

from any place out of the United Kingdom, may be landed, in manner following, that is to say :—

All that quay, wharf, or landing-place, situate on the river Dart, in the southern part of the parish of Totnes, and bounded on the north by a timber-yard in the occupation of George Caunter; on the east by the river Dart; on the south by Tooleys Marsh; and on the west by a private road belonging to the said quay and marsh, and on a portion of which a shed is erected for the reception and slaughter of foreign cattle :

And the said Lords do hereby further order, that all cattle brought by sea from any place out of the United Kingdom, so landed at the port of Dartmouth, shall be slaughtered within such part of the said port as defined as aforesaid, and not elsewhere; and that no cattle brought within such part of the said port shall be removed therefrom alive :

And further, that all the regulations of the said Order of the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, now in force, and not inconsistent herewith, shall apply to this Order; and that any contravention of any provision herein contained shall be deemed to be an offence within the operation of the said Order of the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and be punishable as therein provided ;

And further, that the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Dartmouth, shall publish this Order by causing a copy thereof to be advertised in some newspaper circulating in the said borough, and by causing a copy thereof to be affixed in some conspicuous place of the port aforesaid.
