

attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

BRADFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, May 7, 1868.

THE following Addresses of congratulation to the Queen, in reference to the atrocious attempt upon the life of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Gathorne Hardy, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Devonport, humbly request permission to express to your Majesty the deep grief and indignation with which we (in common with the nation at large) have heard of the murderous attack which has been made upon His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, our cordial sympathy with your sorrow, and our sincere congratulation that your Majesty's anxiety has been partially relieved by more recent intelligence.

Our conviction that the offender must have been actuated by insanity, or by the blindest political fanaticism, in no degree lessens our humble and heartfelt thanks to God for having so mercifully protected the life of His Royal Highness; who will, we trust, ere long, return in renewed health; and we pray that he, and each Member of your Majesty's Family, may long prove a source of happiness to yourself and of blessing to this nation, by emulating the example of that noble life whose virtues have enhanced the loyalty and strengthened the affections of a devoted people.

Given under the common seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Devonport.
