

and with the exception of that regulation which would require them to be inspected by an Inspector at such last-mentioned ports or places, or any one of them, as provided by the said Order of the twenty-seventh day of May last.

3. The words herein contained shall be construed as in the said Order of the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and all the provisions therein contained, relative to the offences for the contravention thereof, and the penalty for the same, and in respect of the powers of officers employed under it, and all other provisions of that Order, and the subsequent Orders altering it, now in force, and not inconsistent with anything herein contained, shall in respect of every matter and thing to which they shall be applicable, apply to the Regulations contained in this Order, and the enforcing the same, and the officers employed under it.

4. And the said Lords do further order, that the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough of Sunderland, shall forthwith publish this Order by causing a copy thereof to be advertised in some newspaper circulating in the said borough, and by causing a copy thereof to be affixed in some conspicuous place of the port of Sunderland.

(Quarantine, No. 29.)

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received, from Her Majesty's Consul at St. Croix, a Despatch, of which the following is copy :—

St. Croix, June 24, 1867.

MY LORD,

WITH reference to my predecessor, Acting Consul Perkin's communication of 27th November, 1866, No. 18, notifying the establishment of quarantine at the ports of this Island on account of Asiatic cholera in the Island of St. Thomas, I have the honour to report to your Lordship that the epidemic having ceased, the quarantine has been abolished.

Westminster, July 15, 1867.

This day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them that The Lords authorized by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by Her Majesty, for declaring Her Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear
