AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 20th day of December, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is amongst other things, enacted that, in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Local Board of Health of any district established under the Public Health Act, that the district of such Local Board of Health is co-extensive with a district for which it is proposed to provide a burial ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial grounds within the said district, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, and thereupon such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for such district accordingly, and the powers and provisions of the Acts thereinbefore mentioned (except the provisions relating to the constitution or appointment and resignation of members of Burial Boards), and the provisions therein contained, shall extend to the district of such Board, and to such Board, and to any burial ground and place for the reception of the bodies of the dead previously to interment which may be provided by such Board, in like manner as to any parish or parishes and the Burial Board thereof, and any burial ground and any such place as aforesaid provided by such last-mentioned Board, save that no approval, sanction, or authorization of any vestry shall be requisite: Provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of such Local Board, one month at least before such petition is so considered:

And whereas the Local Board of Health for the District of Chatham-Extra, in the county of Kent, have, under the provisions of the said recited Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, presented a Petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating, amongst other things, that the district of the petitioners is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial ground; that no Burial Board has been appointed for the said District; that an Order in Council has been made for closing certain burial grounds within the said District; and praying that Her Majesty will be pleased to order that the Chatham-Extra Local Board of Health shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board:

No. 23336.

And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, has been duly published as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Local Board of Health for the District of Chatham-Extra, in the county of Kent, shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign.
