

9. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, or the hands of any two of them, at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

10. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the twentieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.
