FRIDAY, JANUARY 24, 1868.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of January, 1868.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Lord Robert Montagu.
Mr. Cave.

WHEREAS outbreaks of Cattle Plague have occurred in the neighbourhood of Antwerp, in the Kingdom of Belgium, and it is expedient that the provisions now in force under Orders of the Privy Council respecting the landing, movement, and slaughter of foreign cattle be extended to sheep and goats brought from Antwerp, or any other port in Belgium :

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

1. From and after the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, sheep brought to Great Britain from Antwerp or any other port in Belgium shall be subject to the same provisions respecting landing, movement, and slaughter, as are on that day applicable to foreign cattle under any Orders of the Privy Council whether general or relating to particular ports or places.

2. Notwithstanding anything in this Order the mode of marking sheep, to which this Order applies, shall be such (if any) as the Privy Council from time to time direct, but in all other respects such sheep shall be subject to the provisions of Article 43 of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867.

3. In this Order the word "Sheep" includes lambs. The other words have the same meaning as in The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867 ; and the provisions of this Order relating to sheep extend also to goats.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the tonnage bounty and proceeds of a slave brigantine, name unknown, captured on the 17th September, 1866, by Her Majesty's ship "Espoir."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and at the same time the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House, January 20, 1868.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the slave and tonnage bounties awarded for six slave dhows, captured on the 30th April, and 1st and 2nd May, 1866, by Her Majesty's ship "Pantaloon."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said bounties are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

TO all to whom these presents shall come, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, send greeting: Whereas it has been made to appear to us that certain tithes or rent-charges in lieu thereof, arising within the particular district of Saint Nicholas, Halewood, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, belong to the Incumbent of the church of such particular district: Now, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of "The District Church Tithes Act, 1865," do hereby declare that from and after the time of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, pursuant to the provisions of the same Act, the said church of the particular district of Saint Nicholas, Halewood aforesaid shall be and be deemed to be a rectory.

In witness whereof, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have hereunto affixed our common seal, this ninth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

TO all to whom these presents shall come, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, send greeting: Whereas it has been made to appear to us that certain land allotted or awarded in lieu of tithes, and situate within the parish of Ashelworth, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, belong to the Incumbent of the church of such parish; Now, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of "The District Church Tithes Act, 1865," do hereby declare that from and after the time of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, pursuant to the provisions of the same Act, the said church of the parish of Ashelworth aforesaid shall be and be deemed to be a rectory.

In witness whereof, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have hereunto affixed our common seal, this sixteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

In the copy of the instrument of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England for augmenting the income of the vicarage of Falinge, in the county of Lancaster, published in the London Gazette of 21st January, 1868, page 283, the words "one yearly sum or stipend of five hundred pounds" were owing to a mistake in the printing used instead of the words "one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds," which lastly mentioned sum was the amount actually granted to the said vicarage by the instrument sealed by the said Commissioners.

WHEREAS it has been made to appear to Her Majesty's Commissioners of Inland Revenue that the Leeds Old Bank and the Doncaster Bank and Retford Bank have become united and are now carrying on business at Leeds, Doncaster, Retford, and divers other places, under the name or title of Beckett and Co., we, the undersigned, two of the Commissioners aforesaid, in pursuance of the 16th section of the Act 7 and 8 Vict., cap. 32, do hereby certify that the authorized amount of the Bank Notes to be issued by Edmund Denison, William Beckett Denison, John Metcalfe Smith, Christopher Beckett Denison, Henry Beilby, William Milner, and Charles Edward Stephen Cooke, who are the persons of whom the said Bank consists, is one hundred and thirty thousand seven hundred and fifty-seven pounds, being the aggregate of the average amounts of the Bank Notes of the Leeds Old Bank and the Doncaster Bank and Retford Bank, in circulation during a period of twelve weeks preceding the 27th day of April, 1844, according to the Returns made by such Banks, in pursuance of the Act passed in the 4th and 5th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make further provision relative to the returns to be made by Banks of the Amount of their Notes in circulation."—Dated this 24th day of January, 1868.

Persons wishing to become purchasers must apply to the Superintendent of Deptford Dockyard for notes of admission to view the lots.

The particulars of the timber materials and a form of the tender and conditions of sale may be obtained here and at Deptford Dockyard.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing to make a deposit of £25 per cent. on the amount of the tender.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Timber Materials," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Storekeeper-General, Admiralty, Somerset House.

CONTRACT FOR BALTIC FIR TIMBER.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, January 8,

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 28th instant, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering at Her Majesty's Naval Yard at Haulbowline, 800 Loads of BALTIC FIR TIMBER, required for the formation of a New Dock at Haulbowline.

A form of the tender and conditions of contract may be obtained here and at the office of the Naval Storekeeper at Haulbowline.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Baltic Fir Timber," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Storekeeper-General, Admiralty, Somerset House, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £300 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR COALS FOR VANCOUVER'S ISLAND.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, January 9,

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 4th February next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Store on shore at Shetis Island, Esquimalt Harbour, Vancouver's Island, a cargo of about

A form of the tender and conditions of contract may be seen in the Lobby of the Storekeeper-General's Department, Admiralty, Somerset House.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Coals for Vancouver's Island," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Storekeeper-General, Admiralty, Somerset House, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR GROCERIES FOR ARMY SERVICE. (DUTY PAID.)

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, January 21,

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 30th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:—

Coffee (Roasted), 10,000 lbs.; to be delivered within three weeks from date of contract.

Coffee (Green or Raw), 17,000 lbs.; to be delivered within three weeks from date of contract.

Tea (Congou), in half chests, 16,000 lbs.; to be delivered within three weeks from date of contract.

Sugar, 135,000 lbs.; to be delivered within three weeks from date of contract.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

Each tender for sugar must specify the mark and landing number of each cask or package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than 2 lbs. for each import mark) must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different marks or several imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same mark or average quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

Samples of the other articles (not less than 2 lbs. of each), must be produced by the parties tendering.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, where the conditions of the contracts may also be seen.

All the articles are to be delivered duty paid, and the tenders are to be made at a rate per lb. for the tea, and at rates per 100 lbs. for the other articles, all the prices inclusive of duty.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing, when, but not before, the rejected samples are to be removed.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Groceries," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Estate of the late JOHN BALFOUR, Cabinetmaker and Upholsterer, Maxwell-street and Jamaica-street, Glasgow.

THE Judicial Factor on this estate hereby intimates that the remainder of the stock belonging to this estate, in Warehouse, No. 20, Jamaica-street, Glasgow, has, since 1st October last been, and still continues by arrangement to be sold for him by the deceased's sons, James W. Balfour and Robert Lalfour, who have been and are carrying on business on their own account under the firm of J. & R. Balfour, and who have purchased the premises.

The Judicial Factor further recommends to the customers of the late John Balfour and to the public, the said firm of J. & R. Balfour, who have, since the above date, carried on as heretofore, at No. 20, Jamaica-street, the above business, so long and so successfully conducted by their late father, at No. 80, Maxwell-street, Glasgow.

Wm. Brown, Judicial Factor.

Glasgow, No. 87, St. Vincent-street, 16th January, 1868.

WITH reference to the above the subscribers beg to intimate, that having purchased from the Judicial Factor those large and commodious premises recently erected by their late father at No. 20, Jamaica-street, Glasgow, they have fitted up the same with a new, large, and well assorted stock of first-class furniture, which will enable them to offer to the customers of their late father and the public, a selection not to be excelled in the city. Further, by the liberal arrangement made with the Judicial Factor on their late father's estate, they are enabled to offer to the public the remaining stock of the said estate at greatly reduced prices, so that purchasers at their establishment have now the opportunity of securing a decided bargain.

The subscribers respectfully solicit a continuance of the custom so liberally bestowed on their late father.

Note.—New address, No. 20, Jamaica-street.
