

London (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Arthur Cyril Onslow, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary, Newington, shall continue to be such rector or incumbent, all the fees which shall be payable in respect of the solemnization or performance of the said offices in the church of Saint Matthew aforesaid, shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the said Arthur Cyril Onslow; And provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Newington, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Mary, Newington, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of London (including a certain portion of the territory within such parish which is now subject from and after the next avoidance of the rectory of the same parish to the provisions of an Order in Council made by His late Majesty King George the Fourth, on the twentieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and duly published in the London Gazette on the sixth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, relative to the intended district parish of Trinity, Southwark), all which said part of the parish of Saint Mary, Newington aforesaid, is comprised within, and is bounded by, an imaginary line commencing at the point at or near to the Elephant and Castle, where the Walworth-road is joined by the New Kent-road; and extending thence, eastward, along the middle of the last-named road, thereby passing under the line of the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway to the junction of the same road with the street or road called or known as Meadow-row; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named street or road to its junction with William-street; and extending thence, eastward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Saint Andrew's-road; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the street or road called or known as Clarence-place; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street or road to its junction with Saint George's-road; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary in the New Kent-road aforesaid, which divides the said parish of Saint Mary, Newington, from the district chapelry of Saint John, Walworth, some time part of the same parish; and extending thence, first southward and then westward, along the said boundary (thereby following the middle of the street or road called or known as Union-row, and the middle of the street or road called or known as Prospect-row) as far as the point where the same boundary turns out of Prospect-row into Albion-place; and continuing thence, still westward, along the middle of Prospect-row aforesaid, to its junction with the Walworth-road aforesaid; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the last-named road, thereby passing under the line of the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway aforesaid, to the first described point at or near to the Elephant and Castle aforesaid, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of February, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate at Neepsend, in the new parish of Fitts-moor, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate at Neepsend as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of
