

recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereto, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said John Thomas, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Philip, Heigham, being :

"All that part of the parish of Heigham, in the city and county of the city of Norwich, and in the diocese of Norwich, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the west by the parish of Earham, in the same county and diocese, on the south by the new parish of the Most Holy Trinity, Heigham (lately part of the said parish of Heigham), on the east partly by the parish of Saint Giles, Norwich, in the said county and diocese, and partly by the parish of Saint Benedict, Norwich, in the same county and diocese, and on the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Heigham aforesaid, at a point near Saint Benedict's-gates, at the eastern end of the Dereham-road; and extending thence westward, for a distance of one mile and a quarter, or thereabouts, along the middle of the same road, to a point upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Heigham from the parish of Earham aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has been, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, transmitted to the patron, and to the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and such rector or incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Norwich.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard be postponed as follows, viz.:

In the churchyard of Wath-upon-Dearne, to the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, on condition that no earthen grave be opened for burial within three yards of Wath Hall Garden, and that no soil which is offensive be disturbed.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Gathorne Hardy, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days previous notice of his intention to make such representation has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous consent of the Secretary of State, and that burials should be discontinued in them, with the following modifications, viz. :—

MANCHESTER.—Forthwith wholly in St. Mary's church and churchyard, in the city of Manchester.

ALVESTON.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Alveston, in the county of Gloucester.
