Inland Revenue, Somerset House,
London, August 8, 1867.

Agreement made and entered into this eighteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, between the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the one part, and the Reverend William Cockin, of Bishop Wearmouth, in the county of Durham, Clerk, Rector of the rectory of Bishop Wearmouth aforesaid (and hereinafter called "the said Rector"), of the other part.

WHEREAS by "The Bishop Wearmouth Rectory Act, 1867," after reciting (inter alia) a scheme of the Commissioners, and an Order of Her Majesty in Council confirming the same, dated the thirtieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and duly published in the London Gazette on the eleventh day of August, in the same year, by virtue of which scheme and order the rents, profits, and proceeds of certain wayleaves, staiths, and coal, belonging to the rectory of Bishop Wearmouth, and the benefit of any improvements which might be made during the incumbency of the Reverend John Patrick Eden, the then rector, in the annual income of a portion of the rectorial glebe known as the Rector's Park, were transferred to and vested in the Commissioners for the purposes and in manner therein mentioned; and reciting that the said William Cockin was the present rector of the said rectory. It was enacted (section 6), that upon the
