AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of December, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Gathorne Hardy, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the undermentioned parishes, with the following modifications ; viz.:

ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE.—Forthwith wholly in the church of Saint Peter, and in the churchyard, except for the burial of the members of the families of the owners of family graves and vaults possessed before the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, that no coffin be buried in an earthen grave less than four feet below the surface, or within one foot of a previously buried coffin ; and that every coffin buried in a vault or walled grave be embedded in charcoal, and separately entombed, that is, enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented ; and that on or before the day preceding the intended burial of any deceased person, the Sexton shall inform the Town Clerk of Ashton-under-Lyne of the name of such deceased person, and of the alleged relationship of such person to the owner of the grave or vault in the churchyard, and of the time of the intended burial.

LLANGEFNI.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church, and in the churchyard, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately entombed by being enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the sixteenth day of January next :

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette ; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said sixteenth day of January.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of November, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, and under and in pursuance of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, do hereby define the part of the Port of Littlehampton, in the county of Sussex, within which foreign cattle may be landed, as follows :—

All that space known as Buisson's Wharf, situate in River-road, in the parish of Littlehampton, in the county of Sussex, bounded on the southwest by the River Arun, on the northeast by the highway called River Road, on the northwest by premises belonging to Thomas Isemonger, and in the occupation of the said Thomas Isemonger and Edward Stephen Corney, and on the southeast by a public footpath leading from the said River-road to the river, which wharf has a frontage on the River Arun of eighty-five feet or thereabout, and a depth from the River Arun to the road of sixty-five feet or thereabout ; all which space is coloured green on the plan of part of the Port of Littlehampton deposited at the Privy Council Office, copies of which are deposited at the offices of the Town Clerk of the borough of Arundel, and the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Sussex ;

And do hereby prescribe as follows :—

1. All foreign cattle landed within the said defined part of the port shall be slaughtered within four days after the landing thereof, exclusive of the day of landing, unless they are taken to a licensed market or sale within that defined part
