WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, has been duly adopted by the district of Upper Mill, in the West Riding of the county of York; and notice of such adoption has been duly given, as required by such Act; and whereas it has now been duly certified to me that a copy of such notice has been duly advertised, and also been affixed in such district, and the period for appeal has now expired, and no such appeal has been made; and whereas, although the said district is a place with a population of less than 3,000 by the last census, it has appeared to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that by reason of the special circumstances, it is expedient that the said district should be allowed to adopt the said Act, I do hereby approve of such adoption by the district of Upper Mill aforesaid; and do further order that such Act shall, at the expiration of two months from the date of the passing of the resolution of adoption, have the force of law within such district.
