It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

THE following Despatch has been received from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Constantinople on the subject of the Passport Regulations in force in the Ottoman Dominions :—

Constantinople,

May 26, 1868.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour to enclose the copy of a note from Fuad Pasha, pointing out the necessity that foreigners coming to Turkey should be provided with passports properly visés by the Ottoman authorities.

It might save some of Her Majesty's subjects from inconvenience and delay if this necessity were made public.

I enclose a copy of the answer I have returned to Fuad Pasha.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) HENRY ELLIOT.

The Right Honourable
 Lord Stanley, M.P.,
 &c., &c., &c.

Constantinople,

May 25, 1868.

M. L'AMBASSADEUR,

MON département a déjà eu l'honneur d'entretenir l'Ambassade Royale des réglemens qui exigent que les voyageurs, qui arrivent de l'étranger dans l'Empire, aient, sous peine d'être renvoyés, à présenter des passeports en règle revêtus des visa des Légations ou Consulaires Ottomans résidant dans le lieu de leur départ ; de même que toute personne qui se rend dans l'Intérieur du royaume soit pourvue d'un permis de voyage.

Il résulte toutefois d'une communication du Ministère de la Police que, depuis quelque temps, les capitaines des paquebots étrangers, faisant le service de cabotage entre la capitale et les échelles Ottomanes dans la Mer Noire et l'Archipel, négligent d'exiger des passagers l'exhibition de leur permis de voyage ; et que, à la faveur de cette négligence, beaucoup de gens sans aveu parviennent à pénétrer dans l'intérieur de l'Empire.

En me dispensant d'énumérer ici les inconvénients d'une telle dérogation aux règles établies, qui suscite de fâcheuses difficultés à la surveillance de la Police, je me borne à vous prier, M. l'Ambassadeur, de vouloir bien donner des ordres catégoriques à qui de droit pour que les Capitaines des bateaux Anglais aient à veiller à ce qu'aucun passager, non muni d'un permis de voyage en règle, ne soit reçu à bord de leurs bateaux en destination des ports de la Turquie.

Veillez, &c.,
 (Signed) FUAD.

His Excellency

The Right Honourable H. G. Elliot,
 &c., &c., &c.

(Translation).

Constantinople,

May 25, 1868.

M. L'AMBASSADEUR,

MY department has already had the honour of communicating to Her Majesty's Embassy the regulations which require that travellers, arriving in the Empire from abroad, shall, under penalty of being sent away again, be obliged to present passports in due form and provided with the visa of the Ottoman Legation or Consulate at the place from whence they started ; likewise that every person travelling into the interior of the Empire shall be provided with a permit to travel.

It appears from a communication which has been received from the Police Department, that for some time past the Captains of foreign steam-packets, which coast between the capital and the Eastern Ports of the Mediterranean in the Black Sea and the Archipelago, neglect to require that passengers shall show their permits to travel, and that in consequence of this negligence many persons, without authorization, succeed in penetrating into the interior of the Empire.

It is needless here to specify the inconvenience occasioned by this departure from established rules, which is a source of great trouble to the Police, and I will confine myself, M. l'Ambassadeur, to requesting you to be so good as to give categorical orders in the proper quarter, that the Captains of English vessels shall be obliged to take care that no passenger, who is not provided with a permit to travel in due form, shall be received on board their vessels bound for Turkish ports.

Receive, &c.,
 (Signed) FUAD.

His Excellency

The Right Honourable H. G. Elliot,
 &c., &c., &c.

Constantinople,

May 26, 1868.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your Highness's note of yesterday's date stating the necessity for foreigners coming to Turkey of being provided with passports duly visés by the Ottoman authorities.

I will take measures for causing it to be known that British subjects not provided with passports or travelling permits may be subjected to delay and inconvenience, but it is not in my power to enforce the examination of passports by the commanders of British steamers.

I avail, &c.,

LORD STANLEY, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received from Sir Harry Parkes, K.C.B., Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary in Japan, copies of the following Notification, which has been issued by him with regard to the delay in opening the City of Yedo and Port of Niigata to foreign trade:—

Yokohama, 5th April, 1868.

NOTIFICATION.

AS the changes which are at present taking place in the constitution of the government of Japan may disturb for a time the general security of Yedo and Niigata, the Undersigned, Her Britannic Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary in Japan, entertains the opinion that it would be unsafe for British subjects to take up their residence at that city and port until affairs are in a more settled condition.

He has accordingly to make known to all subjects of Her Britannic Majesty, that execution of the arrangements for the opening of that city and port to British trade on the 1st proximo is temporarily deferred, and that further notice will be issued as soon as it is considered that British subjects may safely reside and trade at these places.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant; and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 27, for amending the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and for providing for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications.

And whereas it is expedient to alter and fix certain rates of postage on certain letters and packets transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Norway, and to make certain regulations with regard thereto, in the manner hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament respectively, and all and every, or some or one of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided, order, declare, and direct as follows, that is to say:—

1. On every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Norway, or posted in Norway, addressed to the United Kingdom, transmitted by the post, between any place in the United Kingdom and Norway direct by private ship, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of eightpence if prepaid, and of tenpence if not prepaid.

2. And on every letter transmitted, as is hereinbefore mentioned, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows, that is to say:—

On every such letter exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

And for every half an ounce in weight of any such letter above the weight of two ounces there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage, and in charging any additional rate of postage, every fractional part of such additional half an ounce shall be charged as an additional half an ounce in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

3. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall in anywise alter, prejudice, or affect the exemptions and privileges granted by the said firstly hereinbefore recited Act, nor in anywise prejudice, or affect the privilege which officers, seamen, soldiers, and others employed in Her Majesty's Service, now by law enjoy of sending and receiving letters by the post subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

4. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Norway transmitted by the post from any part of the United Kingdom to Norway direct by private ship, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of twopence, and on every such packet exceeding four ounces, and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of fourpence, and every such respective packet shall be transmitted in conformity with, and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter mentioned, and contained relating thereto.

But if any such packet shall be posted with a postage paid thereon, which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable, under or by virtue of this Warrant, every such last-mentioned packet shall be forwarded, charged with double the amount of the deficient postage.

Vice-Chancellor Malins.—Friday, the 29th day of May, 1868.—Between Joseph Esdaile, one of the registered Public Officers of a Company or Copartnership called "The London and Westminster Bank," for and on behalf of the said Company, Plaintiff; Sarah Jane Teversham, Spinster, and William John Barret, out of Jurisdiction, Defendants.

UPON motion this day made unto this Court by Counsel for the plaintiff, who alleged that the plaintiff filed his Bill in this Court against the defendants, and that it appears by the affidavit of Orlando Matthews that the defendant William John Barrett has been within the jurisdiction of this Court within two years next before the filing of the said Bill, and that all due diligence has been used to serve the said last-named defendants with a printed copy of the said Bill, but without effect, and that the said defendant cannot be found so as to be served with process, and from inquiries at the last known place of abode of the said defendant, and at other places where it was probable the said defendant might be found, there is just ground to believe that the said defendant, William John Barrett has gone out of the realm, or otherwise absconded, to avoid being served with process, and upon reading the said affidavit, this Court doth order that the defendant, William John Barrett, do appear to the plaintiff's bill, on or before the 29th day of June, 1868; and the plaintiff is to cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof, to the effect set forth at the foot of the 10th of the Consolidated Orders, rule 6, to be inserted in the London Gazette, within fourteen days from the date hereof, and once in the Times newspaper, for two several weeks, within twenty-one days from the date hereof.

NOTICE.—William John Barrett, take notice, that if you do not appear pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own showing.
