NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Saturday, the 30th instant, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

BRADFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, May 28, 1868.

THE following Addresses of congratulation to the Queen, in reference to the atrocious attempt upon the life of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Gathorne Hardy, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Loyal and Dutiful Address of the Highland Society of London, unanimously adopted at a General Court of the Society, holden on Tuesday, the 5th day of May, in London.

May it please your Majesty,

A COWARDLY attempt to assassinate His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh has filled the hearts of all your Majesty's loyal subjects, throughout the wide-spread dominions of the British Crown, with indignation and alarm.

On so unprecedented and sinister an event, the Highland Society of London desires to express its respectful sympathy and condolence.

It is a matter of congratulation to the Highland Society of London that your Majesty's Royal Person and House are nowhere more secure than in that country whence your Majesty derives your title to the Throne of the United Kingdom.

The Highland Society of London congratulate your Majesty on the escape of His Royal Highness, who is one of the Members of its body, and rejoice that the iron hand of Justice holds firmly in its grip a miscreant whose fate will be deterrent to those whose trade is secret conspiracy and dastardly assassination.
