

tion of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth, and partly out of the new parish of South Hylton, and the new parish of Saint Paul, Ryhope, both some time part of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth; and also for constituting another separate district for spiritual purposes out of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Deptford.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular parts of the above-mentioned cures, which are herein-after mentioned and described (such parts not at present containing within their respective limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship) should be constituted into four separate districts, in the manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas certain glebe lands, tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, messuages, tenements, and hereditaments, formerly belonging to the rectory of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth, have become vested in us, under the provisions of and for the purposes of the fourthly hereinbefore-mentioned Act.

"And whereas, of the four districts hereinafter recommended to be constituted, two, that is to say, the two which are firstly and secondly hereinbefore referred to and hereinafter named and described, will, under the provisions of the tenth section of the said fourthly hereinbefore mentioned Act, be permanently endowed, each of them, with an annual sum of three hundred pounds, to be increased ultimately to four hundred pounds, and the remaining two of the four districts hereinbefore referred to, that is to say, the districts which are thirdly and fourthly hereinbefore referred to and hereinafter named and described, will, under the provisions of the same section, be permanently endowed, each of them, with an annual sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, to be increased ultimately to three hundred pounds, all which endowments respectively will be made by instruments under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act and of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, all that part of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth which is described in the first schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan numbered I., and hereunto annexed, shall become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Peter, Bishopwearmouth;' that all those parts of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth and of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Deptford, which are described in the second schedule hereunder written, all which lastly-mentioned parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan numbered

III., and hereunto annexed, shall become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Matthew, Silksworth;' and that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Deptford, which is described in the fourth schedule hereunder written, all which lastly mentioned part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan numbered IV., and hereunto annexed, shall become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Luke, Pallion.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament.

The First SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Peter, Bishopwearmouth, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Bishopwearmouth, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north by the parish of Monkwearmouth, in the said county and diocese, on the east by the new parish of Saint Thomas, Bishopwearmouth, in the same county and diocese, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the south and on the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Bishopwearmouth, from the parish of Bishopwearmouth aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Borough-road, opposite to the middle of the southern end of Back Fawcett-street; and extending thence, westward, for a distance of seventeen chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of Borough-road aforesaid, to its junction with Crowtree-road; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named road, to its junction with High-street; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Castle-street; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Chapple-street; and extending thence, eastward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with North-street; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Dock-street; and continuing thence, still northward, and in a straight line, across the last-named street, passing to the east of the Lambton Offices, and also crossing the premises known as the 'Lambton Drops,' to the boundary in the middle of the River Wear, which divides the said parish of Bishopwearmouth from the parish of Monkwearmouth aforesaid.

The Second SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Mark, Millfield, being:—
