FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1867.

Foreign Office, October 30, 1867.

(Quarantine, No. 60.)

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received, from Her Majesty's Consul at Trieste, the following translations of a Letter and Government Circular, issued at Trieste, regarding sanitary measures in that port :—

THE Local I. R. Lieutenantcy, authorized by the I. R. Ministry of the Interior, having declared that epidemic cholera has ceased at Trieste and its vicinity, the Central Maritime Government in obedience to the orders received from the I. R. Ministry of Commerce in despatch of 20th instant, has resolved that vessels on their departure shall for the future be provided with clean bills of health.

The I. R. Central Maritime Government begs to inform the Consulate of this determination with the request that it be brought to the knowledge of its Government, in order that the restrictive measures established on account of cholera against arrivals from this port and its dependencies may be removed.

From the I. R. Central Maritime Government.

Trieste, October 21, 1867.

The President,

(Signed) GÖDEL LANNOY.

*To The Royal Consulate of

CIRCULAR of the I. R. Central Maritime Government to all the Port and Health Office organs of the Empire.

WITH reference to the Decrees 15 June, 12 and 29 July, 2 and 20 August, and 3rd September of this year, Nos. 4772, 5540, 6213, 6365, 6934, and 7545, the Central Maritime Government orders that the arrivals from the ports of Leghorn, Genoa, from the Port and Gulf of Naples, from the coast between Lesina and Peschiri, from that between Manfredonia and Otranto, the Gulf of Taranto, the latter included, from the ports and provinces of Palermo, Messina, and Trapani, and from the coast between Catania and Augusta, shall be admitted to free pratique, if provided with clean bills of health.

Trieste, October 21, 1867.

The President,

GÖDEL LANNOY.

(Quarantine, No. 61.)

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from Her Majesty's Consul at Lisbon, the following translation of a Quarantine Notice issued at that Port :—

THE Board of Health of the Kingdom makes known that all arrivals from New York are considered free from the cholera, and those from Genoa suspected of the same disorder since the 5th instant.

Lisbon, October 18, 1867.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF PARTS OF ACT BY THE IMPROVEMENT COMMISSIONERS OF ABERYSTWITH, IN THE COUNTY OF CARDIGAN.

WHEREAS the Commissioners acting in and for the town of Aberystwith, in the county of Cardigan, under and by virtue of their Improvement Act (5 and 6 William IV., cap. 46), did, on the 17th day of August, 1867, adopt various parts, sections, and provisions of the Local Government Act, 1858, within their district, as set forth in their notice to me (in writing) as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and dated the 22nd day of October, 1867:

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as aforesaid, do hereby give notice, that the sections and portions of the Local Government Act, 1858, that is to say, sections 32, 33, 34, 35, 38 (and the sections of the Public Health Act, 1848, therein referred to), also sections 41, 44 (and the enactments thereby incorporated), 45, 52, 57, 61, 62, 66, 75, and 78, have been duly adopted, and that in accordance with the Local Government Act, 1858, the said portions of the hereinbefore-recited Act will, from the date of the notice of the adoption thereof, have the force of law within the district of the aforesaid Aberystwith Improvement Commissioners.

Given under my hand this 30th day of October, 1867.

(Signed) Gathorne Hardy.

Home Office, Whitehall.

REGIMENTAL DEBTS ACT, 1863.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department holds in his hands for distribution amongst the next of kin of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list hereunder written, the sum of money set opposite to each name.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as next of kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under-Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the dates and places of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should not these particulars furnished by the applicant agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore, it will facilitate the applicants' inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared:—
Dated this 1st day of November, 1867.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,
EDWARD LUGARD.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 66.)—SPAIN—SOUTH-EAST COAST.

Revolving Light at Chipiona.

THE Spanish Government has given notice, that from the 28th day of November, 1867, a light will be exhibited from a lighthouse at Chipiona, south entrance of the Guadalquivir River.

The light is a white light, with eclipses every minute, elevated 220 feet above the level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 22 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses of the first order.

The lighthouse, 205 feet high, is attached to the keeper's dwelling, and both are painted yellowish white; it is situated on the ridge of Perro between the village of Chipiona and the old convent of Regla, 44 yards from the shore.

Its position, as given, is in lat, 36° 44' N., long. 6° 26½' West of Greenwich, and from it San Sebastian light bears S. ½ E., Malandar point light E. by N. ¾ N., and the centre of the Salmedina rocks W. by N. nearly 1½ miles.

On the same night that this light is exhibited the light at present exhibited from the church of Chipiona will be discontinued.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation 20° Westerly in 1867.]

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
10th October, 1867.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Coasts of Portugal and Spain, &c., No. 92; Entrance to Guadalquivir River, No. 2341; and British Islands to Mediterranean, No. 1. Also, France, Spain, and Portugal Lights List, No. 307.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 67.)—UNITED STATES.—CHESAPEAKE BAY.

Lighthouse at Jane Island—Tangier Sound.

THE United States Government has given notice, that from the 7th day of October, 1867, a light would be exhibited from a Screw Pile Lighthouse recently erected at Jane Island, mouth of Anname-six river, and that the light-vessel lately stationed there would be removed. The light is elevated 35 feet above the level of ordinary tides, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 10 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses of the fourth order.

The lighthouse stands on the shoal, which extends from the south-west point of Jane Island towards the light-vessel, three quarters of a mile distant from each, in 5½ feet water, mean tide; the iron work of the foundation is painted red and the lighthouse white.

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.

Alteration of Buoys between the Kish and Tuskar Lights.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 23, issued from this Office, dated the 26th day of April, 1867, relative to the alteration of buoys between the Kish and Tuskar Lights, the Corporation of the Port of Dublin has given notice, that the following alterations have now taken place:—

Kish Bank.

North Kish Buoy has been changed from a can to a conical black buoy with staff and ball, and marked Kish Buoy, No. 1.

Middle Kish Buoy.—An additional black can buoy, marked Kish Buoy, No. 2, has been placed midway between the North and South buoys, on the outer edge of the bank, in 15 fathoms water.

South Kish Buoy has been changed from a can to a conical black buoy, and marked Kish Bank, No. 3.

Codling Bank.

Codling Bank Buoy has been moved two miles N. by W. $\frac{2}{3}$ W. of its late position, and changed to a can buoy, coloured black and white in vertical stripes, instead of a conical black buoy, with staff and ball, as heretofore.

India Bank.

India Bank Buoy has been changed to a conical buoy, coloured black and white, in horizontal bands, instead of a black can buoy, as heretofore.

Arklow Bank.

North Arklow Buoy has been coloured red, with staff and ball, and marked Arklow Bank, No. 1, instead of black and white stripes, as heretofore.

Intermediate Buoys.—Three red can buoys have been placed on the outer edge of the bank, at equal distances between the North and South buoys, and at equal distances from each other, and marked respectively Arklow Bank, No. 2, Arklow Bank, No. 3, and Arklow Bank, No. 4, instead of the two striped can buoys, as heretofore.

South Arklow Buoy has been changed to a red conical buoy, and marked Arklow Bank, No. 5, instead of black and white stripes, as heretofore.

Blackwater Bank.

North Blackwater Buoy has been changed to a black conical buoy, with staff and ball, and marked Blackwater, No. 1, instead of a black can buoy, as heretofore.

Intermediate Buoys.—The two intermediate buoys have been changed to black can buoys, and marked respectively Blackwater, No. 2, and Blackwater, No. 3, instead of conical black buoys, as heretofore.

South Blackwater Buoy has been changed to a conical black buoy, and marked Blackwater, No. 4, instead of a can buoy of the same colour, as heretofore.

Long Bank.

North Long Bank Buoy has been changed to a conical red buoy, with staff and ball, and marked Long Bank, No. 1, instead of a black conical buoy, as heretofore.

Middle Buoy.—An additional red can buoy has been placed equi-distant from the North and South buoys, and marked Long Bank, No. 2.

South Long Bank Buoy has been changed to a red conical buoy, and marked Long Bank, No. 3, instead of a black conical buoy, with staff and ball, as heretofore.

NOTICE OF INTENDED DISTRIBUTION OF NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House, October 26, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Officers, Seamen, and Marines, and to all persons interested therein, that the distribution of half of the proceeds of a lorch and her cargo, captured on the 15th May, 1865, by Her Majesty's ship "Bustard," will commence on Friday, the 8th proximo, in the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House."

Agents and other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share of any captor serving in the above-named ship, are requested to present the same at this office.

Any Officer, Seaman, Marine, or other person, who may desire to receive his share from the Collector of Customs or of Inland Revenue within the United Kingdom, is required to intimate the same by letter to be addressed "On Prize Business, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, London," (enclosing his certificate of service, or an attested copy thereof, excepting in the case of Commissioned Officers),—in which letter his own place of residence is to be precisely stated, as well as the place of the nearest Collector of Customs, or of Inland Revenue, from whom it would be convenient to receive such share of prize money.

The following are the shares due to an individual in the several classes:—

Lieutenant Commanding	37	4	0
Fourth class	21	10	1
Fifth class	11	18	11
Sixth class	10	15	1

Ninth class	2	7	9

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House, October 25, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the tonnage bounty awarded for a slave dhow, name unknown, captured on the 23rd June, 1865, by Her Majesty's ship "Lyra."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said bounty are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS it has become necessary to renew the list of persons to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners appointed to act in the division of Bamburgh, in the county of Northumberland, as Commissioners for the general purposes of the Acts of Parliament for granting to Her Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices: Now we, two of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in pursuance of the powers vested in us in that behalf, do hereby convene a meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners, for the county aforesaid, being respectively qualified to act as such Commissioners, to be holden at the Blue Bell Inn, Belford, on Wednesday, the 13th day of November, 1867, at eleven in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing fit and proper persons to be Commissioners to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax Acts for the division of Bamburgh aforesaid.

CONTRACT FOR SALT.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, October 26,
1867.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 5th November next, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford,

155 TONS OF WHITE SALT,

to be delivered by the 30th June, 1868.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the salt.

Tenders are to be made at a rate per 1,000 lbs. weight.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

Samples (not less than 3 lbs.) must be produced by parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, where the conditions of the contract may be seen.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Salt," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

CONTRACTS FOR VINEGAR, SPLIT PEAS, RAISINS, AND TEA.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, October 26,
1867.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 5th November next, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:-

Vinegar, 20,000 gallons (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 gallons); half to be delivered in one calendar month from date of contract, and the remainder in one calendar month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Split Peas, 5,000 imperial bushels (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 gallons); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Raisins, 50,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tea, 100,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per lb.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Separate tenders are to be made for each article.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The raisins and tea to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples of the vinegar (not less than a quart), which the parties tendering may propose to supply, must accompany their tenders, as the delivery will be required to be made in accordance with the samples which may be accepted, and the vinegar tendered is to be of No. 20, trade denomination. The casks which the vinegar is to be supplied will be furnished by the Government, but are to be sent for and returned, when filled, by the contractor.

Samples of the split peas (not less than 2 quarts) and of the raisins (not less than 3 lbs.), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for tea must specify the import mark and number of each parcel, the ship in which imported, the dock or warehouse where lying, and must be accompanied by an average sample (not less than two pounds) of each parcel. Tenders failing in any of these conditions will not be entertained.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tenders will be received unless made in accordance with the above denomination of quantities and rates; and contractors in claiming payment for articles supplied are to make out their invoices in accordance therewith, both as to quantities and rates, excepting those for peas which are to be in gallons, at per 100 gallons.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.
