And Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, did thereby further order that, in the event of any cattle being landed in any portion of the United Kingdom contrary to the provisions of that Order, -all such cattle, the importation or introduction whereof was thereby prohibited as aforesaid, should, upon their arrival in this country, be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs might direct; and that that Order should continue in force until revoked by any further Order; and that the word "cattle" should include sheep as well as bulls, cows, oxen, heifers, and calves :

And whereas Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, did, by Orders dated the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the third day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, revoke so much of the said recited Order as applied to cattle, the produce of the provinces of Friesland, Groningen, Zealand, Overijssel, and that part of the province of North Holland, which is situate to the north of the River Y, parts of the said dominions belonging to His said Majesty the King of the Netherlands, and did thereby authorize any such cattle to be imported into any port or place in Great Britain, from certain ports within such provinces, as in such Orders mentioned :

And whereas it has been represented to Her Majesty that the cattle in the said dominions and territories situated in Europe, belonging to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, other than the province of South Holland, are now free from such contagious or infectious disorders, and that it is advisable that so much of the said recited Order, dated the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, as is now in force, should be revoked, except as regards the province of South Holland :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby revoke, from and after the eighteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, so much of the said recited Order of the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six as shall be then in force, except as far as the same applies or relates to importation or introduction into the United Kingdom of such cattle as therein mentioned from the province of South Holland.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of November, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, by an Order dated the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, reciting that, it had been represented to Her Majesty that certain contagious or infectious disorders were then prevalent among cattle in the dominions and territories situated in Europe belonging to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, and that there was danger of the said disorders being introduced into this country by means of cattle from such countries or places, did order that on and after the twenty-eighth day of March then instant, no cattle should be imported or introduced into the United Kingdom which should come from or should have been at any place within the aforesaid territories and dominions situate in Europe belonging to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands; and also that on and after the said twenty-eighth day of March then instant no cattle should be imported or introduced into the United Kingdom which should be or should have been on board any vessels at the same time with any cattle which should have come from or should have been within the aforesaid territories and dominions :

And Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, did thereby further order that, in the event of any cattle being landed in any portion of the United Kingdom contrary to the provisions of that Order, all such cattle, the importation or introduction whereof was thereby prohibited as aforesaid, should, upon their arrival in this country, be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs might direct; and that that Order should continue in force until revoked by any further Order; and that the word "cattle" should include sheep as well as bulls, cows, oxen, heifers, and calves :

And whereas by an Order, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, did order that on and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, no horn, hoof, raw or wet hide or skin of any such cattle as aforesaid should be imported or introduced into the United Kingdom which should come from or should have been at any place within the aforesaid territories and dominions, situate in Europe, belonging to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, other than the provinces of Friesland and Groningen; and also that on and after the said first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, no horn, hoof, raw or wet hide or skin of any such cattle should be imported or introduced into the United Kingdom which should be or should have been on board any vessels at the same time with any cattle which should have come from or should have been within the aforesaid territories and dominions, other than the said provinces of Friesland and Groningen, and that in the event of the horn, hoof, raw or wet hide or skin of any cattle being landed in any portion of the United Kingdom contrary to the provisions of that Order, such horn, hoof, raw or wet hide or skin, the importation or introduction whereof was thereby prohibited as aforesaid, should, upon arrival in this country, be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs might direct; and that that Order should continue in force until revoked by any further Order :

And whereas Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, did, by Orders dated the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the third day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, revoke so much of the said recited Order as applied to cattle, the produce of the
