

words in this Order shall be construed as words in The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867.

2. Article twenty-five of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, shall be read and have effect as if the following words were omitted therefrom, namely:—"if the cattle are not affected with Cattle Plague, and have been on those premises in possession of the owner or occupier thereof not less than twenty-eight days immediately before the sale."

3. Articles twenty-seven to thirty-seven, inclusive, and Article thirty-nine of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, shall cease to operate, and cattle may be moved as if those Articles had not been inserted in that Order.

4. Every licence granted by the Privy Council for the holding of a market, exhibition, or sale, before the commencement of this Order, and in force at the commencement thereof, shall continue in force thereafter, as if this Order had not been made, subject to revocation by the Privy Council, and as if the conditions, provisions, and regulations applicable, under this Order, to such market, exhibition, or sale, had been referred to in such licence, instead of the conditions, provisions, and regulations of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867.

5. Nothing in this Order shall extend to the Metropolis or affect the operation or construction of The Metropolitan Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, any of the aforesaid Articles of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 22nd day of October, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, and under and in pursuance of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, do hereby define the part of the Port of Grimsby, in the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln, within which foreign cattle may be landed, as follows:—

All that space at the Great Grimsby (Royal) Docks, in the borough of Grimsby, lying between the Quay Wall forming the south-eastern boundary of the water of the Royal Dock, and a line commencing on the said Quay Wall at the northern corner of the "Transit Shed No. 4," and running straight in a south-easterly direction for a distance of one hundred and twenty-five yards at right angles to the Quay Wall, passing two hundred and seven yards to the north-east of the north-eastern fence of the Cattle Pens, to the boundary fence on the north-western side of the Fish Dock road, thence in a south-westerly direction along the said boundary fence for a distance of two hundred and eighty-three yards; thence in a straight line in a north-westerly direction, passing parallel to and eight yards to the south-west of the south-western wall of the slaughter-house and sheds for foreign cattle, to the quay wall of the Royal Dock at a point two hundred and eighty-three yards to the south-west of the northern corner of the Transit Shed No. 4; all which space is coloured green on the plan of part of Great Grimsby Docks, deposited at the Privy Council office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Town Clerk of the borough of Grimsby;

And prescribe as follows:—

1. All foreign cattle landed within the said defined part of the port shall be slaughtered within four days after the landing thereof, exclusive of the day of landing, unless they are taken to a licensed market or sale within that defined part within such four days, and they shall be so taken if a market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, but if there is no such licensed market or sale within that defined part, or if no such market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, then all such foreign cattle shall be slaughtered within that defined part within the said period of four days.

2. Cattle other than foreign cattle within the said defined part shall not be removed therefrom alive.
