

And for every additional half of an ounce in weight of any such letter above the weight of two ounces, there shall be charged, taken, and paid one additional rate of postage; and every fractional part of such additional half of an ounce in weight shall be charged as an additional half of an ounce in weight; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this Warrant shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight.

3. Nothing herein contained shall be construed in anywise to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions or privileges granted by the said first hereinbefore recited Act, or to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the privileges which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's Service are now by law entitled to of sending and receiving by the post, letters not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions made and in force for the time being in respect of the same.

4. The term "East Indies," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to mean every port or place in Her Majesty's dominions in Asia (except Australia and New Zealand), and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said first hereinbefore recited Act.

5. The rates of British postage fixed by this present Warrant, on the letters transmitted as herein mentioned shall be in lieu of those now chargeable thereon, under or by virtue of a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury bearing date the 22nd day of December, 1865, which last mentioned rates shall be and the same are hereby revoked and repealed.

6. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, may by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby altered or the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time may appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

7. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

3rd December, 1867.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

DUKE'S TOWN—ORDER DISMISSING PETITION FOR SETTLEMENT OF BOUNDARY OF DUKE'S TOWN DISTRICT, COUNTY BRECKON.

WHEREAS a Petition has been duly presented under the provisions of the Local Government Act, 1858, to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, signed by not less than one tenth of the ratepayers resident within the boundaries of a proposed District, to be styled Duke's Town (Duffryn Upper), in the parish of Llangynider, in the county of Brecknock, praying for the settlement of the boundaries of such district for the purposes of the said Act. And whereas, after due inquiry held and report made to me by Arnold Taylor, Esq., the Inspector appointed for such purpose, I have considered the matter in question. I do hereby, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the aforesaid Local Government Act, dismiss the said Petition, on the ground that the proposed district would not be in any way adapted to the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1858, and I do hereby declare that there was no good and sufficient ground for such Petition, and such Petition is dismissed accordingly. And I further order, that the expenses incurred in the said inquiry, amounting in the whole to the sum of six pounds six shillings be charged upon Edward John Cox Davies, Solicitor, of Crickhowell, in the said county; and he is hereby charged with the payment of the said sum accordingly.

Given under my hand this 28th day of
November, 1867,

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

RIPLEY, DERBYSHIRE.

WHEREAS the Local Board in and for the District of Ripley, in the parish of Pentrich, in the county of Derby, have obtained the consent of a meeting of ratepayers and owners of property within such district, held on the 14th day of November, 1867, the said consent being expressed by resolution, as required by the 50th section of the Local Government Act, 1858, and bringing in force the provisions of the Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1347, and the various Acts and parts of Acts incorporated therewith, relating to markets and tolls; and whereas the said Local Board have now given notice to me, under the hereinbefore recited Local Government Act, 1858, that the said Acts and parts of Acts have been adopted in such district, with a view to their being put in force therein.

I do hereby, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and under the provisions of the Local Government Act, 1858, give notice that the said Acts and parts of Acts, with respect to the establishment, &c., of markets, market-houses, &c., in the said district of Ripley, have been duly adopted by the aforesaid Local Board, with the consent of the meeting of ratepayers and owners of Ripley, as hereinbefore described.

Given under my hand this 30th day of November, 1867.
