

enabling Her Majesty in that behalf as follows (that is to say):—The said first and second Sections of the said Order in Council of the ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, shall be amended and altered, and the same are hereby respectively amended and altered as follows:—

I. In all cases of commitment for trial, or of recognizances to appear and prosecute, or give evidence or answer at the Assizes for any offence supposed to have been committed in the said North and East Riding Divisions, such commitment shall be either to the Castle of York, or to the Gaol or House of Correction in Northallerton, or to the Gaol or House of Correction in Beverley, and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer at the Assizes at York as heretofore; and for any offence supposed to have been committed in the said "West Riding Division," the commitment shall be to the Gaol or House of Correction in Wakefield, and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer at the Assizes at Leeds, unless the Justice or Justices of the Peace making any such commitment, or taking such recognizance, shall, under the special circumstances of the case, think fit to make such commitment for trial, or recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer at the Assizes to be holden in either of the said divisions other than that in which the offence shall be supposed to have been committed, in which case such commitment shall be made and recognizances taken, and such trial shall take place accordingly.

II. All prisoners now or hereafter in custody in or committed to the said Gaol or House of Correction at Wakefield, for trial at the next or any subsequent Assizes or Gaol Delivery to be holden at Leeds after the date of this Order, shall be tried at Leeds, and shall in due time, and from time to time without writ of habeas corpus or other writ or order of Court for that purpose, be removed by the gaoler or keeper of such Gaol or House of Correction, with their commitments and detainers, to the Borough Gaol at Leeds, in order that they may be tried at the Assizes to be holden there under Commissions of Gaol Delivery and other Commissions for the said "West Riding Division." Every prisoner so removed shall for and during the time of such removal, and for and during the time of his being removed back to the said Gaol or House of Correction at Wakefield, when and as often as he shall for any reason be so removed back, and also for and during such time as he may be so detained in the said Borough Gaol, and until he shall have been delivered by due course of law, be deemed to be and shall be to all intents and purposes in the proper legal custody. And the keeper of the said Gaol or House of Correction at Wakefield shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Judge of Assize at every Assize and Gaol Delivery to be hereafter holden at Leeds, a calendar of all prisoners in custody for trial at such Assizes, as by law required, and shall cause to be inserted in one or more of the newspapers published in the said county a list of the names of all prisoners who are to be tried at Leeds (so far as the said list can then be made out), with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, together with a notice that all persons bound by recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence against or for such prisoners so to be tried at Leeds, shall appear and give evidence at the then next Assize or Gaol Delivery to be holden at Leeds, and the persons so bound shall so appear and prosecute and give evidence accordingly.

III. This Order, and the said Orders of the tenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and of the ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, shall henceforth be in force and take effect in the same manner as if the first and second sections of the said Order of the ninth day of July had been originally contained therein in the terms of the said several sections as hereby amended, and in all other respects, save as they are hereby amended and altered, the provisions of the said Orders of the tenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and of the ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, shall remain and be in full force and effect.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of December, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require;—provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes herein-after mentioned, ten days' previous notice of
