Schedule.

All those several pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, with the messuage or dwelling-house, outhouses, erections, and buildings standing and being on part thereof, containing by recent admeasurement four acres three roods and ten perches, but formerly estimated to contain four acres three roods and thirty perches, situate at Poulton, in the parish of Poulton, in the county of Wilts, which said hereditaments were granted and conveyed to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, by a certain deed (intended to be forthwith deposited in the Registry at Bristol for the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol), bearing date the eighth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and made or expressed to be made between Edmund Hill, of Poulton aforesaid, Yeoman, and George Job Hill, of Norton Manor Farm, near Malmesbury, in the said county of Wilts, Yeoman, of the one part, and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, and which are delineated on a plan drawn in the margin of such deed, and are therein coloured round with green.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Lakenheath, in the county of Suffolk, and in the diocese of Ely, and to his successors Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of twenty-two pounds fourteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this nineteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of two roods, or thereabouts, of land, which have been permanently secured to the perpetual curacy of Horton in Ribblesdale, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, and of a further benefaction of five hundred pounds sterling, which we have received in favour of the same perpetual curacy, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said perpetual curacy of Horton in Ribblesdale, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of five hundred and sixty-eight pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice according to plans and a specification to be approved by us; such capital sum of five hundred and sixty-eight pounds, or the balance thereof, unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Horton in Ribblesdale.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this nineteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.
