

said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said particular district of Saint Matthew, Denmark-hill, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Saviour, situate in Herne-hill-road as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Herne-hill-road.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Charles Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Herne Hill-road, being:—

"All that part of the particular district of Saint Matthew, Denmark-hill, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, which is situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the district parish of Emmanuel, Camberwell, in the said county and diocese from the particular district of Saint Matthew, Denmark-hill aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the north-western end of Lilford-road; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said road to its junction with Cold Harbour-lane; and extending thence south-westward for a distance of three and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said lane, to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the fence on the eastern side of Vaughan-road; and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of six chains, or thereabouts, to and along the middle of the said fence to a boundary stone, inscribed 'H. H. R. St. S. D. C., 1868, No. 1,' and placed in the angle formed by the said Vaughan-road bending south-westward; and continuing thence, still south-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of twenty chains, or thereabouts, to another boundary stone, inscribed 'H. H. R. St. S. D. C., 1868, No. 2,' and placed upon the boundary dividing the said particular district of Saint Matthew, Denmark-hill, from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, Herne-hill, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a distance of twenty-nine chains and seventy-five links, or thereabouts, from the point where such boundary meets the north-eastern side of Poplar-walk."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of

Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of March, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Clement, situate at Urmston, in the parish of Flixton, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Clement, situate at Urmston aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Flixton which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Clement, situate at Urmston as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Clement, Urmston.'

"And, with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the
