Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 7, 1868.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Saturday, the 30th instant, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

BRADFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, May 25, 1868.

THE following Addresses of congratulation to the Queen, in reference to the atrocious attempt upon the life of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Gathorne Hardy, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's very loyal and dutiful subjects, the "Deputies from the several Congregations of Protestant Dissenters of the Three Denominations Presbyterian, Independent, and Baptist, in and within twelve miles of London, appointed to protect their civil rights," beg leave respectfully to approach your Majesty, with feelings of devoted loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's house and person.

In common with all your Majesty's loyal people, we have learnt, with feelings of horror and indignation, of the cruel and traitorous attempt that has been made to assassinate His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, when engaged in visiting a distant part of your Majesty's dominions.

We desire most respectfully, but most earnestly, to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt sympathy in the anxiety your Majesty must feel on account of His Royal Highness.

We rejoice that it pleased our Heavenly Father to preserve the life of His Royal Highness in a position of such great peril.

We shall continue to pray to Almighty God, that He will be pleased to preserve the life of
