IN THE MATTER OF THE FACTORY ACTS
EXTENSION ACT, 1867.

WHEREAS due proof has been made to the undersigned, Gathorne Hardy, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the customs of the Trades carried on in the Factories specified in the Schedule hereto, require that the modifications hereafter mentioned should be allowed: Now, I, the said Gathorne Hardy, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the twenty-fifth Article of the Schedule annexed to the Factory Acts Extension Act, 1867, do, by this my order, give permission to the occupiers of the said Factories:—

That the eight half holidays or four whole holidays may be given to the children, young persons, or women, or any one or more of them, at different times, provided that notice of the holiday be given at least one day previously.

That children, young persons, or women may be employed between two p.m. and eight p.m. on Saturdays, provided a full half holiday be given on some day in the ensuing week, such day to be named on the Saturday.

That a Surgical Certificate granted by a Certifying Surgeon be valid at any Factory in the
