

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of November, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, and under and in pursuance of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, do hereby define the part of the Port of Penzance, in the county of Cornwall, within which foreign cattle may be landed, as follows :—

All that part of the Albert Pier, in the port of Penzance, which extends from the line of the northern side of the jetty situate at the southern end of the said pier, for a distance of one thousand and sixty feet northward, and includes a shed which has been erected for the reception and slaughter of foreign cattle; all which space is coloured green on a plan of part of the port of Penzance, deposited at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Town Clerk of the borough of Penzance;

And do hereby prescribe as follows :—

1. All foreign cattle landed within the said defined part of the port shall be slaughtered within four days after the landing thereof, exclusive of the day of landing, unless they are taken to a licensed market or sale within that defined part within such four days, and they shall be so taken if a market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, but if there is no such licensed market or sale within that defined part, or if no such market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, then all such foreign cattle shall be slaughtered within that defined part within the said period of four days.

2. Cattle other than foreign cattle within the said defined part shall not be removed therefrom alive.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of November, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, and under and in pursuance of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, do hereby define the part of the Port of Sunderland, in the county of Durham, within which foreign cattle may be landed, as follows :—

All that space in the port and borough of Sunderland, being a part of the South Dock property of the River Wear Commissioners, lying between the German Ocean and a line commencing on the sea at the north-eastern end of the South Pier, at the mouth of the River Wear, and running in a direction generally towards the south-west, along the southern side of the River Wear to the Tide Gauge at the north-eastern point of the entrance to the Tidal Harbour, thence in a southerly direction along the eastern side of the waters of the Tidal Harbour, of the North Half Tide Basin, and of the South Dock, to No. 4 Gates, at a point twenty yards due south of the south-western corner of the Dockmaster's House, thence in an easterly direction along the northern side of the water of the South Half Tide Basin and of the New South Harbour, to the sea at the south-eastern end of the New North-East Pier; all which space is coloured green on the Ordnance Map of that part of the county of Durham, which includes Sunderland, deposited at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Town Clerk of the borough of Sunderland;

And do hereby prescribe as follows :—

1. All foreign cattle (unless they are re-shipped in accordance with Article 2 of this Order) landed within the said defined part of the port shall be slaughtered within four days after the landing thereof, exclusive of the day of landing, unless they are taken to a licensed market or sale within that defined part within such four days, and they shall be so taken if a market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, but if there is no such licensed market or sale within that defined part, or if no such market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, then all such foreign cattle shall be slaughtered within that defined part within the said period of four days.

2. Foreign cattle landed within the said defined part may, under such regulations as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs from time to time prescribe, be re-shipped therefrom and conveyed by sea direct to the port of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, North Shields, Hartlepool, or Middlesborough.

3. Cattle other than foreign cattle within the said defined part shall not be removed therefrom alive, and cattle so re-shipped shall continue to be deemed foreign cattle.
