NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House, July 25, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the amount awarded for services against pirates on the 4th November, 1865, by Her Majesty's ship "Leven."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said award, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of three hundred and twenty-five square yards of land, with the buildings thereon, which have been permanently secured to the perpetual curacy of Alveley, in the county of Salop, and in the diocese of Hereford, and of a further benefaction of one hundred pounds sterling, which we have received in favour of the said perpetual curacy of Alveley, and in respect whereof we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of three pounds six shillings and eight pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of Alveley, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of nine pounds six shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.
