WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Saint Mary, Hayton, with the chapelry of Talkin annexed, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty-five pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the perpetual curacy of Poulton, in the deanery of Cricklade, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, one capital sum of fifty-nine pounds, one shilling and tenpence, such capital sum to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said perpetual curacy according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, and to remain in the meantime in our hands, at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Poulton: Provided always, that the said capital sum of fifty-nine pounds one shilling and tenpence, hereby granted and appropriated to the said perpetual curacy of Poulton, shall be and be held to be, in lieu of and in substitution for an annual sum of one pound nineteen shillings and four pence, the residue of the grant of a perpetual annuity of thirty pounds which by an instrument dated the twentieth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, was secured by us to the perpetual curacy of Poulton.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Poulton, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same perpetual curacy, all those several pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances, which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us. To have and to hold the said several pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same perpetual curacy shall be entitled to receive from us, or
