HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, on a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint the Reverend Frederick Wilkinsoñ, of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, M.A., to be one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of December, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Orders of Her Majesty in Council, made respectively on the tenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and on the ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, by virtue of a certain Act of Parliament passed in the session holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of Assizes in England and Wales," it was amongst other things ordered that the Assizes and Sessions holden under Commissions of Gaol Delivery, and other commissions for the despatch of civil and criminal business for the county of York, theretofore holden at York, should thereafter be holden on the same Circuit at York and Leeds, in the said county; and that the said county should be divided for the purposes of carrying the said Act and the said Orders into execution into two Divisions, which should respectively be called "The North and East Riding Division," and "The West Riding Division;" and that the said "North and East Riding Division" should include and consist of the whole of the North and East Ridings of the said county, and the said "West Riding Division" should include and consist of the whole of the West Riding of the said county:

And whereas by the first section of the said Order in Council of the ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, it was provided that, "in all cases of commitment for trial, or of recognizances to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or answer at the Assizes for any offence supposed to have been committed in the said 'North and East Riding Division,' such commitment shall be either to the Castle of York or to the Gaol or House of Correction in Northallerton, or to the Gaol or House of Correction in Beverley, and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute or give evidence, or to appear and answer at the Assizes at York as heretofore, and for any offence supposed to have been committed in the said 'West Riding Division,' the commitment shall be either to the Borough Gaol in Leeds, or to the Gaol or House of Correction in Wakefield; and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute or give evidence, or to appear and answer at the Assizes at Leeds, unless the Justice or Justices of the Peace making any such commitment or taking such recognizance shall, under the special circumstances of the case, think fit to make such commitment for trial or recognizance to appear and prosecute or give evidence, or to appear and answer at the Assizes to be holden in either of the said Divisions, other than that in which the offence shall be supposed to have been committed, in which case such commitment shall be made and recognizances taken, and such trial shall take place accordingly:" And whereas by the second section of the said Order in Council of the ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, certain provisions were made for the removal to, and trial at, Leeds, of prisoners in custody in the House of Correction at Wakefield, for offences appearing, by their respective commitments, to have been committed within the said "West Riding Division:" And whereas it is expedient to alter and amend the same, and to make further provision with respect to the commitment for trial of prisoners charged with the commission of offences within the said "West Riding Division," and with respect to the removal of prisoners now or hereafter committed to the House of Correction at Wakefield, for trial at the Leeds Assizes.

It is, therefore, ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue of all powers vested in Her Majesty by the said recited Act of Parliament or otherwise,
