TUESDAY, JULY 9, 1867.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of July, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

- Lord President.
- Lord Robert Montagu.
- Lord Naas.
- Mr. Secretary Gathorne Hardy.
- Mr. Wilson Patten.

WHEREAS by the "Diseases Prevention Act, 1855," it is, amongst other things, enacted that whenever any part of England appears to be threatened with, or is affected by, any formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council, or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one), may, by Order or Orders, to be by them from time to time made, direct that the provisions therein contained for the prevention of diseases be put in force in England, or in such parts thereof as in such Order or Orders respectively may be expressed, and may from time to time, as to all or any of the parts to which any such Order or Orders extend, and in like manner, revoke or renew any such Order; and that, subject to revocation and renewal as aforesaid, every such Order shall be in force for six calendar months, or for such shorter period as in such Order shall be expressed; and that every such Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or of any members thereof as aforesaid, shall be certified under the hand of the Clerk in Ordinary of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and shall be published in the London Gazette; and such publication shall be conclusive evidence of such Order, to all intents and purposes:

And whereas in an Act passed in the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter seventy-seven, certain provisions are contained as to what shall be the Local Authority for executing the said Diseases Prevention Act:

And whereas the provisions of the above-recited Acts were, by an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, of the fourteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, put in force within the whole of England:

And whereas by a certain other Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council of the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, after reciting the said Order of the fourteenth day of July, and the 11th Section of the "Diseases Prevention Act, 1855," and that it appeared expedient to enlarge the application of the said Order, so that the same should extend to parts and arms of the sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty, their Lordships did, in exercise of the powers in them vested, as in the said Order mentioned, order that the said recited Order of the fourteenth day of July last should extend, and the same was thereby extended to all parts and arms of the sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty within three miles of the coasts of England:

And whereas by a certain other Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council of the tenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, after reciting the said Orders of the fourteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, it was ordered and directed that the provisions contained in the said Acts for the prevention of diseases should, from and after the date of that present Order, be and be continued in force within the whole and every part of England, and all parts and arms of the sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty within three miles of the coasts of England, for the period of six calendar months from the date of that Order, and that the said recited Orders should be renewed accordingly for such period as therein aforesaid:

And whereas the said Orders will, unless renewed, expire on the tenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and it is deemed expedient that the said Orders should be renewed, and that the provisions of the said Acts should be continued in force as hereinafter mentioned:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council do hereby, in exercise of the powers given by the said Act, and all other powers enabling them in that behalf, order and direct that the provisions contained in the said Acts for the prevention of diseases shall, from and after the date of this present Order, be and be continued in force within the whole and every part of England, and all parts and arms of the sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty, within three miles of the coasts of England, for the period of six calendar months from the date of this Order, and that the said recited Orders shall be renewed accordingly for such period as aforesaid.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of July, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT.

Lord President.
Lord Robert Montagu.
Lord Naas.
Mr. Secretary Gathorne Hardy.
Mr. Wilson Patten.

WHEREAS the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by an Order made this eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in exercise of the powers given by "The Diseases Prevention Act, 1855," and the Amending Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy-seven, and of every other power enabling them in that behalf, did order and direct that the provisions contained in the said Acts for the prevention of diseases should, from and after the date of that Order, be and be continued in force within the whole and every part of England and all parts and arms of the sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty within three miles of the coasts of England, for the period of six calendar months from the date of that Order, and that certain recited orders then in existence and therein more particularly referred to, should be renewed accordingly for such period as aforesaid;

And whereas the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council have thought fit, under the authority conferred upon them by the said first cited Act and all other Acts in such behalf, to issue the directions and regulations following, to be in force in all Unions and Parishes of England not within the Metropolis, and in all parts and arms of the sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty, so long as the provisions aforesaid shall be in force under the said Order;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by the above-named Acts, the Lords of the Council order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows, that is to say:—

I.—Preliminary.

Forthwith on the issuing of the present Regulations, the Clerk of every Board of Guardians shall summon a special meeting of the Board, in order that the present Regulations may be brought before them, and that the Board may make, as they are hereby required to do, such preliminary arrangements as will enable them, if sudden need shall arise, to carry the following regulations into immediate effect; and the Board at such meeting shall direct the Clerk, by instructions to the Medical Officers, and by circular letters of request addressed to all legally qualified Medical Practitioners in the Union or Parish, and in such other ways as the Board may think necessary, to take measures for causing the Board to be made acquainted with any presence of Cholera or unusual amount or severity of Diarrhoea in the Union or Parish, or any part of it, if such be existing or should thereafter exist: and the Board if apprised of any such presence of Cholera or Diarrhoea shall thereupon forthwith, so far as the circumstances require, do the several things hereinafter ordered:

II.—When Cholera is in an Union or Parish.

1. Every Board shall make arrangements for meeting, in districts where the disease is actually prevailing, daily, either in a body or in one or more Committees, according to the exigencies of the district, for the purpose of exercising the powers conferred upon them by the Act.

2. The meetings may be held at the ordinary Board-room, and, where necessary, at such other places as shall appear to be most convenient for dealing with the disease, and the Board shall cause proper minutes of all proceedings to be made and duly recorded.

3. Where the Union or Parish forms part of any town of more than 60,000 inhabitants, or contains a town of more than 40,000 inhabitants, according to the report upon the last Census, or where several parts of the Union or Parish are at one time suffering from Cholera, the Board shall appoint some legally qualified Medical Practitioner to attend at the meetings, and render his advice thereat, and superintend all the medical arrangements for preventing and treating the disease.

4. In each district in which Cholera is present, or, if the quantity of work to be done renders it desirable to subdivide the district, then in each of such subdivisions, a legally qualified Medical Practitioner shall be put in charge of the district or subdivision for the medical purposes of these Regulations; and to each such Medical Practitioner shall be allotted all needful Medical Assistants and such other Assistants as the Board see fit.

Such District Medical Practitioner, or one of his Assistants, shall at least once daily visit those parts of the district which are inhabited by the poorer classes, and wherein the disease is, and shall there inquire at every house as to the existence of Diarrhoea or Cholera, and shall enter in a book to be kept for the purpose the facts as to all cases he may meet with, and shall without delay give, or take the proper steps for causing to be given, all necessary medical assistance to the sick. And the Medical Practitioner or Assistant shall, when visiting the part assigned to him, be provided with medicines for immediate administration in urgent cases, and shall be held to be in medical charge of all cases of Diarrhoea or Cholera with which he may meet until he is relieved by such other provision for their medical attendance as may be made or sanctioned by the Board.

5. Such Medical Practitioner shall, by transmitting his above-required book, or otherwise, report daily to the Board of Guardians, or to the Committee of the district for which he acts, the result of his own and his Assistants' inquiries, and shall make such suggestions as to the state of the district as he shall deem advisable.

6. In places where the Board of Guardians are not the Nuisances Removal Authority, the Board shall, without delay, cause report to be made to such Authority, and if the Board see fit, shall complain to the Justices, of every case where any Committee, Medical Practitioner or Assistant, employed by the Board, shall find any nuisance injurious to health existing in any premises visited by them.

7. The Visitors shall, where they find it expedient, communicate to the Relieving Officer of the district any case of destitution requiring relief, which is not entered in his relief list, and such officer shall forthwith visit the same and give such relief as in his judgment the case shall require.

8. The Board shall provide a sufficient number of Dispensaries to be open night and day, at convenient places within their district, with an adequate supply of such medicines, medical appliances and disinfectants, as their Medical Adviser shall recommend, and with a legally qualified Medical Practitioner or skilled Assistant always in attendance at each; and such medicines, medical appliances and disinfectants, shall be dispensed without charge by such Medical Practitioner or Assistant to persons bringing orders for the same from the District Medical Practitioners and to other persons who apply for immediate medical treatment. And the names and addresses of all such applicants shall be sent to the District Medical Practitioner of the place in which they reside.

9. In every case of Cholera or Diarrhoea, where the patient is not under medical care and treatment, the Board shall cause medical assistance to be rendered with the utmost expedition, as well as such aid and comfort, nourishment and accommodation, as the circumstances of the case will admit, with the object of restoring health.

10. The Board shall provide competent Nurses to aid every District Medical Practitioner in his attendance upon the patients suffering from the disease.

11. When the Medical Adviser recommends, the Board shall, with as much despatch as practicable, provide fit and proper accommodation for the reception of such patients as have no home, or cannot properly be treated at home, and may with advantage to themselves be removed, and shall cause the same to be provided with all appliances, medicines, furniture, and other things necessary for the emergency, and shall appoint a legally qualified Medical Practitioner, with or without Assistant, as the case may require, to attend to the same.

12. If Cholera or Choleraic Diarrhoea exists in any dwelling whereof the Medical Practitioner reports that the sick and healthy cannot therein be properly separated, the Board shall forthwith cause adequate accommodation to be procured for the reception of the healthy; and, when the Medical Practitioner recommends that the sick person shall not be removed, but that the healthy shall be removed, from the same room in which the sick person is lying, the Board shall cause the other inmates of such room to be removed to some convenient place of reception.

13. The Board shall, in dwellings where Cholera or Diarrhoea exists, cause proper disinfectants to be used in sufficient quantities for the purpose of disinfecting the discharges from the sick, and the bedding, clothing, and other things thereby infected, and the utensils and privies in which such discharges may have been received.

14. The Board shall cause every article of clothing, bedding, or furniture which shall have been infected with any such discharge, and which they shall find incapable of being speedily disinfected, to be forthwith destroyed; the Board within a reasonable time replacing all such articles, or paying the reasonable value to the owner.

15. If it be shown to the Board that any drinking-water used in their district is polluted, they shall take measures with as much expedition as possible, for procuring wholesome water to be supplied in its stead, so far as the case requires, to the inmates of the houses in their district, and for preventing, as far possible, the further use of the polluted water. And every Board owning or having possession of any waterworks for the supply of water shall cause the reservoirs, cisterns, pipes, pumps and other apparatus belonging thereto, to be carefully examined, cleansed, and purified, and other necessary measures to be taken, so that the water may be supplied without impurity.

16. The Board shall make due arrangements with undertakers, and with the proper authorities of the churchyards, burial-grounds, and cemeteries of their district, so that coffins may be ready to be supplied immediately on demand, and interments speedily take place in the cases of deaths arising from Cholera or Diarrhoea, and the Board shall, when informed of any such death, cause the corpse to be buried with the earliest possible despatch.

17. Where any death shall occur from Cholera or Choleraic Diarrhoea, no collection of persons shall assemble in the room where the corpse is, and no "waking" of the dead shall be allowed.

18. The Board shall cause the immediate removal, from any room which living persons inhabit, of the corpse of every person dying from Cholera or Choleraic Diarrhoea until the time of its interment, and shall cause such means to be adopted for preventing the spread of infection from the corpse as their Medical Adviser shall recommend.

19. The Clerk of the Board shall every Monday send by post to the Medical Officer of the Privy Council, a Return of the number of new cases of Diarrhoea or Cholera which have during the week ended on Saturday midnight last come under the cognisance of the Board, and of the number of recoveries, and the number of deaths, with such other particulars as such Medical Officer shall from time to time require. AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of July, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Lord Robert Montagu.
Lord Naas.
Mr. Secretary Gathorne Hardy.
Mr. Wilson Patten.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth (chapter seventy-eight), "to repeal the several laws relating to the performance of quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," (section six), the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, are empowered, in case of any infectious disease or distemper appearing or breaking out in the United Kingdom, to make such orders and give such direction in order to cut off all communication between any persons infected with any such disease or distemper and the rest of Her Majesty's subjects as shall appear to the said Lords or others, or any two or more of them, to be necessary and expedient for that purpose; and it is by the same section provided that all such Orders so made by the Lords or others of the Privy Council, or any two or more of them, as aforesaid, shall be as good, valid, and effectual to all intents and purposes, as well with respect to the Commander, Master, or other person having the charge of any vessel, and all other persons on board the same, as with respect to any other persons having any intercourse or communication with them, and to the penalties, forfeitures, and punishments to which they may respectively become liable, as any Order or Orders made by Her Majesty, Her heirs or successors, by and with the advice of Her or their Privy Council, concerning quarantine, notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette :

And whereas by "The Diseases Prevention Act, 1855," it is (among other things), enacted (sections five, six, and eleven) as follows :—

V. "Whenever any part of England appears to be threatened with, or is affected by, any formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council, or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one), may, by Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, direct that the provisions herein contained for the prevention of diseases be put in force in England, or in such parts thereof as in such Order or Orders respectively may be expressed, and may from time to time, as to all or any of the parts to which any such Order or Orders extend, and in like manner revoke or renew any such Order; and subject to revocation and renewal as aforesaid, every such Order shall be in force for six calendar months, or for such shorter period as in such Order shall be expressed; and every such Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or of any members thereof as aforesaid, shall be certified under the hand of the Clerk in Ordinary of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and shall be published in the London Gazette; and such publication shall be conclusive evidence of such Order, to all intents and purposes."

VI. "From time to time after the issuing of any such Order as aforesaid, and whilst the same continues in force, the General Board of Health may issue directions and regulations, as the said Board may think fit—

"For the speedy interment of the dead :

"For house to house visitation :

"For the dispensing of medicines, guarding against the spread of disease, and affording to persons afflicted by or threatened with such epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease such medical aid and such accommodation as may be required :

"And from time to time, in like manner, may revoke, renew, and alter any such directions and regulations as to the said Board appears expedient, to extend to all parts in which the provisions of this Act for the prevention of disease shall for the time being be put in force under such Orders aforesaid, unless such directions and regulations be expressly confined to some of such parts, and then to such parts as therein are specified; and (subject to the power of revocation and alteration herein contained) such directions and regulations shall continue in force so long as the said provisions of this Act shall, under such Order, be applicable to the same parts."

XI. "Orders in Council issued in pursuance of this Act for putting in force the provisions for the prevention of disease in the said Nui-

“sanctions Removal and Diseases Prevention Acts contained, in Great Britain, may extend to parts and arms of the sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty; and the Board of Health for England may issue under this Act directions and regulations for cleansing, purifying, ventilating, and disinfecting, and providing medical aid and accommodation, and preventing disease in ships and vessels, as well upon arms and parts of the sea aforesaid as upon inland waters.”

And whereas, by “The Public Health Act, 1858” (subsequently made perpetual), it is (among other things) enacted (sections one and seven) as follows:—

I. “In addition to the powers vested in Her Majesty’s Most Honourable Privy Council for the protection of the public health, all powers now vested in the General Board of Health under ‘The Diseases Prevention Act, 1855,’ shall, upon the discontinuance of the said Board, be vested in the said Privy Council, and the provisions of the said Act having reference to the General Board of Health and the regulations and directions issued by them, except section thirteen, shall be construed as referring to such Privy Council, and the regulations and directions issued by them:—

VII. “All powers vested in the Privy Council by this Act may be exercised by any three or more of the Lords and others of the Privy Council, the Vice-President of the Committee of the said Privy Council on Education being one of them, and all Orders, Regulations, Directions, and Acts of the Privy Council under this Act shall be sufficiently made and signified by a written or printed document, signed by one of the Clerks of the Privy Council, or such Officer as may be appointed by the Privy Council in this behalf; and all Orders, Regulations, Directions, and Acts made or signified by any written or printed document purporting to be so signed shall be deemed to have been duly made, issued and done by the Privy Council, and every such document shall be received in evidence in all Courts, and before all Justices and others without proof of the authority or signature of such Clerk or other Officer, or other proof whatsoever, until it be shewn that such document was not duly signed by the authority of the Privy Council.

And whereas by “The Sanitary Act, 1866,” it is (among other things) enacted (section fifty-two) as follows:—

LII. “Every vessel having on board any person affected with a dangerous or infectious disorder shall be deemed to be within the provisions of the Act of the sixth year of King George the Fourth, chapter seventy-eight, although such vessel has not commenced her voyage, or has come from or is bound for some place in the United Kingdom; and the Lords and others of Her Majesty’s Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council or one of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State being one), may, by Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, make such rules, orders, and regulations as to them shall seem fit, and every such Order shall be certified under the hand of the Clerk in Ordinary of Her Majesty’s Privy Council, and shall be published in the London Gazette, and such publication shall be conclusive evidence of such Order to all intents and purposes; and such Orders shall be binding and be carried into effect as soon as the same

“shall have been so published, or at such other time as shall be fixed by such Orders, with a view to the treatment of persons affected with cholera and epidemic, endemic and contagious disease, and preventing the spread of cholera and such other diseases, as well on the seas, rivers, and waters of the United Kingdom, and on the high seas within three miles of the coasts thereof; as on land; and to declare and determine by what Nuisance Authority or Authorities such Orders, Rules, and Regulations shall be enforced and executed; and any expenses incurred by such Nuisance Authority or Authorities shall be deemed to be expenses incurred by it or them in carrying into effect the Nuisances Removal Acts.”

And whereas, by an Order dated the fourteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the Lords of the Council ordered that the provisions contained in the Acts for the Prevention of Diseases (therein described), should, from and after the date of that Order, be put in force within the whole and every part of England:

And whereas, by an Order dated the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the Lords of the Council ordered that the said Order of the fourteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, should extend, and the same was thereby extended to all parts and arms of the sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty, within three miles of the coasts of England:

And whereas the Lords of Her Majesty’s Most Honourable Privy Council did, by an Order bearing date the tenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, order and direct that the provisions contained in “The Diseases Prevention Act, 1855,” and the Act passed in the 23rd and 24th years of Her Majesty’s reign, cap. 77, for the prevention of diseases, should, from and after the date of that Order, be and be continued in force within the whole and every part of England, and all parts and arms of the sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty, within three miles of the coasts of England, for the period of six calendar months from the date thereof; and that the said Orders of the fourteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, should be renewed accordingly for such period as aforesaid:

And whereas by a certain other Order, also bearing date the tenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, after reciting the hereinbefore recited provisions contained in the Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, and in “The Diseases Prevention Act, 1855,” and in “The Public Health Act, 1858,” and in “The Sanitary Act, 1866,” and after also reciting the hereinbefore recited Orders of the fourteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the tenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and that Cholera having broken out in England it seemed to the Lords of the Council expedient to make provision in pursuance of the said recited enactments, the Lords of Her Majesty’s Most Honourable Privy Council did, in pursuance of the said recited enactments, order to the effect therein and hereinafter expressed:

And whereas the Lords of Her Majesty’s Most Honourable Privy Council did, by an Order bearing date this eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, order and direct that the provisions contained in "The Diseases Prevention Act, 1855," and the Act passed in the 23rd and 24th years of Her Majesty's reign, cap. 77, for the prevention of diseases, should, from and after the date of that Order, be and be continued in force within the whole and every part of England, and all parts and arms of the sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty, within three miles of the coasts of England, for the period of six calendar months from the date thereof; and that the said Orders of the fourteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, should be renewed accordingly for such period as therein aforesaid.

And whereas it seems to the Lords of the Council expedient, that the provisions made and contained in the secondly hereinbefore-recited Order of the tenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, should also be maintained and kept in force, and that (so far as is required by any of the said Acts) the said Order should be renewed for the space of six calendar months from the date hereof.

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the recited enactments or otherwise in them vested, do order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order of the tenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, so far as it is requisite or necessary to renew the same, shall be renewed for the period of six calendar months from the date hereof, and that—

1. In this Order—

The term "ship" includes vessel or boat:

The term "master" includes the officer or person for the time being in charge or command of a ship.

The term "cholera" includes choleraic diarrhoea:

The term "Nuisance Authority" has the same meaning as in "The Sanitary Act, 1866:"

2. The Master of every ship within the district of a Nuisance Authority, having on board any person affected with cholera, or the body of any person dead of cholera, or anything infected with or that has been exposed to the infection of cholera, shall, as long as the ship is within such district, moor, anchor, or place her in such position as from time to time the Nuisance Authority directs.

3. If at any time a Nuisance Authority is informed that cholera exists, or within three days previously has existed, in a ship within its district, such authority shall cause the ship to be forthwith visited, inspected, and otherwise dealt with (according to the circumstances of the case), in like manner as nearly as may be as if the ship were a house within the district of such authority, and shall give all such medical and other directions with reference to the persons therein, as seem to such authority requisite or proper for preventing the spread of the disease therefrom, and for disinfection or disposal of any thing infected, or that has been exposed to infection therein or therefrom.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of July, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.

Lord Robert Montagu.

Lord Naas.

Mr. Secretary Gathorne Hardy.

Mr. Wilson Patten.

WHEREAS by an Order bearing date the tenth day of May last, reciting certain provisions of the Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intitled "An Act to prevent until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders amongst sheep, cattle, and other animals," duly continued by subsequent Acts, and that the same had been amended and explained by an Act of the last session of Parliament, and the appearance and prevalence of the Cattle Plague amongst cattle in some parts of England, and that divers Orders had been made by the Lords of the Council which had been consolidated and amended by an Order, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and further reciting certain provisions in the said Order, and particularly one prohibiting until the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the holding of markets for the sale of cattle without a licence, which term had been extended by an Order of the said Council until the said Lords should otherwise direct, and that a market was held in a place known as the Smithfield Market, in the borough of Sheffield, in the West Riding of the county of York, which had been licensed by the Lords of the said Council under the said Order for the sale of cattle for immediate slaughter, and further reciting that in the said licence it was provided that no cattle should be taken alive beyond the limits of the municipal boundaries of the said borough, the said Lords did make certain provisions and regulations with regard to the movement of cattle sold in the said market to slaughter-houses situate within certain places as therein fully set forth, and among others the hamlet of Masbrough:

And whereas it is deemed expedient that the movement of cattle from the said market to the hamlet of Masbrough should be no longer permitted:

Now, therefore, the Lords of the said Council do hereby order, that from and after the fifteenth day of this present July, so much of the said recited Order of the tenth day of May last, as permits and regulates the movement of cattle sold in the said market to any slaughter-house in the hamlet of Masbrough shall be determined and be no longer in force, except in respect of any matter or thing commenced under the authority of the said Order and not completed, and in respect of any offence committed against such Order and not yet punished.

And the said Lords do further order that the Local Authority of the borough of Sheffield shall publish this Order by causing the same to be advertized in some newspaper circulating within the said borough, and by causing a copy thereof to be affixed in some conspicuous place in the said market.
