Whitehall, June 1, 1868.

THE following Addresses of congratulation to the Queen, in reference to the atrocious attempt upon the life of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Gathorne Hardy, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Bishop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the Clergy of the diocese of London, crave permission to approach your Majesty with the expression of our devout thankfulness to Almighty God for the frustration of the attempt lately made by a dastardly assassin on the life of your Majesty's beloved Son, the Duke of Edinburgh, while employed in your Majesty's service in the most remote part of your Majesty's dominions.

We trust that the same Gracious Providence will accomplish his speedy and perfect recovery.

The dangers and afflictions of your Majesty and your Majesty's all-honoured Family cannot but deeply affect the hearts of all your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects, none more than those of your Majesty's faithful Clergy of the diocese of London.

It is our earnest prayer that God may still watch over your Majesty and all your Majesty's illustrious Family, in steadfast assurance that on the life of your Majesty and the lives of your Majesty's offspring depends the peace, the welfare, and the happiness of the whole United Kingdom.
